Public Law 96-299
96th Congress

Joint Resolution

July 2, 1980
[S.J. Res. 115]

Designating July 1980 as "National Porcelain Art Month".

Whereas the art of painting on porcelain requires great skill, intensive training, and great artistic ability, and produces works of beauty; and

Whereas throughout history, the art of porcelain painting has provided a medium for the preservation of history and culture, and further, has been recognized as a fine art by all of the world's great civilization; and

Whereas growing thousands of American artists have studied, explored, and enhanced the historic skills of porcelain painting, adding immeasurably to the cultural enrichment of our Nation; and

Whereas the efforts of these artists bring rich beauty and expanded dimensions to our national culture for the benefit and enrichment of the lives of all citizens: Now, therefore, be it

National Porcelain Art Month. Designation.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,* That July 1980 is designated as "National Porcelain Art Month", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such month with appropriate ceremonies and activities.
