MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 3. It shall not be in order in the House or the Senate during fiscal years 1982 and 1983 to consider any bill, resolution, or amendment, except proposed legislation reported in response to reconciliation instructions contained in this resolution, authorizing new direct loan obligations or new loan guarantee commitments unless that bill, resolution, or amendment also provides that the authority to make or guarantee such loans shall be effective only to such extent or in such amounts as are contained in appropriation Acts. This section shall not be applicable to agricultural price support and related programs of the type in operation on January 1, 1982, that are funded through the Commodity Credit Corporation, loans and loan guarantee programs administered by the Veterans' Administration, or bills or resolutions reported to the House or Senate prior to the adoption of this resolution.

SEC. 4. (a) No bill or resolution providing new budget authority for fiscal year 1983, or new spending authority described in section 401(c)(2)(C) of the Congressional Budget Act first effective in fiscal year 1983, which exceeds in either the House of Representatives or the Senate, the appropriate allocation or subdivision of such new discretionary budget authority, new budget authority, or new spending authority made pursuant to section 302 of such Act shall be enrolled until after the Congress has completed action on the Second Concurrent Resolution on the Budget required to be reported under section 310 of such Act.

2 USC 651.

2 USC 633.

2 USC 641.

(b) If Congress increases revenues in a trust fund exempt under section 401(d)(1)(B) of the Congressional Budget Act, 90 percent or more of the receipts of which consist of or will consist of amounts (transferred from the general fund of the Treasury) equivalent to amounts of taxes (related to the purposes for which such outlays are or will be made) received in the Treasury under specified provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, then for purposes of this section in the House of Representatives, "new discretionary budget authority" and "new spending authority", and for purposes of this section in the Senate, "new budget authority" and "new spending authority" shall not include spending authority or budget authority derived from such trust fund. This subsection shall only apply to trust funds—

26 USC 1 et seq.

(1) exempt under section 401(d)(1)(B) of the Congressional Budget Act,

(2) for which revenues are increased, and

(3) to the extent that such increased revenues exceed the appropriate allocation or subdivision of such new discretionary budget authority, new budget authority, or new spending authority made pursuant to section 302 of such Act.

SEC. 5. It is the sense of the Congress that if Congress acts to restore fiscal responsibility and reduces projected budget deficits in a substantial and permanent way, then the Federal Reserve Open Market Committee shall reevaluate its monetary targets in order to assure that they are fully complementary to a new and more restrained fiscal policy.

SEC. 6. It is the sense of the Congress that concurrent resolutions on the budget should reflect the full range of fiscal activities of the Federal Government. It is further the sense of the Congress, therefore, that each concurrent resolution on the budget, beginning with the first concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1984, shall list, for each functional category, the off-budget activities associated with that category, as well as the new budget authority, outlays, new direct loan obligations, new primary loan guarantee commitments, and new secondary loan guarantee commitments associated with that category.

2 USC 641.
2 USC 642.

SEC. 7. If Congress has not completed action by October 1, 1982, on the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget required to be reported under section 310(a) of the Budget Act for the 1983 fiscal year, then, for purposes of section 311 of such Act, and section 4 of this resolution, this concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be the concurrent resolution required to be reported under section 310(a) of such Act.

SEC. 8. It shall not be in order in either the House of Representatives or the Senate to consider any bill or resolution, or amendment thereto, providing—

- (1) new budget authority for fiscal year 1983; or
(2) new spending authority described in section 401(c)(2)(C) of the Budget Act first effective in fiscal year 1983;
- 2 USC 651.
- within the jurisdiction of any of its committees unless and until such committee makes the allocations or subdivisions required by section 302(b) of the Budget Act, in connection with the most recently agreed to concurrent resolution on the budget.
- 2 USC 633.

SEC. 9. (a) After the Congress has completed action on the concurrent resolution on the budget required to be reported under section 310(a) for fiscal year 1983, and, if a reconciliation bill or resolution, or both, for such fiscal year are required to be reported under section 310(c), after that bill has been enacted into law or that resolution has been agreed to, it shall not be in order in either the House of Representatives or the Senate to consider any bill, resolution, or amendment providing authority for—

2 USC 641.

- (1) new direct loan obligations for fiscal year 1983;
(2) new primary loan guarantee commitments for fiscal year 1983; or
(3) new secondary loan guarantee commitments for fiscal year 1983;
- or any conference report on any such bill or resolution, if—
- (A) the enactment of such bill or resolution as reported;
(B) the adoption and enactment of such amendment; or
(C) the enactment of such bill or resolution in the form recommended in such conference report; would cause the appropriate level of total new direct loan obligations for fiscal year 1983, total new primary loan guarantee commitments for such fiscal year, or total new secondary loan guarantee commitments for such fiscal year set forth in such concurrent resolution on the budget to be exceeded.

(b)(1) The joint explanatory statement accompanying the conference report on this resolution shall include an estimated allocation, based upon the first section of this resolution as recommended in such conference report, of the appropriate levels of total new direct loan obligations, new primary loan guarantee commitments, and new secondary loan guarantee commitments authority among each committee of the House of Representatives and the Senate which has jurisdiction over bills and resolutions providing such new authority.

(2) As soon as practicable after this resolution is agreed to every committee of each House shall, after consulting with the committee or committees of the other House to which all or part of the allocation has been made, subdivide among its subcommittees the allocation of new direct loan obligations, new primary loan guarantee commitments, and new secondary loan guarantee commitments allocated to it in the joint explanatory statement accompanying the conference report on this resolution.

(c) This section shall not be applicable to agricultural price support and related programs of the type in operation on January 1, 1982, that are funded through the Commodity Credit Corporation.

SEC. 10. It is the sense of Congress that reductions in Federal employment should be accomplished through attrition.
