<sup>3</sup> MR. JUSTICE BREWER died at his home in Washington, D. C., on March 28, 1910, while the court was in recess. He was buried at Leavenworth, Kansas. The proceedings on his death will appear in Vol. 218 U. S. Reports. On April 25, 1910, President Taft appointed Charles Evans Hughes of New York, and Governor of that State, to succeed Mr. JUSTICE BREWER, deceased; he was confirmed by the Senate on May 2, 1910, but did not qualify or take his seat on the bench during October Term, 1909.

<sup>4</sup> MR. JUSTICE PECKHAM did not take his seat on the bench during October Term, 1909. He died at his home in Altamont near Albany, New York, on Sunday, October 24, 1909. See p. v, 215 U. S. Reports.

<sup>5</sup> MR. JUSTICE MOODY was absent from the court on account of illness and did not take his seat upon the bench during October Term, 1909, and did not participate in the decision of any of the cases reported in this volume which were argued or submitted during that Term.

<sup>6</sup> MR. JUSTICE LURTON of Tennessee was appointed to succeed MR. JUSTICE PECKHAM by President Taft and confirmed by the Senate, December 20, 1909. He took his seat on the bench January 3, 1910, but took no part in the decision of cases reported in this volume which were argued or submitted prior to that date.
