

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
LUBBOCK DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

NICHOLAS BUENO,

Defendant.

No. 5:22-CR-106-H-01

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

The Court conducted a bench trial on this matter on June 2, 2023. Dkt. No. 67. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 23(c), the Court sets out its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The Court has reviewed the record in its entirety and observed the witnesses presented at trial to assess their credibility and weigh their testimony. Having carefully considered the testimony and evidence admitted at trial, as well as the applicable law, the Court finds the defendant, Nicholas Bueno, guilty of Count One—Enticement and Attempted Enticement of a Minor in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b).

1. Indictment, Plea, and Waiver of Jury Trial

In November 2022, Bueno was indicted by a federal grand jury for one count of Enticement and Attempted Enticement of a Minor, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b) and three counts of Transfer of Obscene Material to a Minor in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1470. Dkt. No. 17 at 1–3. Bueno pled guilty to Counts Two through Four (Dkt. No. 60), and Magistrate Judge Parker recommended that the Court accept Bueno’s guilty plea (Dkt. No. 61). Bueno waived the 14-day period to object to the findings of the magistrate judge (Dkt. No. 63), and the Court accepted Bueno’s guilty plea (Dkt. No. 66).

Bueno requested a bench trial for Count One. Dkt. No. 40 at 1–2; see Dkt. No. 64. He signed a jury-trial waiver, which was also signed by the government and defense counsel, and submitted it to the Court for its approval. Dkt. No. 64. The Court, finding that Bueno had knowingly and intelligently waived his right to a jury trial, approved Bueno’s waiver (Dkt. No. 66) and conducted a bench trial (Dkt. No. 67).

2. Findings of Fact

The government admitted the following exhibits: (1) two Cellebrite extraction reports of the text messages between Bueno and Jane Doe, one with explicit content and one with the explicit content and victim’s identifying information redacted; (2) the explicit Snapchat video Bueno sent to Doe; (3) the Cellebrite phone call report showing the calls between Bueno and Doe; (4) Doe’s cell phone; (5) the recorded interview of Bueno with Special Agent Roy Basham on October 19, 2022; and (6) the apology letter that Bueno wrote to Doe’s parent’s. GXs 1–7. The government also called Doe, Sergeant Flores, and Special Agent Basham to testify. Tr. at 24, 55, 124. The Court finds the testimony of Doe, Sergeant Flores, and Special Agent Basham to be credible. The defendant did not offer any exhibits and did not call any witnesses. See Dkt. No. 51; Tr. at 2.

In October 2022, a school administrator for O’Donnell High School in O’Donnell, Texas, notified the Lynn County Sheriff’s Office (LCSO) of allegations of an inappropriate relationship between a teacher and a student. Tr. at 58. LCSO Sergeant Jason Flores had duties covering the high school and began investigating the allegations. Id. at 57–58. As part of the investigation, Sergeant Flores contacted Bueno and questioned him about the alleged conduct. Id. at 62. Bueno denied having an inappropriate relationship with Doe. Id. at 63. He provided Sergeant Flores with his cell phone and consented to law enforcement searching it. Id. at 63. Law enforcement found nothing of evidentiary value on that cell phone. Id. Nevertheless, Sergeant Flores suspected that Bueno may have been using a different phone to communicate with the child. Id.

Sergeant Flores also met with Doe's mother to question her about the alleged conduct. Id. at 58. Doe's mother provided Sergeant Flores with Doe's cell phone—an Apple iPhone 13 Pro Max. Id. at 59; GX 5. Sergeant Flores's research of Apple iPhones revealed that the phone had not been manufactured in Texas. Id. at 60. When Sergeant Flores initially reviewed the contents of Doe's cell phone, he could not locate any communications between her and Bueno. Id. However, using a recovery feature of the iPhone operating system, Sergeant Flores was able to retrieve all of the deleted messages between Bueno and Doe from September 23, 2022, to October 18, 2022. Id. at 60–61. Reviewing the messages, Sergeant Flores was able to identify Bueno as the person sending Doe text messages because Bueno had sent selfies of himself along with text messages telling Doe to meet him in his classroom. Id. at 61.

Doe testified that coaches and students were returning on a bus to O'Donnell after a football game when Bueno asked for her cell phone number (Tr. at 28–29), which Bueno corroborated in his recorded interview (GX 6 at 51:12–51:44; 51:45–53:23). Bueno was a football coach, and Doe was a student manager. Tr. at 29–30. Bueno sat near Doe and, at one point during the trip, passed her a note asking Doe for her number. GX 6 at 51:12–51:44; 51:45–53:23; Tr. at 29. Doe put her number in Bueno's cell phone. Tr. at 29. On September 23, 2022, Bueno began sending text messages to Doe. GX 1 at 1.

