(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—Title IV of chapter 2 of part I is amended by inserting after section 234 (22 U.S.C. 2194) the following new section:

"SEC. 234A. FACULTATIVE REINSURANCE PROGRAM.

"(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—In order to encourage greater availability of political risk insurance for eligible investors, the Corporation shall establish, not later than one year after the date of the enactment of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation Amendments Act of 1985, a pilot program of facultative reinsurance. The program shall provide reinsurance to insurance companies, financial institutions, other persons, or groups thereof, with respect to insurance issued by such companies, institutions, persons, or groups for new investments, and expansions of existing investments, by eligible investors, in excess of limits which the Corporation would otherwise normally apply for its exposure to such investments. Contracts of reinsurance issued under the program shall be on equitable terms. The program, and any project covered by reinsurance under the program, shall be consistent with the provisions of this title.

"(b) PERSONS ELIGIBLE FOR THE PROGRAM.—An insurance company, financial institution, or other person shall be eligible to participate in the facultative reinsurance program established under subsection (a) if that company, institution, or other person is an eligible investor under this title. The Corporation shall take steps to encourage equitable participation in the program by all eligible persons.

"(c) MAXIMUM EXPOSURE.—The exposure of the Corporation under the facultative reinsurance program at any one time may not exceed $150,000,000 or, with respect to any one country, $50,000,000.

"(d) ADVISORY GROUP.—

"(1) ESTABLISHMENT AND MEMBERSHIP.—The Corporation shall establish a group to advise the Corporation on the development and implementation of the program of facultative reinsurance under this section. The group shall be composed of nine members as follows:

"(A) Three officers or employees of the Corporation designated by the Board.

"(B) Four persons appointed by the Board, of whom at least one shall represent an insurance company, one a reinsurance brokerage firm, and one an underwriter, a financial institution, or other person or entity eligible for the facultative reinsurance program under this section. In selecting such persons, the Board shall consider their previous active involvement in the field of political risk insurance or reinsurance and shall consult with any major organizations representing insurance, reinsurance, and brokerage institutions as to the suitability of the respective candidates to represent their industry.

“(C) Two persons appointed by the Board from among persons who are eligible investors, other than persons described in subparagraph (B).

“(2) FUNCTIONS.—The advisory group shall advise the Corporation on the development and implementation of the facultative reinsurance program under this section, including ways to ensure equitable participation in the program by all eligible persons.

“(3) MEETINGS.—The advisory group shall meet not later than one hundred and eighty days after the date of the enactment of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation Amendments Act of 1985, and not less than once in every one hundred and eighty-day period thereafter.

“(4) FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT.—The advisory group shall not be subject to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C. App.).

“(e) REPORT TO THE CONGRESS.—The Corporation shall, not later than eighteen months after the date of the enactment of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation Amendments Act of 1985, submit to the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate a report on the implementation of the facultative reinsurance program established under subsection (a).”.

(b) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—

(1) Section 235(d) (22 U.S.C. 2195(d)) is amended in the first sentence by striking out “or under similar predecessor guaranty authority” and inserting in lieu thereof “, under similar predecessor guaranty authority, or under section 234A”.

(2) Section 237(f) (22 U.S.C. 2197(f)) is amended in the last sentence by inserting “or 234A” after “234”.

(3) Section 240 (22 U.S.C. 2200) is amended in the last sentence by inserting “and section 234A” after “234”.

SEC. 10. EXTENSION OF ISSUING AUTHORITY.

Section 235(a)(5) (22 U.S.C. 2195(a)(5)) is amended by striking out “1985” and inserting in lieu thereof “1988”.

SEC. 11. AUDITS OF THE CORPORATION.

Section 239(c) (22 U.S.C. 2199(c)) is amended to read as follows:

“(c)(1) The Corporation shall be subject to the applicable provisions of chapter 91 of title 31, United States Code, except as otherwise provided in this title.

“(2) An independent certified public accountant shall perform a financial and compliance audit of the financial statements of the Corporation at least once every three years, in accordance with generally accepted Government auditing standards for a financial and compliance audit, as issued by the Comptroller General. The independent certified public accountant shall report the results of such audit to the Board. The financial statements of the Corporation shall be presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. These financial statements and the report of the accountant shall be included in a report which contains, to the extent applicable, the information identified in section 9106 of title 31, United States Code, and which the Corporation shall submit to the Congress not later than six and one-half months after the end of the last fiscal year covered by the audit. The General Accounting Office may review the audit conducted by the accountant and the report to the Congress in the manner and at such times as the General Accounting Office considers necessary.

Report.

“(3) In lieu of the financial and compliance audit required by paragraph (2), the General Accounting Office shall, if the Office considers it necessary or upon the request of the Congress, audit the financial statements of the Corporation in the manner provided in paragraph (2). The Corporation shall reimburse the General Accounting Office for the full cost of any audit conducted under this paragraph.

“(4) All books, accounts, financial records, reports, files, workpapers, and property belonging to or in use by the Corporation and the accountant who conducts the audit under paragraph (2), which are necessary for purposes of this subsection, shall be made available to the representatives of the General Accounting Office.”

SEC. 12. EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION.

Section 239 (22 U.S.C. 2199) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(j) The Corporation, including its franchise, capital, reserves, surplus, advances, intangible property, and income, shall be exempt from all taxation at any time imposed by the United States, by any territory, dependency, or possession of the United States, or by any State, the District of Columbia, or any county, municipality, or local taxing authority.”

SEC. 13. PUBLICATION OF POLICY GUIDELINES.

