ORDER

Pending before the Court is Petitioner’s application for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241 (ECF No. 1). Under Rule 4 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases, a judge “must promptly examine” petitions, and “[i]f it plainly appears from the petition and any attached exhibits that the petitioner is not entitled to relief in the district court, the judge must dismiss the petition and direct the clerk to notify the petitioner.”¹ The Court examined Petitioner’s filing and finds that it is difficult to determine whether Petitioner states a claim for which relief may be granted. He appears to request that this Court review his immigration order. Pet. 6, ECF No. 1.

Because Petitioner is proceeding pro se, the Court will provide Petitioner with an opportunity to recast his petition. The Clerk is directed to forward a copy of the ¹ The Rules Governing § 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts are applicable to petitions brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. See Annamalai v. Warden, 760 F. App’x 843, 849-50 (11th Cir. 2019); Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases, Rule 1(b).

Court's standard form for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 with this case number on it. Petitioner should complete any relevant portions of the Court's standard form. Additionally, Petitioner should answer the following questions in his recast petition:

- (1) Why does he believe his detention is unlawful?
- (2) When did he arrive in immigration custody?
- (3) Has an order of removal has been issued?
- (4) If he has a final order of removal, has he appealed the order of removal or waived appeal? If an appeal is pending, he should note that on the amended petition.
- (5) If he has a final order of removal, Petitioner should also explain why it is likely he will or will not be removed in the near future.

Petitioner shall have FOURTEEN (14) DAYS from the date of this Order to recast his petition. Petitioner is further notified that he must promptly advise the Court in writing of any change of address while this matter is pending. Failure to fully and timely comply with this Order may result in the dismissal of this action.

SO ORDERED, this 10th day of August, 2026.
