TITLE I

BANKRUPTCY RULES

Rule 1. Scope of bankruptcy rules and forms; short title.

The rules and forms in this Title I govern the procedure in courts of bankruptcy in bankruptcy cases under Chapters I-VII of the Bankruptcy Act. These rules may be known and cited as the Bankruptcy Rules. These forms may be known and cited as the Official Bankruptcy Forms.

PART I. PETITION AND PROCEEDINGS RELATING THERETO AND TO ADJUDICATION

Rule 101. Commencement of bankruptcy case.

A bankruptcy case is commenced by filing a petition with the court by or against a person for the purpose of obtaining his adjudication as a bankrupt.

Rule 102. Reference of cases; withdrawal of reference and assignment.

(a) Reference.—Upon the filing of a petition the clerk shall refer the case forthwith to a referee or, if a local rule so provides, to more than one referee concurrently. Thereafter all proceedings in the case shall be before the referee except as otherwise provided by subdivision (b) of this rule, by Rules 115 (b), 409 (c), and 920, by § 2a (15) of the Act when a complaint seeks an injunction to restrain a court, by § 43c of the Act when the office of the referee is vacant, and by the provisions in the Act and the rules in Part VIII governing appeals from judgments of the referee.

(b) Withdrawal of reference and assignment.—The district judge may, at any time, for the convenience of parties or other cause, withdraw a case in whole or in part from a referee and either act himself or assign the case or part thereof to another referee in the district.

Rule 103. Voluntary petition.

A voluntary petition shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 1. An original and 2 copies of the petition shall be filed, unless a different number of copies is required by local rule.

Rule 104. Involuntary petition.

(a) Form and number.—An involuntary petition shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 9. An original and 2 copies of the petition shall be filed, unless additional copies are required by local rule.

(b) Participation in act of bankruptcy.—A creditor may not file or join in a petition alleging the commission of an act of bankruptcy other than the sixth act, if he consented to, participated in, or secured the commission of the act alleged. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a creditor, without inducing it, participated in any general assignment, receivership, or other mode of adjustment or settlement of the affairs of the debtor and did not consent in writing thereto, or if he did so consent but without knowledge of facts which would constitute commission of the first, second, or third act of bankruptcy or which would be a bar to the discharge of the debtor in bankruptcy, he may nevertheless act as a petitioning creditor and may allege any act of bankruptcy including such assignment or receivership.

(c) Particularity of allegations.—The facts constituting an act of bankruptcy shall be alleged with sufficient particularity to identify the transaction or occurrence.

(d) Transferor or transferee of claim.—A person who has transferred or acquired a claim for the purpose of commencing a bankruptcy case shall not be a qualified petitioner. A petitioning creditor who is a transferor or transferee of a claim, whether transferred unconditionally, for security, or otherwise, shall annex to the original and each of the 2 copies of the petition a copy of all documents evidencing the transfer, and a signed statement setting forth the consideration for and terms of the transfer and that the claim was not transferred for the purpose of commencing a bankruptcy case.

(e) Joinder of petitioners after filing.—Creditors other than the original petitioners may join in an involuntary petition at any time before its dismissal. If the answer to an involuntary petition filed by one or 2 creditors avers the existence of 12 or more creditors, the alleged bankrupt shall file with the answer a list of all his creditors with their addresses, a brief statement of the nature of their claims, and the amounts thereof. If it appears that there are 12 or more creditors as counted under § 59e of the Act, the court shall thereupon afford a reasonable opportunity for other creditors to join in the petition before a hearing is held thereon.

Rule 105. Partnership bankruptcy.

(a) Voluntary petition.—A voluntary petition may be filed by all the general partners on behalf of the partnership.

(b) Partner's petition against partnership.—A petition may be filed by fewer than all the general partners to have a partnership adjudged bankrupt under § 5b of the Act. An original and 2 copies of the petition shall be filed under this subdivision, but if more than one general partner does not join in the petition, an additional copy for each such partner shall be filed. The petition for adjudication of the partnership may be contested by any general partner (or alleged general partner) who is not a petitioner.

