

ORDER.

Rule 70½ of the rules of practice in equity heretofore promulgated by this Court (226 U. S., Appendix; 281 U. S. 773) is amended to read as follows:

“In deciding suits in equity, including those required to be heard before three judges, the court of first instance shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon; and, in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions, the court of first instance shall similarly set forth its findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action.

“Such findings and conclusions shall be entered of record and, if an appeal is taken from the decree, shall be included by the clerk in the record which is certified to the appellate court under rules 75 and 76.”

NOVEMBER 25, 1935

671

