REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter is before the Court on Defendant's Motion to Suppress Statements [25], which seeks to suppress all statements made to either the Atlanta Police or the FBI during the Defendant's detention on November 29, 2022. At the pretrial conference on August 18, 2023, counsel for the Government represented that the Government would not introduce any such statements into evidence during its case-in-chief. Thus, as the parties agreed, the instant Motion to Suppress can be denied as moot.

Accordingly, the Court RECOMMENDS that the Motion to Suppress [25] be DENIED AS MOOT.

This matter is READY FOR TRIAL.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 25th day of August, 2023.
