

Public Law 99-234
99th Congress

An Act

Jan. 2, 1986
[S. 1840]

To amend title 5, United States Code, to revise the authority relating to the payment of subsistence and travel allowances to Government employees for official travel; to prescribe standards for the allowability of the cost of subsistence and travel of contractor personnel under Government contracts; and for other purposes.

Federal Civilian
Employee and Contractor
Travel Expenses
Act of 1985.
5 USC 5701 note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the "Federal Civilian Employee and Contractor Travel Expenses Act of 1985".

TITLE I—TRAVEL EXPENSES OF FEDERAL CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES

SEC. 101. Section 5701(4) of title 5, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(4) 'per diem allowance' means a daily payment instead of actual expenses for subsistence and fees or tips to porters and stewards."

SEC. 102. (a) Section 5702 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by striking out subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(a)(1) Under regulations prescribed pursuant to section 5707 of this title, an employee, when traveling on official business away from the employee's designated post of duty, or away from the employee's home or regular place of business (if the employee is described in section 5703 of this title), is entitled to any one of the following:

"(A) a per diem allowance at a rate not to exceed that established by the Administrator of General Services for travel within the continental United States, and by the President or his designee for travel outside the continental United States;

"(B) reimbursement for the actual and necessary expenses of official travel not to exceed an amount established by the Administrator for travel within the continental United States or an amount established by the President or his designee for travel outside the continental United States; or

"(C) a combination of payments described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

"(2) Any per diem allowance or maximum amount of reimbursement shall be established, to the extent feasible, by locality.

"(3) For travel consuming less than a full day, the payment prescribed by regulation shall be allocated in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe.

"(b)(1) Under regulations prescribed pursuant to section 5707 of this title, an employee who is described in subsection (a) of this section and who abandons the travel assignment prior to its completion—

"(A) because of an incapacitating illness or injury which is not due to the employee's own misconduct is entitled to reimbursement for expenses of transportation to the employee's designated post of duty, or home or regular place of business, as the case may be, and to payments pursuant to subsection (a) of this section until that location is reached; or

“(B) because of a personal emergency situation (such as serious illness, injury, or death of a member of the employee’s family, or an emergency situation such as fire, flood, or act of God), may be allowed, with the approval of an appropriate official of the agency concerned, reimbursement for expenses of transportation to the employee’s designated post of duty, or home or regular place of business, as the case may be, and payments pursuant to subsection (a) of this section until that location is reached.

“(2)(A) Under regulations prescribed pursuant to section 5707 of this title, an employee who is described in subsection (a) of this section and who, with the approval of an appropriate official of the agency concerned, interrupts the travel assignment prior to its completion for a reason specified in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) of this subsection, may be allowed (subject to the limitation provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph)—

Regulations.
5 USC 5707.

“(i) reimbursement for expenses of transportation to the location where necessary medical services are provided or the emergency situation exists,

“(ii) payments pursuant to subsection (a) of this section until that location is reached, and

“(iii) such reimbursement and payments for return to such assignment.

“(B) The reimbursement which an employee may be allowed pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall be the employee’s actual costs of transportation to the location where necessary medical services are provided or the emergency exists, and return to assignment from such location, less the costs of transportation which the employee would have incurred had such travel begun and ended at the employee’s designated post of duty, or home or regular place of business, as the case may be. The payments which an employee may be allowed pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall be based on the additional time (if any) which was required for the employee’s transportation as a consequence of the transportation’s having begun and ended at a location on the travel assignment (rather than at the employee’s designated post of duty, or home or regular place of business, as the case may be).

Transportation.

“(3) Subject to the limitations contained in regulations prescribed pursuant to section 5707 of this title, an employee who is described in subsection (a) of this section and who interrupts the travel assignment prior to its completion because of an incapacitating illness or injury which is not due to the employee’s own misconduct is entitled to payments pursuant to subsection (a) of this section at the location where the interruption occurred.”

Regulations.
5 USC 5707.

(b) Section 5702 of such title is further amended by redesignating subsection (e) as subsection (c).

(1) by inserting "(1)" immediately after "(a)";

(2) by inserting the following at the end of subsection (a):

"(2) Regulations promulgated to implement section 5702 or 5706a of this title shall be transmitted to the appropriate committees of the Congress and shall not take effect until 30 days after such transmittal."; and

(3) by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c)(1) The Administrator of General Services shall periodically, but at least every 2 years, submit to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget an analysis of estimated total agency payments for such items as travel and transportation of people, average costs and duration of trips, and purposes of official travel; and of estimated total agency payments for employee relocation. This analysis shall be based on a sampling survey of agencies each of which spent more than $5,000,000 during the previous fiscal year on travel and transportation payments, including payments for employee relocation. Agencies shall provide to the Administrator the necessary information in a format prescribed by the Administrator and approved by the Director.

"(2) The requirements of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall expire upon the Administrator's submission of the analysis that includes the fiscal year that ends September 30, 1991."

SEC. 105. Section 5724a of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking out "instead of" each place it appears in subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2) and inserting in lieu thereof "or";

(2) by striking out "maximum per diem rates prescribed by or under section 5702 of this title" each place it appears and inserting in lieu thereof "maximum payment permitted under regulations which implement section 5702 of this title"; and

(3) by striking out "average daily rates" in subsection (a)(3) and inserting in lieu thereof "daily rates and amounts".