(c) Involuntary petition by creditors.—An involuntary petition may be filed by creditors against a partnership. Within 5 days after the filing, the petitioning creditors shall cause a copy of the petition to be sent by certified mail to the last known address of, or to be delivered to, each general partner who has not been served.

(d) Petition when all general partners are adjudicated.—If all the general partners of a partnership are adjudged bankrupt, any party in interest may file a petition in any court in which a partner's bankruptcy case is pending to have the partnership adjudged bankrupt.

Rule 106. Caption of petition.

The caption of every petition shall comply with Rule 904 (b). In addition the title of the case as set forth in the caption shall include the name of the bankrupt and all other names used by him within 6 years before the filing of the petition. If the petition is not filed by the bankrupt, the petitioners shall include such other names according to their best information.

Rule 107. Filing fees.

(a) General requirement.—Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), every petition shall be accompanied by the prescribed filing fees.

(b) Payment of filing fees in installments.

(1) Application for permission to pay filing fees in installments.—A voluntary petition shall be accepted for filing by the clerk of the district court if accompanied by an application signed by the petitioner for permission to pay the filing fees in installments. The application shall state that the applicant is unable to pay the filing fees except in installments, the proposed terms of such installment payments, and that the applicant has paid no money and transferred no property to his attorney for services in connection with the case. The application shall be filed in duplicate, one copy for the clerk and one for the bankruptcy judge.

(2) Action on application.—At or prior to the first meeting of creditors, the court after a hearing may make an order permitting the payment of the filing fees in installments to the clerk of the district court, and fixing the number of installments and the amount and date of payment of each installment. The number of installments permitted shall not exceed 4, and the final installment shall be payable not later than 4 months after the filing of the petition. For cause shown, however, the court may extend the time for payment of any installment to a date not later than 6 months after the date of filing of the petition.

(3) Postponement of attorney's fees.—Filing fees must be paid in full before the bankrupt may pay his attorney for services in connection with the case.

Rule 108. Schedules and statement of affairs.

(a) Schedules and statement required.—The bankrupt shall file with the court schedules of all his debts and all his property and a statement of his affairs, prepared by him in the manner prescribed by Official Forms No. 6 and either No. 7 or No. 8, whichever is appropriate. The number of copies of the schedules and statement shall correspond to the number of copies of the petition required by these rules.

(b) Time limits.—Except as otherwise provided herein, the schedules and statement shall be filed with the petition by a voluntary bankrupt and within 10 days after adjudication by an involuntary bankrupt or by a partnership adjudicated on other than a voluntary petition. A voluntary petition shall nevertheless be accepted by the clerk if accompanied by a list of all the bankrupt's creditors and their addresses, and the schedules and statement may be filed within 10 days thereafter in such case. On application the court may grant up to 10 additional days for the filing of schedules and the statement of affairs; any further extension may be granted only for cause shown and on such notice as the court may direct.

(c) Partnership and partners.—If the bankrupt is a partnership, the general partners shall prepare and file the schedules of the debts and property and statement of affairs of the partnership. Every general partner not adjudicated shall file a statement of his assets and liabilities with the trustee of the partnership within 10 days after qualification by the trustee or within such further time as may be allowed by the court for cause shown.

(d) Preparation of schedules or statement of affairs on default by bankrupt.—If the schedules or statement of affairs is not prepared and filed as required by this rule, the court may order the receiver, trustee, a petitioning creditor, or other party in interest to prepare and file any of these papers within such time as the court shall fix.

(e) Interests acquired or arising after bankruptcy.—Within 10 days after the information comes to his knowledge or within such further time as the court may allow, the bankrupt shall file a supplemental schedule showing the facts regarding (1) any property that vests in him by bequests, devise, or inheritance within 6 months after bankruptcy; (2) any property in which the bankrupt had an estate or interest by the entirety on the date of bankruptcy and which became transferable in whole or in part solely by the bankrupt within 6 months after bankruptcy; and (3) any interests in real property that were non-assignable prior to bankruptcy and that, within 6 months thereafter, became assignable interests or estates, or gave rise to powers in the bankrupt to acquire assignable interests or estates. If any of the property or interests required to be reported under this subdivision is claimed by the bankrupt as exempt, he shall claim his exemption in the supplemental schedule. The duty to file a supplemental schedule in accordance with this subdivision continues notwithstanding the closing of the case before the duty is or can be performed.