From approximately September 23, 2022, to approximately October 18, 2022, Bueno and Doe exchanged thousands of messages. Tr. at 19; see GX 1. During that time, Bueno repeatedly asked Doe to keep their conversations private and delete the messages between them, and he even demanded that she send proof of her deleting the messages or allow him to delete them off of her phone. See, e.g., GX 1 at 5–6, 27, 581, 676, 682, 698, 833–35. If you can’t then we can stop and keep it casual”; “You really honestly think you could not be tempted to tell ANYONE you’re talking to me?”; “You’re so tempting”; “Am I not tempting to you?”; “I can’t stop looking at you [Doe]”; “You’re gonna come to find out I’m very controlling”; “We need to have some rules if you wanna do this”; “Quit being so flirty with all the boys”; “I want you to look at me more”; “This is so bad I know but I can’t help it you’re just so damn tempting [Doe]”; “Just let it happen it does for me too but like I said can’t help it”; “Is it bad that I’m tempted to do so many things with you [Doe]”; “So you want me then?”; “I don’t want you talking any other but me ok”; “See I can’t stop thinking about you smh”; “Send me a pic of you”; “You’re a hottie I’m not gonna lie very beautiful.” Id. at 50, 53–55, 59–65, 68–70.

On October 13, 2022, Bueno sent Doe the following messages, again asking for a photo so he could see her before tasting her: “That’s the thing I could be fucking and talking to other bitches from here specifically but I don’t want that. I want you and I want you to want me all the time. I don’t want these I don’t knows from you.”; “Can you try and see me today?” followed by, “Like me and you”; “Go to my room real fast” followed by, “If anyone were to ask you needed a study sheet for a quiz so please”; “Just please give me a chance be my girl”; “You’re always gonna be my baby no matter what [Doe] just fyi”; “I’m not dumb baby believe me. Send me a pic babe.[]”; “I wanna see what you look like before I get a taste of you.” Id. at 739, 741, 749, 758, 760, 762–63.

On October 14, 2023, Bueno sent Doe the following messages, trying to make her feel guilty for not giving him what he wanted: “What color panties do you have on?”; “Come get ‘tutoring’ during lunch? Or you have lunch detention with me?”; “Imma be just as distant as possible and make you regret not taking advantage of what you had right in front of you.”; “You’ll regret it though I promise you that boo but no hard feelings”; “Honest to God I’m scared to show my face now. You told her alot [sic] more cause literally she said I was mad cause a 14 year old didn’t wanna be with me like!? Just be honest for once.”; “Yup sure is essy [sic] to forget about a pathetic ass [person] who can’t get a 14 yo to be with him right.” Id. at 772, 775, 779–80, 787, 790.

On October 15, 2022, Bueno sent Doe the following messages: “I’m gonna have to quit being so pathetic and stop letting this 14 yo manipulate my feelings”; “Just tell me what you wanna do you either want this with me or not and that’s that [Doe] if you don’t need time to think then tell me”; “I’m still trying with you even after you went behind my back like that.” Id. at 791, 796.

On October 16, 2022, Bueno sent Doe the following messages: “I don’t think you understand how hard it is to not text you. All I did yesterday was think about you and this situation. I pressured you into talking to me and pressured you into trying to get serious with me” and “That’s the thing [Doe] like I know I can trust you but you need to get it straight with [friend] about me and you. I do miss you and I do want you. I don’t think you’d ruin it for me you’d only do that by telling people. With that being said are you sure you wanna keep it casual with me?” Id. at 798–99.

On October 17, 2022, Bueno messaged Doe, “Send me a screen record of you deleting EVERYTHING” and “Send me a screen recording of you deleting everything and show me your private photos with screen record cause I’m not gonna let you fuck me over again.” Id. at 833, 835.

Bueno also called or attempted to call Doe several times on October 14, 16, and 17, 2023. GX 4.

On October 19, 2022, Sergeant Flores introduced Bueno to DPS Special Agent Roy Basham, and Bueno participated in a voluntary recorded interview. Tr. at 64, 130. Special Agent Basham explained to Bueno that he was free to leave at any time and was not under arrest. GX 6 at 9:47–10:09. Bueno indicated that he understood, so Basham proceeded to question Bueno. See id.

