CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BY

DEPUTY CLERK

Having considered Trinity River Lumber Company's Motion to Intervene, supporting papers, and responses of the parties, the Court hereby GRANTS the motion with the following conditions:

1. Intervenor shall confine their arguments to the issues raised in the amended complaint and avoid collateral arguments.

2. Intervenor shall not be permitted to conduct discovery or to introduce material outside the administrative record unless it first demonstrates that such material falls within the exceptions to record review under the Administrative Procedure Act.

3. Intervenor shall file its own briefs in conformance with the page limits of the Local Rules, and be allocated oral argument time limits separate from Federal Defendants. Intervenor may address only new arguments not raised by the Federal Defendants in its briefs. Intervenor will be given an opportunity to address the Court at oral argument at the Court's discretion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
