Case No. 5:23-cr-5 (TES)

ORDER REVOKING PRETRIAL RELEASE

Defendant Luis Acosta appeared on February 7, 2023, for a hearing on a Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3148. The Government showed probable cause that Defendant committed violations of state law and presented clear and convincing evidence that Defendant violated the Court's conditions of release, as stated in the Petition. The Court further finds no condition or combination of conditions of release will be sufficient to assure that Defendant will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community and that Defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of conditions of release.

Accordingly, the Order Setting Conditions of Release is hereby REVOKED, and the Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver Defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

SO ORDERED, this 8th day of February, 2023.
