

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NORTH DAKOTA

United States of America,)
)
Plaintiff,)	ORDER
)
vs.)
)
Dominick Andre Davis,)	Case No. 1:24-cr-003
Defendant.)

On June 20, 2025, Defendant's court-appointed counsel filed a Motion to Withdraw as Counsel. (Doc. No. 120). Following an ex parte hearing, the court issued an order on July 1, 2025, in which it denied the motion and “place[d] Defendant’s name on the waiting list for a residential reentry placement.” (Doc. No. 123) (emphasis added).

On July 2, 2025, Defendant filed a motion requesting to be released to a residential reentry center. (Doc. No. 125). On July 15, 2025, noting that there was no space presently available for Defendant at a residential reentry center, the court issued an order denying the motion without prejudice. (Doc. No. 127).

On July 15, 2025, Defendant filed a motion for consideration of the court’s order denying his request to be released to a residential reentry center. (Doc. No. 128). He also requested a hearing and expedited consideration of his motion. (Doc. No. 129).

Defendant’s request for expedited consideration of his motion (Doc. No. 129) is GRANTED. Defendant’s request for a hearing on the motion (Doc. No. 129) is DENIED.

There is no space presently available for Defendant at a residential reentry center. Further, the court is not persuaded that there are any conditions short of a residential reentry placement that will reasonably assure the safety of the community or Defendant's future appearance. Defendant's motion for reconsideration (Doc. No. 128) is therefore DENIED. Defendant shall remain on the waiting list for a residential reentry placement. The court appreciates Defendant's medical concerns and desire for an expedited placement at a residential reentry center. Consequently, the court shall take this into consideration when space at a residential reentry center becomes available.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 17th day of July, 2025.
