

Public Law 95-173
95th Congress

An Act

To authorize appropriations for fiscal year 1978 for certain maritime programs of the Department of Commerce, and for other purposes.

Nov. 12, 1977
[S. 1019]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Maritime Appropriation Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1978".

Maritime Appropriation Authorization Act
for Fiscal Year 1978.

SEC. 2. Funds are authorized to be appropriated without fiscal year limitation as the appropriation Act may provide for the use of the Department of Commerce, for the fiscal year 1978, as follows:

(1) for acquisition, construction, or reconstruction of vessels and construction-differential subsidy and cost of national defense features incident to the construction, reconstruction, or reconditioning of ships, not to exceed $135,000,000;

(2) for payment of obligations incurred for operating-differential subsidy, not to exceed $372,109,000: Provided, however, That no funds authorized by this paragraph may be paid after the 240th day after the date of the enactment of this Act to any liner company unless its chief executive officer certifies under oath to the Secretary of Commerce that he (A) is using and will use reasonable diligence to insure that, for the period during which these funds are to be received, no company owner, employee, or agent will pay any rebates which are illegal under the Shipping Act, 1916, and (B) will fully cooperate with the Federal Maritime Commission in its investigation of illegal rebating in United States foreign and domestic trades, and in its efforts to end such illegal procedures;

Rebates, prohibited use of funds.

Certification.

46 USC 801.

(3) for expenses necessary for research and development activities, not to exceed $20,725,000;

(4) for reserve fleet expenses, not to exceed $5,137,000;
