

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 14-cr-20780

Hon. Matthew F. Leitman

v.

CURTIS SCOTT,

Defendant.

ORDER DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR A COURT ORDER REQUIRING THE RELEASE OF HIS MEDICAL RECORDS (ECF #532)

On May 15, 2019, Defendant Curtis Scott filed a motion in which he requested that the Court enter an order requiring the Wayne County Jail to send him certain medical records. (See Mot., ECF #532.)¹ At the May 10, 2019, on-the-record status conference, Scott's (now terminated) counsel informed Scott that based on her review of the matter, he does not need a court order to obtain the medical records that he requests. Instead, Scott need only fill out certain forms requesting the records. Counsel has now provided the required forms to Scott for him to complete and return to her. (See ECF #531.) She has pledged to send the completed documents, with the required check for the records, to the Wayne County Jail after Scott completes the forms and returns them to her. If Scott follows this process – a procedure that he acknowledged on the record at the May 10, 2019, status conference was an appropriate way for him to obtain the records – he will be able to obtain the records without a court order.

For all of these reasons, Scott has not shown that a court order is necessary. Accordingly, his request for such an order is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.
