PER CURIAM:

In these consolidated appeals, Appellants seek to appeal the district court's orders dismissing some appellants as plaintiffs, denying others' motions to intervene as plaintiffs, and denying reconsideration of those orders. This court may exercise jurisdiction only over final orders, 28 U.S.C. § 1291, and certain interlocutory and collateral orders, 28 U.S.C. § 1292; Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b); Cohen v. Beneficial Indus. Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541, 545-46 (1949). The orders Appellants seek to appeal are neither final orders nor appealable interlocutory or collateral orders. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeals for lack of jurisdiction and deny as moot the pending motions for leave to file an amicus curiae brief, to expedite the decision, and to extend filing time. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