Rule 109. Verification of petitions and accompanying papers.

All petitions, schedules, statements of affairs, and amendments thereto shall be verified.

Rule 110. Amendments of voluntary petitions, schedules, and statements of affairs.

A voluntary petition, schedule, or statement of affairs may be amended as a matter of course at any time before the case is closed. The court may, on application or motion of any party in interest or on its own initiative, order any voluntary petition, schedule, or statement of affairs to be amended. Every amendment under this rule shall be filed in the same number as required of the original paper, and the court shall give notice of the amendment to such persons as it may designate.

Rule 111. Service of petition and process.

Upon the filing of an involuntary petition, the clerk of the district court shall forthwith issue a summons for service on the bankrupt. Upon the filing of a partner's petition against a partnership under Rule 105 (b), the clerk shall forthwith issue a summons for service upon all general partners who are not petitioners. The summons shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 10 and a copy shall be served with a copy of the petition in the manner provided for service of a summons, complaint, and notice of trial by Rule 704 (b), (c), or (i). If service cannot be made as provided in the preceding sentence, the court may order the summons and petition to be served by mailing copies thereof to the last known address, if any, and by at least one publication in such manner and form as the court may direct. The summons and petition may be served anywhere. The provisions of Rule 704 (e), (g), and (h) apply when service is made or attempted under this rule.

Rule 112. Responsive pleading or motion.

The alleged bankrupt in an involuntary petition, or, in the case of a petition against a partnership under subdivision (b) or (c) of Rule 105, any general partner (or alleged general partner) who is not a petitioner, may contest the petition. Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies to the making of a defense or objection to the petition, except that an answer or a motion permitted under Rule 12 (b), (e), or (f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be served and filed within 15 days after the issuance of the summons, but if service is made by publication upon an alleged bankrupt or partner not an inhabitant of nor found within the state in which the district court is held, the court shall prescribe the time for such service and filing of the response. The service of a motion permitted under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall have the effect prescribed by Rule 712 (a) on the time allowed for serving an answer to the petition, but any motion or answer served on the petitioner must be filed with the court no later than the last day allowed for service of the motion or the answer, as the case may be. The answer to a petition may include the statement of a claim against a petitioning creditor only for the purpose of defeating the petition. No other responsive pleadings shall be allowed, except that the court may order a reply to an answer and prescribe the time for it to be served and filed.

Rule 113. Affirmative defense of solvency.

If a petition alleges the commission of the first act of bankruptcy, the alleged bankrupt shall plead and have the burden of proving the defense of solvency at the date of bankruptcy.

Rule 114. Examination of bankrupt on issue of insolvency or inability to pay debts as they mature.

Whenever a petition filed under Rule 104 alleges the commission of the second, third, or fifth act of bankruptcy or a petition is filed under Rule 105 (b), and the alleged bankrupt denies the allegation of insolvency or inability to pay debts as they mature, the alleged bankrupt shall appear in court at the hearing, and prior thereto if ordered by the court, with books, papers, and accounts, and submit to an examination as to all matters bearing on the issue of insolvency or inability to pay debts as they mature. If the alleged bankrupt fails so to appear or submit to an examination, the court on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, including those specified in paragraphs (A), (B), and (C), of Rule 37 (b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The examination provided by this rule is not exclusive of the procedures available under Rules 121 and 205.

Rule 115. Hearing and disposition of petition.

(a) Contested petition.—The court shall determine the issues of a contested petition at the earliest practicable time and adjudicate the debtor a bankrupt, dismiss the case, or enter such other order as may be appropriate.

(b) Jury trial.

(1) An alleged bankrupt may, at or before the time within which an answer may be filed, demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury under § 19a of the Act, by serving upon the petitioners a demand therefor in writing and filing it. Such demand may be indorsed upon the answer. If the demand specifies that a district judge conduct the trial or if a local rule of court so provides, the trial shall be placed on the calender of the district court as a jury action; otherwise the referee shall conduct the jury trial. The failure of a party to serve and file a demand in accordance with this rule constitutes a waiver by him of trial by jury or of a jury trial before a district judge, as the case may be.

