ORDER

Movant Kasmon Cox submitted a pro se motion to vacate his sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2255 in which he attempts to challenge his convictions and sentences in this Court. [Doc. 259.] Judge Justin S. Anand recommends that Movant's § 2255 Motion be dismissed as untimely and a Certificate of Appealability be denied as well. [Doc. 274.]

After conducting a careful and complete review of a magistrate judge's findings and recommendations, a district court judge may accept, reject, or modify a magistrate judge's R&R. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C); Williams v Wainwright, 681 F.2d 732 (11th Cir. 1982). No objections to the magistrate judge's R&R have been filed, and therefore, the Court has reviewed the R&R for plain error. See United States v Slay, 714 F.2d 1093, 1095 (11th Cir. 1983). The Court finds no error.

Accordingly, the Court ADOPTS the R&R [Doc. 277] as the Opinion and Order of this Court. For the reasons stated in the R&R, the Court DISMISSES Movant's § 2255 Motion [Doc. 259] as untimely. Additionally, the Court DECLINES to issue a certificate of appealability because after considering 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2), the Court finds that Petitioner has not made a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right. The Court DIRECTS the Clerk to CLOSE the civil case associated with Petitioner's § 2255 Motion: Civil Action No. 25-CV-03075-ELR.

SO ORDERED, this 23rd day of June, 2026.

Eleanor L. Ross
United States District Judge
Northern District of Georgia
