SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

5 years as follows:

Cts. 1, 2, & 4: 2 years per count, concurrent with each other, and consecutive to Cts. 3 & 5

Cts. 3 & 5: 3 years per count, concurrent with each other, and consecutive to Cts. 1, 2, & 4

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Dionte L. Breedlove
CASE NUMBER: 3:18CR00253-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: Dionte L. Breedlove
CASE NUMBER: 3:18CR00253-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You shall pay restitution in an amount totaling $4,889, jointly and severally with codefendant Carlos Valcarel Arocho, to Rite Aid. As previously stated, the address for where restitution should be sent is unknown as of this writing. Payments shall be submitted to the Clerk, United States District Court, 801 Broadway, Nashville, TN 37203. Restitution is due immediately. If you are incarcerated, payment shall begin under the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Should there be any unpaid balance when supervision commences, you shall pay the remaining restitution at a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of your gross monthly income. No interest shall accrue as long as you remain in compliance with the payment schedule ordered. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), you shall notify the court and United States Attorney of any material change in economic circumstances that might affect ability to pay.
2. You shall participate in a program of drug testing and substance abuse treatment which may include a 30-day inpatient treatment program followed by up to 90 days in a community correction center at the direction of the United States Probation Office. You shall pay all or part of the cost for substance abuse treatment if the United States Probation Office determines you have the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
3. You must not use or possess any controlled substances without a valid prescription. If you do have a valid prescription, you must disclose the prescription information to the probation officer and follow the instructions on the prescription.
4. You shall promptly advise the United States Probation Office of the name and contact information for any physician who prescribes any controlled substance and agrees to execute a release of information form so that medical records may be obtained from such physician.
5. You shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the United States Probation Office. You shall pay all or part of the cost of mental health treatment if the United States Probation Office determines you have the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
6. You must take all mental health medications that may be prescribed by your treating physician.
7. You shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
8. You must not communicate, or otherwise interact, with any known member of the Gangster Disciples gang, without first obtaining the permission of the probation officer.
9. You shall not incur new debt or open additional lines of credit without prior approval of the United States Probation Office until all monetary sanctions are paid.
10. You must not communicate, or otherwise interact with Joseph Smelley, Garion Bogard, or Nicholas Teal, either directly or through someone else, without first obtaining the permission of the probation officer.
