PROTECTIVE ORDER COVERING
CERTAIN DOCUMENTS PRODUCED BY THE PARTIES

At a session of said Court, held in the United States Courthouse,
City of Port Huron, County of St. Clair, State of Michigan on:

JANUARY 26, 2011

PRESENT: LAWRENE P. ZATKOFF
United States District Court Judge

Upon reading the attached Stipulation for Entry of Protective Order Covering Certain Documents Produced by the Parties, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. When used in this Order, the word “documents” means all documents produced by the parties in this matter that bear the notation “Confidential–Produced Pursuant to Protective Order”.

2. All documents, as that term is defined by paragraph 1 above, shall be used solely for the prosecution or defense of this matter and shall not be used in any other litigation or any other judicial or administrative proceeding.

3. Except as provided in paragraph 4 below, no document subject to the terms of this Order, nor any information contained therein, may be made public or otherwise disclosed to any persons other than:

- a. Counsel of record for the parties;
- b. Secretaries, legal assistants, and other employees of counsel of record who are actively engaged in assisting counsel in the prosecution or defense of this matter;
- c. Lay witnesses who are deposed in this matter, but only during the course of their depositions. To the extent that either party believes further disclosure to a lay witness of documents subject to the terms of this Order is necessary, it will be the responsibility of counsel of record for the party making the disclosure to obtain the Consent Agreement from each such witness before making the disclosure and to provide opposing counsel with a copy of the Agreement forthwith; and
- d. Experts retained by counsel of record for the purpose of assisting in the prosecution or defense of this matter, but only if the expert signs the attached Consent Agreement. It is the responsibility of counsel of record for the party making the disclosure to the expert to obtain the Consent Agreement from each such expert before making the disclosure and to provide opposing counsel with a copy of the Agreement forthwith.

e. Mediators, facilitators, and case evaluators.

4. Documents subject to the terms of this Order, and any information contained therein, do not lose their protected status if used in any judicial proceeding or alternative dispute resolution proceeding in this matter. However, the parties shall take all steps reasonably required to protect the confidentiality of the documents and information during such use. In the event that a party includes any documents or information covered by the terms of this Order in any pleadings, affidavits, or other papers filed with the Court in this matter, the documents or information must be submitted under seal.

5. This Order shall not be construed to waive any objections to the admissibility, privileges, or defenses available to the parties with respect to any documents produced by the parties pursuant to this Order, and the parties expressly reserve same.

6. The parties agree that within thirty (30) days after the final disposition of this matter, any documents designated to be subject to the terms of this Order, including all copies thereof, shall upon request be returned to opposing counsel, including copies of any documents provided to the persons identified in subparagraphs 3(a) through (d) above and any documents provided to experts or lay witnesses.
