I. In General.

State statute—Challenge of constitutionality—Standing of complainant.—One who has not sought license required by state statute may not challenge provisions for revocation. Independent Warehouses v. Scheele, 70.

II. Federal-State Relations.

Foreign affairs—State legislation.—California law which made right of nonresident aliens to acquire personal property reciprocal, not invasion of jurisdiction of Federal Government over foreign affairs. Clark v. Allen, 503.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW—Continued.III. Legislative Power.

Federal Taxation—Sixteenth Amendment—Income.—1938 Revenue Act as construed taxed "income" within meaning of Sixteenth Amendment. Crane v. Comm'r, 1.

IV. Freedom of the Press.

Comment on judicial trials—Pending cases—Clear and present danger—Contempt.—Unfair news reports of trial, and editorial attacking judge while motion for new trial was pending, did not create clear and present danger to administration of justice; conviction of newspapermen for contempt denied constitutional rights. Craig v. Harney, 367.

V. Search and Seizure.

Reasonableness—Search incidental to arrest.—Conviction under Selective Service Act and § 48 of Criminal Code, upon evidence (draft cards which were property of United States and possession of which was federal offense) obtained by extensive search of apartment incidental to arrest of person on warrant charging violation of Mail Fraud and Stolen Property Acts, sustained. Harris v. U. S., 145.

VI. Privilege Against Self-Incrimination.

Evidence obtained by search incidental to arrest—Use in criminal case.—Use of evidence obtained by extensive search of apartment of defendant, incidental to arrest, not violative of privilege against self-incrimination. Harris v. U. S., 145.

VII. Double Jeopardy.

What constitutes—Separate offenses.—Court-martial conviction did not bar prosecution for conspiracy which was separate offense though based on same facts. U. S. v. Bayer, 532.

VIII. Commerce.

1. Federal regulation—Food and drugs.—Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, construed as forbidding giving of false guaranty to one engaged in interstate commerce, valid. U. S. v. Walsh, 432.

2. Federal-state regulation—Warehouses.—Scope of federal regulation of grain warehouses under amended United States Warehouse Act; validity and effect of state regulation. Rice v. Santa Fe Elevator Corp., 218.

3. Federal-state regulation—Boards of trade.—Scope of federal regulation of "contract markets" under Commodity Exchange Act; all state regulation not precluded or superseded; claim of supersedure as premature. Rice v. Board of Trade, 247.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW—Continued.

4. State taxation—Warehousing—Transit privilege.—New Jersey tax on storage business valid as applied to storage of coal shipped into the State and stored pending decision of owner as to destination, though storage was part of "transit" privilege and most of coal was later shipped to other states. Independent Warehouses v. Scheele, 70.

IX. Contracts.

State taxation—Effect of private contract.—State tax as not defensible by private contractual arrangement. Independent Warehouses v. Scheele, 70.

X. Full Faith and Credit.

Limitation of actions—Fraternal benefit societies.—Forum must give effect to provision of constitution of foreign fraternal benefit society barring action on claim six months after disallowance by society. Order of Travelers v. Wolfe, 586.

XI. Due Process of Law.

1. Federal regulation—Vested rights—Judgments.—Federal regulation of future action valid though limiting rights previously acquired by judgments. Fleming v. Rhodes, 100.

2. State taxation—Resident trustee—Intangibles.—State may tax resident trustee on intangibles of out-of-state trust. Greenough v. Tax Assessors, 486.

3. State taxation—Particular class of property—Reasonableness.—Ordinance taxing commercial, but not private, storage facilities, not unreasonable, excessive or prohibitive. Independent Warehouses v. Scheele, 70.

4. State taxation—Penalties—Validity.—Tax ordinance not vitiated by provision for cumulative penalties which had not been applied to complainant and which was separable if invalid. Id.

5. State taxation—Validity—Contractual arrangements.—Power of State to impose tax can not be defeated by private contractual arrangement. Id.

6. State regulation—Penalties.—Ordinance penalizing individuals who work in unlicensed storage facilities, valid. Id.

XII. Equal Protection of Laws.

State taxation—Classification—Discrimination.—Ordinance taxing commercial storage facilities, though taxpayer's was the only business of that kind, valid. Independent Warehouses v. Scheele, 70.

CONTEMPT.

1. Comment on judicial trials—Pending cases—Clear and present danger.—Unfair news reports of trial, and editorial attacking judge while motion for new trial was pending, did not warrant punishment of newspapermen for contempt. Craig v. Harney, 367.

2. Id.—Vehemence of publication not controlling; threat to administration of justice must be imminent; applicability of rule of Bridges and Pennekamp cases. Id.
