

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 26-1164

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Peter Gerald Blaha

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa - Central

Submitted: July 10, 2026

Filed: July 15, 2026

[Unpublished]

PER CURIAM.

Peter Blaha appeals after the district court¹ revoked his supervised release. His counsel has moved for leave to withdraw and has filed a brief challenging the sentence as substantively unreasonable.

Having carefully reviewed the record, we conclude that Blaha's sentence was not unreasonable, as there is no indication that the district court failed to consider the relevant factors, gave significant weight to an improper or irrelevant factor, or committed a clear error of judgment in weighing the relevant factors. See United States v. Miller, 557 F.3d 910, 917 (8th Cir. 2009) (revocation sentence may be unreasonable if district court fails to consider relevant factor, gives significant weight to improper factor, or commits clear error of judgment).

Accordingly, we affirm, and we grant counsel leave to withdraw.

¹The Honorable Rebecca Goodgame Ebinger, United States District Judge for the Southern District of Iowa.