(2) When trial by jury has been demanded in accordance with this rule, the trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury unless the alleged bankrupt, by a writing filed with the court or by an oral statement made in open court and entered in the record, consents to trial by the court sitting without a jury. A trial with an advisory jury or a jury trial conducted as of right on consent of the parties may be ordered in accordance with Rule 39 (c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(3) When issues triable of right by jury have been placed on the district court calendar as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, the district judge may order the trial before him of any other issues presented by the pleadings in the interest of expediting the court's business or for other good cause.

(4) Except as provided in subdivision (d) of this rule, Rules 47-51 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a jury trial conducted under this subdivision.

(c) Default.—If no pleading or other defense to a petition is filed within the time provided by these rules, the court shall on the next day, or as soon thereafter as practicable, make the adjudication or make such other order as may be appropriate.

(d) Adjudication.—An adjudication shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 11 and shall be entered in the referee's docket or the civil docket of the district court, as the case may be.

(e) Award of costs.—When a case commenced by the filing of a petition against any person pursuant to Rule 104 (a) or Rule 105 (b) or (c) is dismissed or withdrawn, the court on reasonable notice to the petitioner or petitioners may award to the prevailing party the same costs that are allowed to a prevailing party in a civil action and reasonable counsel fees, and shall award any other sums required by the Act.

Rule 116. Venue and transfer.

(a) Proper venue.

(1) Natural person.—A petition by or against a natural person may be filed in the district where the bankrupt has had his principal place of business, residence, or domicile for the preceding 6 months or for a longer portion thereof than in any other district. A petition by or against a natural person who has had no principal place of business, residence, or domicile within the United States during the preceding 6 months may be filed in a district wherein he has property.

(2) Corporation or partnership.—A petition by or against a corporation or partnership may be filed in the district (A) where the bankrupt has had its principal place of business or its principal assets for the preceding 6 months or for a longer portion thereof than in any other district; or (B) if there is no such district, in any district where the bankrupt has property.

(3) Partner with partnership or copartner.—Notwithstanding the foregoing: (A) a petition commencing a bankruptcy case may be filed by or against any general partner in a district where a petition under the Act by or against a partnership is pending; (B) a petition commencing a bankruptcy case may be filed by or against a partnership or by or against any other general partner or by or against any combination of the partnership and the general partners in a district where a petition under the Act by or against a general partner is pending.

(4) Affiliate.—Notwithstanding the foregoing, a petition commencing a bankruptcy case may be filed by or against an affiliate of the bankrupt in a district where a petition under the Act by or against the bankrupt is pending.

(b) Transfer of cases; dismissal or retention when venue improper.

(1) When venue proper.—Although a petition is filed in accordance with subdivision (a) of this rule, the court may, after hearing on notice to the petitioner or petitioners and such other persons as it may direct in the interest of justice and for the convenience of the parties, transfer the case to any other district. The transfer may be ordered at or before the first meeting of creditors either on the court's own initiative or on motion of a party in interest but thereafter only on a timely motion.

(2) When venue improper.—If a petition is filed in a wrong district, the court may, after hearing on notice to the petitioner or petitioners and such other persons as it may direct, dismiss the case or, in the interest of justice and for the convenience of the parties, retain the case or transfer it to any other district. Such an order may be made at or before the first meeting of creditors either on the court's own initiative or on motion of a party in interest but thereafter only on a timely motion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court may without a hearing retain a case filed in a wrong district if no objection is raised.

(c) Procedure when petitions involving the same bankrupt or related bankrupts are filed in different courts.—If petitions commencing bankruptcy cases or a bankruptcy case and any other case under the Act are filed in different districts by or against (1) the same bankrupt, or (2) a partnership and one or more of its general partners, or (3) 2 or more general partners, or (4) a bankrupt and an affiliate, the court in which the first petition is filed shall, after hearing on motion and notice to the petitioners and such other persons as the court may designate, determine the court or courts in which the case or cases should proceed in the interest of justice and for the convenience of the parties. The proceedings on the other petitions shall be stayed by the courts in which such petitions have been filed until such determination is made. Thereafter all the courts in which petitions have been filed shall proceed in accordance with the determination.