Bueno initially denied any communication with Doe outside of school. GX 6 at 37:43–37:48. When Special Agent Basham showed Bueno copies of the text messages between Bueno and Doe, Bueno claimed that he did not send them and that maybe someone else had accessed his phone and sent the messages. Id. at 37:53–38:03.

However, as the interview progressed, Bueno admitted to using a second phone to communicate with Doe and sending the text messages recovered on Doe's phone. Id. at 51:44–52:45. Bueno explained that after the school administration discovered that he and Doe were communicating, Bueno destroyed the phone. Id. at 1:15:22–1:16:05. Bueno admitted to sending the two photographs of his penis and the video of him masturbating to Doe. Id. at 57:00–57:45. Bueno also admitted that the messages between him and Doe became sexually oriented (id. at 55:27–56:54) and were inappropriate because she was a freshman (id. at 58:23–58:54). Bueno confirmed that he did rub Doe's leg with his foot on the bus. Id. at 59:20–59:58. And Bueno explained that he had asked Doe for photographs, and it was implied that the photographs should be nude photographs. Id. at 1:00:28–1:00:57; 1:03:30–1:04:13. Bueno also asked Doe to delete all of their messages. See, e.g., GX 1 at 6, 27, 676.

Doe was fourteen years old at the time that Bueno sent the text messages and videos. Tr. at 26–27. When he pled guilty to Counts Two through Four, Bueno admitted to knowing that Doe had not attained the age of sixteen years. Dkt. No. 58 at 2–3. Bueno was Doe's teacher and a coach at the school where Doe attended ninth grade. Tr. at 27–28. Bueno and Doe had also discussed her age while messaging. See GX 1 at 787, 790–91, 795.

3. Conclusions of Law

Count One of the Indictment charges Bueno with Enticement and Attempted Enticement of a Minor in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b). Dkt. No. 17 at 1. Section 2422(b) states that:

Whoever, using the mail or any facility or means of interstate or foreign commerce, or within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States knowingly persuades, induces, entices, or coerces any individual who has not attained the age of 18 years, to engage in prostitution or any sexual activity for which any person can be charged with a criminal offense, or attempts to do so, shall be fined under this title and imprisoned not less than 10 years or for life.

To establish a Section 2422(b) violation, the government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant (1) used the Internet, a cell phone, or any facility or means of interstate or foreign commerce to commit the offense; (2) knowingly persuaded, induced, enticed or coerced—or attempted to persuade, induce, entice, or coerce—an individual to engage in criminal sexual activity; (3) the defendant believed that the individual was less than 18 years of age; and (4) had the sexual activity actually occurred, the defendant could have been charged with a violation of Texas Penal Code Section 21.11. Fifth Circuit Pattern Jury Instructions 2.93 (2019); United States v. Rounds, 749 F.3d 326, 333 (5th Cir. 2014); United States v. Venegas, 594 F. App'x 822, 829 (5th Cir. 2014).

Section 2422(b) does not require “proof of travel across state lines”; instead, it only requires the use of “any facility or means of interstate or foreign commerce.” United States v. Barlow, 568 F.3d 215, 220 (5th Cir. 2009). In addition, the government is not required to prove that the individual was in fact less than 18 years of age, but it must prove that the defendant believed such individual to be under that age. United States v. Rudzavice, 586 F.3d 310, 313–14 (2009).

Section 2422(b) “does not require that the sexual contact occur, but that the defendant sought to persuade the minor to engage in that contact.” United States v. Broussard, 669 F.3d 537, 548 (5th Cir. 2012). The government is also not required to prove that the individual was actually persuaded, induced, enticed, or coerced into engaging in the described sexual activity so long as it proves that (1) the defendant intended to persuade induce, entice, or coerce the individual to engage in some form of unlawful sexual activity with the defendant, and (2) “the defendant had engaged in conduct which constitutes a substantial step toward commission of the crime.” United States v. Farmer, 251 F.3d 510, 512–13 (5th Cir. 2001); Fifth Circuit Pattern Jury Instructions 2.60 (2019). “The substantial step must be conduct [that] strongly corroborates the firmness of [the] defendant’s criminal attempt.” Farmer, 251 F.3d at 513. Mere preparation is not enough. Fifth Circuit Pattern Jury Instructions 2.60 (2019).

