DEATH OF MR. CHIEF JUSTICE STONE

Justice Thomas H. Stone, one of the United States Supreme Court, died at his home in Washington, D. C., at 11:30 p. m., Thursday, April 22, 1946.

Justice Stone was born in Kentucky and was educated at the University of Kentucky and at the University of Chicago. He was admitted to the bar in 1904 and began his law practice in Kentucky. He served as a member of the Kentucky State Bar Association and as a member of the American Bar Association. He was elected to the United States Supreme Court in 1941.

Justice Stone was a member of the Supreme Court for five years. During this time he was known for his moderate and conservative views. He was a member of the majority in the case of Ex parte Jackson, which upheld the conviction of a man for espionage. He was also a member of the majority in the case of Ex parte Smith, which upheld the conviction of a man for espionage. His death was a great loss to the country.

Funeral services will be held at the Washington Cathedral Thursday, April 23, at 12 noon.

Interment will be in the Congressional Cemetery.

His body will lie in state in the Supreme Court building.

His remains will be interred in the Congressional Cemetery.

His death was a great loss to the country.