Section 239, as amended by the preceding section of this Act, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(k) The Corporation shall publish, and make available to applicants for insurance, reinsurance, guarantees, financing, or other assistance made available by the Corporation under this title, the policy guidelines of the Corporation relating to its programs.”

SEC. 14. EFFECTS OF OPIC ACTIVITIES ON EMPLOYMENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

(a) OPIC REPORTS.—Section 240A (22 U.S.C. 2200a) is amended—

(1) by inserting “(a)” immediately before “After” in the first sentence; and

(2) by adding at the end of the section the following new subsections:

Reports.
Loans.

“(b)(1) Each annual report required by subsection (a) shall contain projections of the effects on employment in the United States of all projects for which, during the preceding fiscal year, the Corporation initially issued any insurance, reinsurance, or guaranty or made any direct loan. Each such report shall include projections of—

Exports.

“(A) the amount of United States exports to be generated by those projects, both during the start-up phase and over a period of years;

“(B) the final destination of the products to be produced as a result of those projects; and

“(C) the impact such production will have on the production of similar products in the United States with regard to both domestic sales and exports.

Exports.

“(2) Each report required by this subsection shall be based on an analysis of each of the projects described in paragraph (1). The reports may, however, present information and analysis in aggregate form, but only if—

“(A) those projects which are projected to have a positive effect on employment in the United States and those projects which are projected to have a negative effect on employment in the United States are grouped separately; and

“(B) there is set forth for each such grouping the key characteristics of the projects within that grouping, including the number of projects in each economic sector, the countries in which the projects in each economic sector are located, and the projected level of the impact of the projects in each economic sector on employment in the United States and on United States trade.

Commerce and trade.

“(c)(1) Not later than December 31, 1987, the Corporation shall submit to the Congress a report analyzing the actual effects, as of September 30, 1986, on employment in the United States of all projects with respect to which any insurance, reinsurance, or guaranty issued by the Corporation was in effect on September 30, 1986, or with respect to which repayments on direct loans by the Corporation were being made as of that date. The report shall set forth—

Reports.
Loans.

“(A) the amount of United States exports generated by those projects during each fiscal year,

“(B) to the extent feasible, the final destination of the products produced each fiscal year as a result of those projects, and

“(C) the impact of such production on the production of similar products in the United States during each fiscal year with regard to both domestic sales and exports.

Exports.

“(2) In preparing this report, the Corporation shall collect factual data for each of the projects described in paragraph (1). The report may, however, present this information and the analysis of this information in aggregate form, but only if—

“(A) those projects which have a positive effect on employment in the United States and those projects which have a negative effect on employment in the United States are grouped separately; and

“(B) there is set forth for each such grouping the key characteristics of the projects within that grouping, including the number of projects in each economic sector, the countries in which the projects in each economic sector are located, and the impact of the projects in each economic sector on the level of employment in the United States and on the United States trade balance.

Commerce and trade.

“(3) The Corporation shall consult with the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate in determining the methodology to be used in acquiring the information and in doing the analysis necessary to prepare the report required by this subsection, including identification of which projects should be analyzed. To facilitate this consultation, the Corporation shall submit to those committees by September 30, 1986, a written description of its proposed methodology, including its proposed methodology with respect to determining final destinations.

“(4) To the extent that the report required by this subsection does not identify the final destination of the products produced as a result of a particular project, the report shall explain why it was not feasible to provide that information.

“(d) The Corporation shall maintain as part of its records—

“(1) all information collected in preparing the report required by subsection (c), whether the information was collected by the Corporation itself or by a contractor; and

“(2) a copy of the analysis of each project analyzed in preparing the reports required by either subsection (b) or (c).

“(e) Subsections (b) and (c) do not require the inclusion in any report submitted pursuant to those subsections of any information which would not be required to be made available to the public pursuant to section 552 of title 5, United States Code (relating to freedom of information).”

(b) GAO STUDY AND REPORT.—The Comptroller General shall conduct a study of the impact on employment in the United States of the activities of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation and shall prepare and transmit to the Congress a report setting forth the findings of that study within one year after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 15. RETURN OF APPROPRIATED FUNDS.

Repeal.

Section 240B (22 U.S.C. 2200b) is repealed.

SEC. 16. FALSE ADVERTISING OR MISUSE OF THE NAME OF THE CORPORATION.

Section 709 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the tenth paragraph the following:

“Whoever uses the words ‘Overseas Private Investment’, ‘Overseas Private Investment Corporation’, or ‘OPIC’, as part of the business or firm name of a person, corporation, partnership, business trust, association, or business entity; or”

SEC. 17. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.

(a) CLARIFICATION OF DEFINITION OF ELIGIBLE PERSON.—Clause (2) of section 238(c) (22 U.S.C. 2198(c)(2)) is amended by striking out “or any State or territory thereof” and inserting in lieu thereof “, any State or territory thereof, or the District of Columbia.”

(b) CONFORMING INTERNAL CROSS-REFERENCES.—Section 235 (22 U.S.C. 2195) is amended—

(1) in subsection (c)—

(A) by striking out “section 235(d)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (d) of this section”; and

(B) by striking out “section 234(e)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (e) of this section”; and

(C) by striking out “section 235(f)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (f) of this section”; and

(2) in subsection (d) by striking out “section 235(f)” each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof “subsection (f) of this section”.

(c) REPEAL OF EXECUTED REPORTING REQUIREMENT.—Section 9 of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation Amendments Act of 1981 (Public Law 97-65) is amended—

- (1) by striking out “(a)” after “Sec. 9.”; and
- (2) by striking out subsection (b).