Texas Penal Code Section 21.11, which criminalizes Indecency with a Child, provides that:

(a) A person commits an offense if, with a child younger than 17 years of age, whether the child is of the same or opposite sex and regardless of whether the person knows the age of the child at the time of the offense, the person:

- (1) engages in sexual contact with the child or causes the child to engage in sexual contact; or
- (2) with intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person:
  - (A) exposes the person’s anus or any part of the person’s genitals, knowing the child is present; or
  - (B) causes the child to expose the child’s anus or any part of the child’s genitals.

“Sexual contact” under the statute is defined as the following acts, “if committed with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person: (1) any touching by a person, including touching through clothing, of the anus, breast, or any part of the genitals of a child; or (2) any touching of any part of the body of a child, including touching through clothing, with the anus, breast, or any part of the genitals of a person.” Tex. Penal Code. § 21.11(c).

A defendant’s “intent to arouse or gratify his sexual desire can be inferred from his conduct, his remarks, and all surrounding circumstances.” Tienda v. State, 479 S.W.3d 863, 873 (Tex. App.—Eastland 2015, no pet. h.). Intent can even be inferred from conduct alone without oral expression or visible evidence of sexual arousal. Id.

A. Bueno used a facility or means of interstate or foreign commerce.

First, the Court finds beyond a reasonable doubt that Bueno used the Internet, a cell phone, or any facility or means of interstate or foreign commerce to attempt to persuade, induce, entice, or coerce Doe to engage in sexual activity. Specifically, Bueno used a cellular telephone to communicate with Doe through text messages. See GX 1.

B. Bueno knowingly attempted to persuade, induce, entice, or coerce Doe to engage in sexual activity.

Second, the Court finds beyond a reasonable doubt that Bueno knowingly attempted to persuade, induce, entice, or coerce Doe to engage in any sexual activity. As Bueno’s messages and other acts make clear, he intended to entice Doe to engage in sexual activity with him, and he also took several substantial steps toward commission of the crime. In addition, Bueno utilized grooming behavior, which the Fifth Circuit has defined as “deliberate actions taken by a defendant to expose a child to sexual material; the ultimate goal of grooming is the formation of an emotional connection with the child and a reduction of the child’s inhibitions in order to prepare the child for sexual activity.” Howard, 766 F.3d at 424–45.

Bueno used a variety of strategies in an attempt to persuade, induce, or entice Doe to engage in sexual activity with him. For example, Bueno often flattered her, commenting on her appearance and sexuality. See, e.g., GX 1 at 378, 477, 515. He reiterated the genuineness and sincerity of his feelings towards Doe and stated that he would make her fall in love with him. See, e.g., id. at 369, 390, 589. Bueno also tried to appeal to her sexuality and stimulate her by sending numerous sexually oriented messages. See, e.g., id. at 618, 625, 645, 763. He even sent her two photos of his penis (id. at 677) and a video of him masturbating (GX 3) and subsequently asked her if she was “wet,” seeking confirmation of a biological indication that Doe had been enticed. GX 1 at 679, 706. Bueno requested photographs of Doe, too (see, e.g., id. at 763), which Bueno admitted in his recorded interview implied that he wanted nude photographs of her (GX 6 at 1:00:28–1:00:57). When Doe did not reciprocate his sexual desires, Bueno would shame her by responding with messages like: “Then tell me to fuck off then [Doe] damn I mean I don’t get anything from you anyway. If anything it’s like the friend zone. I didn’t willingly give you my attention to be put in the fuck frie[n]d zone.” GX 1 at 472. And Bueno attempted to normalize his behavior and the relationship between him and Doe by telling her, “I know of someone who did this for years and ummmm yeah . . . “ and “One of the coaches that coached me in HS was doing it to a girl in my class all the way up until her senior year of college. Started her freshman year.” Id. at 291.

Bueno also began grooming Doe by building a relationship of trust and repeatedly reminding her that she needed to keep their communications secret. See, e.g., id. at 6, 14, 25, 27, 34. The two photographs and video Bueno sent, coupled with his sexually oriented messages, served to desensitize Doe to pornography and lower her inhibitions about engaging in sexual contact with Bueno. See, e.g., id. at 677; GX 3. And as part of his continued efforts, Bueno engaged in various forms of manipulation. For instance, Bueno offered to buy Doe food and other gifts, such as shoes. See, e.g., id. at 382, 436, 506, 539. Bueno chastised Doe on multiple occasions for flirting with other people. See, e.g., id. at 105, 112, 315, 459, 461. On one occasion, he even said “[Y]ou don’t even [get] close to me but everyone else is all up in your shit.” Id. at 468–70. He also sent messages like, “You just don’t understand how embarrassing this is for me. I’ve had grown ass women, mom’s, and women my age throw themselves at me. Like literally wanting some dick or just a good fuck. now I’m the [person] begging” (id. at 715), and “Literally have grown ass women here looking to get in contact with me but I ain’t interested because I’m focused on you. Like I said I don’t know anymore,” in an attempt to coerce her into engaging in sexual activity with him. And he attempted to exercise control over Doe, sending numerous messages that discussed his desire for control (see, e.g., id. at 59, 104), texting her orders like, “Quit being so flirty with all the boys it comes off as flirting is the first,” and “Second I want you to look at me more” (id. at 60–61).

