The defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of the judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for delinquency and default, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is ordered that:

The interest requirement is waived for the restitution.

Note: Findings for the total amount of losses are required under Chapters 109A, 110, 110A, and 113A of Title 18, United States Code, for offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994 but before April 23, 1996.

* See separate Restitution Judgement for further details

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties shall be due as follows:

Special Assessment of $100 is due immediately.

Restitution lump sum payment of $2,434,148 is due immediately. If unable to pay the full amount immediately, while incarcerated the defendant shall make quarterly payments of $25 or at least 10 percent of earnings, whichever is greater, and while on supervised release, monthly payments of $500 or 10 percent of gross income, whichever is greater, to commence 30 days from release from incarceration. No further payment shall be required after the sum of the amounts paid by defendants Gail Wilkerson, William McNeely, and Craig Swoboda has fully compensated the victims. While restitution is still owed, the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney of any change of residence within 30 days and notify the Court and United States Attorney when there is a material change in the defendant's economic circumstances.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
