27 On August 9, 2012, defendant Joseph Beall was released on a $100,000 unsecured bond
28 to reside in the third party custody of an individual who signed his bond. As a condition of 29 release, Mr. Beall was placed on electronic monitoring. He was originally permitted to leave his 30 residence for medical or legal visits only. His bond conditions have since been modified as 31 follows:

32 ● 9/26/12: the Court modified Mr. Beall's conditions of release to permit him to leave his 33 residence during weekdays for the primary purpose of securing employment. Since that 34 condition took effect, Mr. Beall has secured employment at Labor Ready, a temporary 35 employment agency.

36 ● 10/17/12: the Court further modified Mr. Beall's conditions of release to permit him to 37 leave his home between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. on Saturdays to spend time

1 with his friends and family.

2 • 11/21/12: the Court modified Mr. Beall's conditions such that his curfew would be
3 extended on Thanksgiving and Christmas.
4 • 12/4/12: the Court modified his conditions of release to extend his curfew on to 10:00
5 p.m. on all days.
6 • 1/24/13: at the request of Pretrial Services, the Court removed the condition that Mr.
7 Beall be subject to electronic monitoring.

8 On January 24, 2013, Mr. Beall was sentenced to 51 months imprisonment. He was 9 ordered to voluntarily surrender to his designated facility on March 29, 2013. Mr. Beall comes
10 before the Court to request a modification of his conditions of release to permit him to travel out
11 of the Northern District of California, specifically to Reno, Nevada, for a wedding from February 12 22 to 24, 2013. He will agree to provide his exact travel itinerary and lodging information to the 13 pretrial services officer for approval before traveling.

14 Mr. Beall has been in compliance with all his conditions of release, he has maintained
15 employment, he has tested negative for illegal substances, and he was granted voluntary
16 surrender by Judge White.

17 Pretrial services officer K.J. Gibson does not oppose this modification. The government 18 also does not oppose this modification.
