STIPULATION AND ~~[PROPOSED]~~
ORDER FOR FIRST EXTENSION OF
TIME TO FILE OBJECTIONS TO
MAGISTRATE JDGE CLAIRE'S
FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

21 STIPULATION
22

23 Plaintiff pro se Jake Peccia and Defendant State of California Department of Corrections
24 and Rehabilitation ("CDCR"), by and through their counsel of record, Deputy Attorney General
25 John McGlothlin, hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

26 1. On May 26, 2026, the Magistrate Judge issued Findings and Recommendations
27 (ECF No. 158), which provided a 21-day window for parties to file written objections. The current 28 deadline to file objections is June 16, 2026.

1 2. Plaintiff was traveling out of town due to a sudden family bereavement and to attend
2 a family wedding from May 26 through June 7, 2026. Because Plaintiff is proceeding pro se and
3 relies on physical mail, his mail went uncollected, and he did not receive or review the Court's 23-
4 page order until his return on June 7, 2026.

5 3. Furthermore, Plaintiff operates with dyslexia and a severe learning disability, which 6 inherently requires additional reading and processing time to evaluate a dense legal order against a
7 multi-thousand-page record.

8 4. Immediately following his return, on June 8, 2026, Plaintiff began fulfilling a pre-
9 arranged caregiving obligation to host his sister and her family, including his 13-year-old non-
10 verbal autistic nephew who requires constant line-of-sight supervision. On June 9, 2026, a severe 11 household safety crisis occurred when the child lit an unvented fire in the residence, filling the 12 home with heavy smoke and requiring two full days of ventilation.

13 5. On June 10, 2026, Plaintiff initiated a meet-and-confer request to defense counsel
14 detailing these extraordinary personal hardships, cognitive challenges, and truncated operational 15 timelines.

16 6. To accommodate these severe exigencies and ensure Plaintiff has an adequate 17 opportunity to parse the record, the parties mutually stipulate to a 45-day extension of time for 18 Plaintiff to file his written objections.

19 7. CDCR assumes for purposes of this stipulation that Plaintiff's representations as to 20 the need for extension are made in good faith. CDCR does not by this stipulation admit that any of 21 Plaintiff's representations are true and correct, as CDCR lacks sufficient knowledge, has not had
22 opportunity to investigate, and is providing this stipulation due to the exigency of time. CDCR
23 further anticipates that it will object to any subsequent request for extension by Plaintiff.

24 8. The new agreed-upon deadline for Plaintiff to file his Objections to the Findings and 25 Recommendations shall be July 31, 2026. This is the first extension requested relative to this order.
