I.

In Memoriam.

RUTHERFORD BIRCHARD HAYES, LL.D.

DIED JANUARY 17, 1893.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

OCTOBER TERM, 1892.

WEDNESDAY, January 18, 1893.

Mr. Attorney General Miller addressed the court as follows :

It is my painful duty to announce to the court the death of Rutherford B. Hayes, ex-President of the United States. At his home in Fremont, Ohio, after a brief illness, at the ripe age of threescore years and ten, this eminent public servant last night passed from the life that now is into the life hereafter. This is not the time for eulogy, yet I am constrained to say that in his death the country has lost one who was a good citizen, a good soldier, a good President, and, above all, a good man.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE responded :

The Court receives the announcement of the death of ex-President Hayes with the sensibility due to his eminent public services and his private virtues ; and as a mark of respect to his memory will now adjourn until to-morrow at the usual hour.

FRIDAY, January 20, 1893.

This being the day appointed for the funeral of the late ex-President of the United States, Rutherford B. Hayes, the court, out of respect for his memory, suspended business for the remainder of the day.

II.