Bueno’s messages and various strategies show beyond a reasonable doubt that Bueno was attempting to persuade, induce, entice, or coerce Doe to engage in sexual activity. The Court also finds that the above messages are consistent with “grooming behavior.” See Howard, 766 F.3d at 425 (“The presence of grooming behavior is probative evidence that supports the inference that the defendant intends to entice the minor to assent to illegal sex.”). In any event, the defense conceded at trial that Bueno had engaged in grooming behavior. Tr. at 193.

Additionally, Bueno took numerous substantial steps towards enticing Doe to engage in sexual activity with Bueno, and his actions strongly corroborate the firmness of his criminal attempt. See Howard, 766 F.3d at 419. Bueno used a second phone to message Doe privately. GX 6 at 51:44–52:45. During a football trip, Bueno asked for Doe’s phone number. Tr. at 28–29; GX 6 at 51:12–51:44; 51:45–53:23. As he and Doe began texting, Bueno sent numerous sexually oriented text messages. See, e.g., GX 1 at 618, 625, 645, 763. As the Fifth Circuit has explained, “[e]vidence can establish that a defendant intended to induce, persuade, entice, or coerce a minor by sending the minor sexually explicit messages.” See Rounds, 749 F.3d at 333. Bueno also sent two photos of his erect penis and a video of him masturbating to Doe. GX 1 at 677, 698; GX 3. “[S]ending sexually explicit images and video is probative evidence of intent to entice a minor to engage in illegal sex.” Howard, 766 F.3d at 425. Additionally, Bueno’s messages asking Doe if she was “wet” after he had sent her the photos and videos indicate that he wanted confirmation that she was enticed. GX 1 at 679, 706. And during a school trip, Bueno went beyond messages and rubbed Doe’s thigh with his foot in a sexually suggestive manner. Tr. at 33–35.

Bueno and Doe’s prior teacher-student relationship presents another significant factor, distinguishing this case from most enticement cases that “ordinarily are the result of sting operations.” See Howard, 766 F.3d at 414, 420; Gladish, 536 F.3d at 650. Another court has previously held that grooming behavior, a proposed summer meeting, and a prior relationship collectively demonstrated a “substantial step.” United States v. Goetze, 494 F.3d 1231, 1235–37 (9th Cir. 2007); see also Gladish, 536 F.3d at 650 (“Because Goetze and his intended victim had a prior relationship, his effort to lure the victim back to Montana for sex could not be thought idle chatter.”). Similarly, here, Bueno groomed Doe, proposed meeting her on several occasions, and had a prior relationship with her. In fact, Bueno utilized this student/teacher relationship to engage in grooming behavior and manipulate Doe, offering to “give [her] straight As this year to boost [her] gpa” (GX 1 at 343), asking her to see him alone in his classroom to “‘make up’” a quiz (id. at 200–01) or get “‘tutoring’ during lunch” (id. at 775), and even threatening her with school-related discipline if she did not listen to his wishes (id. at 184–87). See also United States v. Kokayi, No. 1:18-CR-410 (LMB), 2019 WL 2028517, at *5 (E.D. Va. May 8, 2019) (“Furthermore, the teacher/student relationship is a classic example of a relationship in which sexual grooming can occur.”).

Collectively, these acts establish that Bueno took a substantial step and attempted to persuade, induce, entice, or coerce Doe to engage in sexual activity. Fifth Circuit precedent makes clear that “grooming behavior plus other acts strongly corroborative of intent to entice illegal sex—such as detailed discussions to arrange a meeting with the minor victim—can suffice to establish a substantial step under [Section] 2422(b).” See Howard, 766 F.3d at 425. Thus, while Bueno’s explicit sex talk or his sending of sexually explicit images or videos do not independently constitute a substantial step, see Howard, 766 F.3d at 421–23, 425, his grooming behavior towards Doe plus his many other acts do establish a substantial step.

