

LETTER OF TRANSMISSION

AMENDMENTS TO
FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

To become effective at the time specified in Rule 86 (b)

The following amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (308 U. S. 645) were adopted by the Supreme Court of the United States on December 27, 1946, pursuant to the Act of June 19, 1934, 48 Stat. 1064, by an order published post, p. 843. On January 2, 1947, they were transmitted by The Chief Justice to the Attorney General for report to Congress. Post, p. 841. On January 3, 1947, they were reported to Congress by the Attorney General. Post, p. 842.

Under Rule 86 (b), post, p. 875, these amendments are to become effective "on the day which is three months subsequent to the adjournment of the first regular session of the 80th Congress, but, if that day is prior to September 1, 1947, then these amendments shall take effect on September 1, 1947."

AMENDMENTS TO
LEADER'S RULES OF COURT PROCEDURE

To persons entitled to file this pleading in Rule 88 (p)

The following amendments to the Leader Rules of Court Procedure will be adopted by the Franklin Court at the Court Session on December 12, 1969, pursuant to the Act of June 18, 1969, which authorizes the Franklin Court to file an order suspending part of the Act of June 18, 1969, for a period of 120 days, to allow time for the Court to consider the same.

Amendments to the Franklin Court Rules of Court Procedure, Rule 88 (p), are as follows:

1. The Franklin Court, in its discretion, may grant a continuance of any trial or hearing, or adjourn any trial or hearing, for a period not to exceed 30 days, upon application for such continuance, and for such cause as the Franklin Court may determine to be sufficient.
