CONSENT DECREE

WHEREAS, on November 22, 2002, the City of Bangor (“City”) filed a Complaint docketed as Case No. 02-cv-0183 against Frontier Communications Corporation (“Frontier”), formerly known as Citizens Communications Company, in the United States District Court for the District of Maine (“Court” or “District Court”) under both the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (“RCRA”), 42 U.S.C. § 6972(a)(1)(B), and the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (“CERCLA”), 42 U.S.C. § 9613(f)(1), as well as various State laws, regarding cleanup of the deposit of tar underlying a portion of the Penobscot River located in Bangor, Maine, known as Dunnett’s Cove; and

WHEREAS, on December 24, 2002, Frontier filed an answer denying all of the material allegations set forth in the City’s Complaint, and also filed a counterclaim against the City and third party claims against a number of other parties, including Dead River Company (“Dead River”); and

WHEREAS, Dead River subsequently filed a fourth party complaint against Robinson Speirs, Jr., Julie Ann Macmannis, Nancy S. Dawson, Elizabeth H. Speirs, Mary S. Price and Robinson Speirs (the “Speirs Defendants”); and

WHEREAS, Dead River its predecessors and successors, including the Speirs Defendants, have owned and/or operated various facilities for shipping, receiving and storing coal and other materials (the “Dead River Facility”); and

WHEREAS, the State of Maine is a sovereign State which owns the land underlying the Penobscot River in its sovereign capacity; and

WHEREAS, the Maine Department of Environmental Protection (“Department” or “DEP”) (together with the State of Maine, the “Intervenors”) is an agent of the State of Maine, established and existing under the authority of 38 M.R.S.A. § 341-A, which is charged with the responsibility of controlling pollution of air, water and land in Maine. Pursuant to the Maine Uncontrolled Hazardous Substance Sites Law (“Uncontrolled Sites Law”), DEP is specifically authorized to and directed to investigate and evaluate sites where hazardous substances have come to be located (38 M.R.S.A. § 1364(3)); to designate such sites as uncontrolled hazardous substance sites (38 M.R.S.A. § 1364(4) & 1365); and to take action to abate, clean up or mitigate the threats or hazards posed by uncontrolled hazardous substance sites (38 M.R.S.A. §§ 1364(5) & 1365); and

WHEREAS, on March 3, 2004, DEP issued an Uncontrolled Sites Designation in which DEP found that the tar deposit at the Site and/or the PAHs contained in the tar deposit in Dunnett’s Cove are hazardous substances pursuant to the Uncontrolled Sites Law and that the Site is an uncontrolled hazardous substance site as that term is used in the Uncontrolled Sites Law and so designated the Site; and

WHEREAS, Frontier and the City negotiated a Consent Decree with the Intervenors (“2007 Consent Decree”) that was entered by the District Court as a partial final judgment, and later a final judgment; and

WHEREAS, in the 2007 Consent Decree, the Intervenors agreed “to execute documents necessary to complete settlement of claims; and, as permitted by law, to grant protection from all contribution actions or claims related to the Site (including without limitation actions or claims by the State) to appropriate parties at the request of Citizens;” and

WHEREAS, the District Court authorized Frontier to file its claims against third party defendants, as well as claims assigned to Frontier by the City, which filing subsequently occurred in an action docketed as Case No. 07-cv-00113; and

WHEREAS, in the interest of resolving claims by the Intervenors against Dead River and the Speirs Defendants (hereinafter referred to, collectively, as “Settling Parties”) for past and future response costs and injunctive relief, and for Natural Resource Damage, arising out of or related to the Site, and in the interest of fulfilling a condition to the effectiveness of the Settlement Agreement and Release among Frontier, the City, Dead River and the Speirs Defendants executed on June 10, 2009, the Settling Parties agree to entry of this Consent Decree; and

WHEREAS, the Court finds, and the Intervenors and the Settling Parties agree, that the Court has jurisdiction over this action; and

WHEREAS, the Intervenors and the Settling Parties, by and through their representatives, each have agreed to the entry of this Decree without any findings of law or fact and expressly waive any rights of appeal with respect to this Decree, if entered in the form executed by the Settling Parties; and

WHEREAS, the Court has considered the pleadings and representations of counsel for all Parties; and

WHEREAS, the Intervenors have determined, and the Court finds, this Decree to be a fair and reasonable disposition of the Intervenors' claims against Dead River and the Speirs Defendants;