Other cases discussing the role of travel and travel plans in finding a substantial step do not require the Court to reach a different conclusion here. See, e.g., Howard, 766 F.3d at 425–28. As the Fifth Circuit has previously noted, “[it] ha[s] never ruled that physical proximity or travel or plans to travel is necessary to constitute a substantial step under § 2422(b).” Broussard, 669 F.3d at 550. In any event, unlike those situations, Bueno saw Doe several times each week during the school year because Bueno was Doe's teacher and was a coach for the football team while Doe was a team manager. Tr. at 27–28.

Additionally, Bueno repeatedly requested to see Doe during school. See, e.g., GX 1 at 19, 100, 204, 281, 287–89, 331, 488, 708. In fact, on October 12, 2022, just a few hours after Bueno had sent the video of himself masturbating to Doe (GX 3), he messaged her, “Leave for lunch and I’ll pick you up we can go somewhere” followed by, “Jk you ain’t about it” and “I would literally have you shaking” (GX 1 at 701–02). Moreover, during a school trip, Bueno went beyond messages and physically rubbed Doe's thigh with his foot in a sexually suggestive manner. Tr. at 33–35. In sum, based upon the evidence here, the Court finds beyond a reasonable doubt that Bueno took a substantial step.

C. Bueno knew that Doe had not attained the age of 18 years.

Third, Bueno knew Doe was less than 18 years of age beyond a reasonable doubt. Doe was fourteen years old at the time that Bueno sent the text messages and videos. Tr. at 26–27. Bueno knew Doe's age because he was a teacher and coach at the school where Doe attended ninth grade, and he was actually one of her teachers. Tr. at 27–28. In addition, Bueno and Doe had discussed her age in text messages. See GX 1 at 787, 790–91, 795.

D. Bueno attempted to entice Doe to engage in sexual activity for which he could have been charged with violating Texas Penal Code § 21.11.

Fourth, the Court finds beyond a reasonable doubt that had the sexual activity actually occurred, Bueno could be charged with the criminal offense of Indecency with a Child under the laws of Texas. See Tex. Penal Code § 21.11. In previous filings, Bueno contended that the Court should follow the jury instructions for Unanimity of Theory. Dkt. No. 54 at 8. But the instruction requires that all jurors agree on the same theory to return a guilty verdict. Fifth Circuit Pattern Jury Instructions 1.27 (2019). Here, the Court conducted a bench trial pursuant to Bueno's request and waiver. Therefore, it does not logically follow that this instruction is applicable here. In any event, the Court finds that Bueno could have been charged with violating either Texas Penal Code § 21.11(a)(1) or Texas Penal Code § 21.11(a)(2).

Bueno's messages and conduct indicate that he intended to "intentionally or knowingly engage in sexual contact with Doe." See, e.g., GX 1 at 612, 645, 763. He asked Doe about whether she was still a virgin (id. at 607) or whether anyone had "felt [her] up down there" (id. at 709) along with repeatedly asserting that he should be a lot of "firsts" for Doe (id. at 612, 694). Bueno also sent Doe messages such as, "Do you shave your p?" (id. at 645), and "I need to have you alone today for like a few seconds" followed by, "To grab that nice ass of your in the tights" and "You make me so fucking horny I cannot stop" (id. at 711–12). Bueno asked Doe if he could grab her (id. 261) and even rubbed her thighs with his feet in a sexual manner during a school-related bus ride (Tr. at 33–35). The evidence indicates that had the sexual activity that Bueno was attempting to entice Doe to engage in actually occurred, Bueno would have violated Texas Penal Code § 21.11(a)(1).

Bueno's messages and conduct also indicate that "with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person," Bueno intended to "expose [his] anus or any part of [his] genitals, knowing that [Doe] would be present" and "cause [Doe] to expose [her] anus or any part of [her] genitals." Tex. Penal Code § 21.11(a)(2)(A)–(B). When Bueno sent the photos and video of his erect penis, Bueno asked whether Doe was "wet"—or aroused—and stated that he could make her feel that way. GX 1 at 676, 679, 698, 706. Bueno also asked for nude photographs of Doe with the intent to arouse or gratify his own desire. See, e.g., GX 1 at 726. This evidence indicates that had the sexual activity that Bueno was attempting to entice Doe to engage in actually occurred, Bueno would have violated both Texas Penal Code § 21.11(a)(2)(A) and (B).

4. Conclusion

Because the government has carried its burden of showing the elements for Attempted Enticement of a Minor, the Court finds the defendant, Nicholas Bueno, guilty of Count One of the Indictment.
