(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 121. (a) Funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for construction in prior years are hereby made available for construction authorized for each such department by the authorizations enacted into law during the first session of the Ninety-ninth Congress.

(b) IN GENERAL.—10 U.S.C. 2860 is amended to read as follows:

Ante, p. 991.

“§ 2860. Availability of appropriations

“Funds appropriated to a military department or defense agency for a fiscal year for military construction or military family housing purposes may remain available beyond such fiscal year to the extent provided in the appropriation Acts.”.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by subsection (b) shall apply to funds appropriated after the date of the enactment of Public Law 99-103.

10 USC 2860 note.

Ante, p. 471.

SEC. 122. The Secretary of the Army acting through the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army Corps of Engineers is hereby directed to assign a military design, construction, and support mission to the Little Rock district and to designate the Little Rock district as a full service district which includes responsibilities for planning, engineering, construction operations and real estate for both civil and military missions: Provided, That finance and accounting shall also be included as a function of the full service district if evidence shows that it would result in more efficiency and economy.

SEC. 123. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Army shall convey, without reimbursement, to the United States Modern Pentathlon Association, a nonprofit association organized under the laws of the State of Texas, all equipment owned by the United States and currently used by the United States Modern Pentathlon Team for training and competition.

SEC. 124. (a) None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be available for any country if the President determines that the government of such country is failing to take adequate measures to prevent narcotic drugs or other controlled substances cultivated or produced or processed illicitly, in whole or in part, in such country, or transported through such country, from being sold illegally within the jurisdiction of such country to United States personnel or their dependents, or from being smuggled into the United States.

Prohibition.
President of U.S.
Drugs and drug abuse.
Report.
Defense and national security.

Such prohibition shall continue in force until the President determines and reports to the Congress in writing that—

(1) the government of such country has prepared and committed itself to a plan presented to the Secretary of State that would eliminate the cause or basis for the application to such country of the prohibition contained in the first sentence; and

(2) the government of such country has taken appropriate law enforcement measures to implement the plan presented to the Secretary of State.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply in the case of any country with respect to which the President determines that the application of the provisions of such subsection would be inconsistent with the national security interests of the United States.

Sec. 125. Of the total amount of budget authority provided for fiscal year 1986 by this Act that would otherwise be available for consulting services, management and professional services, and special studies and analyses, 10 per centum of the amount intended for such purposes in the President's budget for 1986, as amended, for any agency, department or entity subject to apportionment by the Executive shall be placed in reserve and not made available for obligation or expenditure: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any agency, department or entity whose budget request for 1986 for the purposes stated above did not amount to $5,000,000.

Sec. 126. (a) Notwithstanding section 13(g) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (50 App. U.S.C. 1622(g)) and section 4 of the Act of October 1, 1949 (50 App. U.S.C. 1622(c)), the Secretary of Transportation, if requested, shall, as to the property described in subsection (c), in order to facilitate an exchange of land negotiated between the State of Georgia and the County of Glynn, Georgia, grant a release to the County of Glynn, Georgia, from all of the terms, conditions, reservations, and restrictions contained in the deed of conveyance dated July 1, 1975, under which the United States conveyed certain property to the County of Glynn, Georgia, for airport purposes. This provision does not apply to the portion of the property, conveyed by that deed, that is not specified in subsection (c). This provision is subject to the conditions in subsection (b).

(b)(1) The County of Glynn finds that the property obtained in exchange for the property described in subsection (c) is equivalent in value to the property described in subsection (c).

(2) Revenue derived from the land obtained by the County of Glynn in exchange for the property described in subsection (c) must be used for the development, improvement, operation, or maintenance of a public airport.

(3) The property described in subsection (c) shall be used by the State of Georgia in a manner compatible with airport purposes.

(4) Approval of the Secretary of Transportation must be obtained prior to any subsequent transfer by the State of Georgia of the property described in subsection (c). Such approval shall be given only if the Secretary finds that the property will continue to be used in a manner compatible with airport purposes.

(c) Subsection (a) applies to the following described area known as the "Glynco Jetport Tract":

"GLYNCO JETPORT TRACT"
