Public Law 94-327
94th Congress

An Act

June 30, 1976
[S. 3475]

Relating to the display of certain historical documents within the United States Capitol Building during the calendar year 1976.

Historical documents. Display within the U.S. Capitol.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That nothing contained in the provisions of section 1815 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (40 U.S.C. 189), or any other law, shall be construed as prohibiting the Architect of the Capitol, during the Bicentennial year from displaying, in such manner and within such area of the United States Capitol Building, as the Architect of the Capitol, with the approval of the Joint Committee on the Library, shall determine, the historical drawings which resulted from the architectural competition held in 1793 for the design of the United States Capitol Building.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of displaying such historical drawings in the United States Capitol Building, the Architect of the Capitol, under the direction of the Joint Committee on the Library, is authorized to enter into such arrangements or agreements as may be necessary in order to assure the protection of the aforementioned drawings while such drawings are under his supervision.

Approved June 30, 1976.
