<sup>3</sup> MR. JUSTICE DAY was necessarily absent during October Term, 1911, until January 18, 1912 (see 222 U. S., xxix), and took no part in any of the decisions reported in this volume which were argued or submitted during his absence.

<sup>4</sup> On February 19, 1912, President Taft nominated MAHLON PITNEY, Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, as Associate Justice to succeed MR. JUSTICE HARLAN. He was confirmed by the Senate on March 13, 1912, commissioned on the same day, and on March 18, 1912, qualified, and immediately took his seat upon the bench. He took no part in any of the decisions reported in this volume.
