

APPENDIX.

I.

AMENDMENT TO RULES.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

OCTOBER TERM, 1893.

It is ordered that the Rules of Practice in Equity be, and they are hereby, amended by striking out in Rule 82 the words "both the judges," and in Rule 89 the words "both judges," and by inserting in each rule, in place of the words stricken out, the words "a majority of all the judges thereof, including the Justice of the Supreme Court, the Circuit Judges, and the District Judge for the District," so that said two rules, as amended, shall read as follows:

82.

The Circuit Courts may appoint standing masters in chancery in their respective districts, (a majority of all the judges thereof, including the Justice of the Supreme Court, the Circuit Judges, and the District Judge for the District, concurring in the appointment,) and they may also appoint a master pro hac vice in any particular case. The compensation to be allowed to every master in chancery for his services in any particular case shall be fixed by the Circuit Court, in its discretion, having regard to all the circumstances thereof, and the compensation shall be charged upon and borne by such of the parties in the cause as the court shall direct. The master shall not retain his report as security for his compensation; but when the compensation is allowed by the court, he shall be entitled to an attachment for the amount against the party who is ordered to pay the same, if, upon notice thereof, he does not pay it within the time prescribed by the court.

89.

The Circuit Courts (a majority of all the judges thereof, including the Justice of the Supreme Court, the Circuit Judges, and the District Judge for the District, concurring therein) may make any other and further rules and regulations for the practice, proceedings, and process, mesne and final, in their respective districts, not inconsistent with the rules hereby prescribed, in their discretion, and from time to time alter and amend the same.

(Promulgated April 16, 1894.)

II.
