Public Law 96-200
96th Congress

Joint Resolution

Mar. 6, 1980
[S.J. Res. 109]

To provide for the designation of October 3, 1980, as "American Enterprise Day".

Whereas America's enterprise system is a cornerstone in our society; and

Whereas that system has produced the highest standard of living in the world; and

Whereas that system depends on and rewards individual initiative and innovation; and

Whereas American productivity is vital to the world's economy and must be encouraged; and

Whereas the continuance and growth of our enterprise system depends in large part on the education of America's young men and women concerning that system: Now, therefore, be it

American Enterprise Day. Designation authorization.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating October 3, 1980, as "American Enterprise Day" and encouraging appropriate Government agencies to foster the recognition of the significance of America's enterprise system on that day.

Approved March 6, 1980.
