96th Congress

An Act

Aug. 13, 1979

[H.R. 932]

For the relief of Doris Mauri Coonrad.

Doris M.
Coonrad.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the time limitation in section 2733(b)(1) of title 10, United States Code, the claim of Doris Mauri Coonrad of Woodside, California, against the United States for injuries she sustained in an accident of February 27, 1968, in Monrovia, Liberia, involving a motor vehicle driven by her and a motor vehicle owned by the United States Army and driven by a member of the 72d Army Engineers Mapping Unit of the United States Army, shall be considered to be a timely claim for purposes of section 2733 of title 10, United States Code, if such claim is presented in writing not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Approved August 13, 1979.

Private Law 96-4
96th Congress

An Act

Aug. 13, 1979

[H.R. 1158]

For the relief of James C. Wilkinson.

James C.
Wilkinson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mr. James C. Wilkinson, 3201 Applewood, Grand Junction, Colorado 81501, the sum of $511.34, in full satisfaction of his claim against the United States for reimbursement for travel and temporary quarters expenses incurred by him incident to his change of official station from Phoenix, Arizona, to Fairbanks, Alaska, in January 1973. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 13, 1979.
