DEFENDANT: WESLEY HARRISON CASE NUMBER: 4:16-cr-00049-02 KGE

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. v.

Case No. 4:16-cr-00049-02 KGB

WESLEY HARRISON

FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

Before the Court is the United States' motion for final order of forfeiture (Dkt. No. 554). On July 12, 2018, this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (Dkt. No. 500), ordering defendant Wesley Harrison to forfeit his interest in $40,137.00 in U.S. Currency and $5,000.00 in U.S. Currency (collectively "property subject to forfeiture").

The United States published notice of this forfeiture and the United States' intent to dispose of the property in accordance with the law as specified in the Preliminary Order. See Advertisement Certification (Dkt. 554-1). The United States posted its notice on the forfeiture website, internet address of www.forfeiture.gov for 30 consecutive days beginning on July 14, 2018 and ending on August 12, 2018. Further, the United States also made reasonable efforts to identify and give direct notice of this forfeiture to all persons who reasonably appear to have standing to contest this forfeiture in an ancillary proceeding. No one has filed a claim to the property subject to forfeiture, and the time for filing claims has expired.

Now the United States petitions the Court to enter a Final Order of Forfeiture, which will vest all right, title, and interest in the United States. The United States also asks this Court to authorize the United States to dispose of the property according to law.

It is hereby ordered that the property subject to forfeiture is forfeited to the United States. It is further ordered that all right, title, and interest in the property subject to forfeiture is hereby vested in the United States of America and shall be disposed of according to law. This Court shall retain jurisdiction in the case for the purpose of enforcing this Order.

Further, Assistant United States Attorney Cameron McCree is relieved from any further representation of the government in this matter.

It is so ordered this 19th day of November 2018.
