PER CURIAM:

Plaintiffs sued defendant under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for violating their constitutional rights during the execution of a warrant at plaintiff Michelle Gross’s home. The district court granted summary judgment for defendant. On appeal, plaintiffs challenge the district court’s conclusions. We review a grant of summary judgment de novo, “constru[ing] the evidence in the light most favorable to . . . the non-moving party.” Betton v. Belue, 942 F.3d 184, 190 (4th Cir. 2019). Having reviewed the record, we see no reversible error and thus affirm. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this Court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