(d) Reference of transferred cases.—A case transferred under this rule shall, in accordance with Rule 102 (a), be referred by the clerk of the district court to which it has been transferred.

Rule 117. Consolidation or joint administration of cases pending in same court.

(a) Cases involving same bankrupt.—If 2 or more petitions are pending in the same court by or against the same bankrupt, the court may order consolidation of the cases.

(b) Cases involving 2 or more related bankrupts.—If 2 or more petitions are pending in the same court by or against (1) a husband and wife, or (2) a partnership and one or more of its general partners, or (3) 2 or more general members of a partnership, or (4) a bankrupt and an affiliate, the court may order a joint administration of the estates. Before making such an order the court shall give due consideration to the protection of creditors of the different estates against potential conflicts of interest.

(c) Expediting and protective orders.—When an order for consolidation or joint administration of 2 or more cases is entered pursuant to this rule, the court, while protecting the rights of the parties under the Act, may make such orders as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs and delay.

Rule 118. Death or insanity of bankrupt.

The death or insanity of the bankrupt shall not abate a bankruptcy case. In such event the estate of the bankrupt shall be administered and the case concluded in the same manner, so far as possible, as though the death or insanity had not occurred.

Rule 119. Bankrupt involved in foreign proceeding.

When a proceeding for the purpose of the liquidation or rehabilitation of his estate has been commenced by or against a bankrupt in a court of competent jurisdiction without the United States, the court of bankruptcy may, after hearing on notice to the petitioner or petitioners and such other persons as it may direct, having regard to the rights and convenience of local creditors and other relevant circumstances, dismiss a case or suspend the proceedings therein under such terms as may be appropriate.

Rule 120. Dismissal of case without determination of merits.

(a) Voluntary dismissal; dismissal for want of prosecution.—A case shall not be dismissed on application or motion of the petitioner or petitioners or for want of prosecution or by consent of the parties until after hearing on notice to the creditors as provided in Rule 203 (a). To enable the court to give such notice, the bankrupt, if he has not already done so, shall file a list of all his creditors with their addresses within the time fixed by the court. If the bankrupt fails to file such list, the court may by order provide for the preparation and filing of the list in such manner as may be appropriate.

(b) Dismissal for failure to pay filing fees.

(1) On nonpayment of any installment of the filing fees as ordered pursuant to Rule 107 (b) and after hearing on notice to the bankrupt, the court may dismiss the case.

(2) If a case is dismissed or closed without the payment in full of the filing fees, the installments collected shall be distributed in the same manner and proportions as if the filing fees had been paid in full.

(3) Notice of dismissal for failure to pay the filing fees shall be given within 30 days after the dismissal to creditors appearing on the list of creditors and to those who have filed claims, in the manner provided in Rule 203.

(c) Effect of dismissal.—Unless the order specifies to the contrary, dismissal of a case otherwise than on the merits is without prejudice.

Rule 121. Applicability of rules in Part VII.

Except as otherwise provided in Part I of these rules and unless the court otherwise directs, the following rules in Part VII apply in all proceedings relating to a contested petition and in all proceedings to vacate an adjudication: Rules 705, 708-710, 715, 716, 724-726, 728-737, 744.1, 752, 756, and 762. The court may direct that one or more of the other rules in Part VII shall also apply in such a proceeding. For the purposes of this rule a reference in the rules in Part VII to adversary proceedings shall be read as a reference to proceedings relating to a contested petition or proceedings to vacate an adjudication, and a reference in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to the complaint shall be read as a reference to the petition.

Rule 122. Conversion of a chapter case to bankruptcy.

When an order is entered in a Chapter X, XI, XII, or XIII case directing that the case continue as a bankruptcy case, the procedure shall be as follows:

(1) In all respects other than as provided in the following paragraphs, the case shall be deemed to have been commenced as of the date of the filing of the first petition initiating a case under the Act and shall be conducted as far as possible as if no petition commencing a chapter case had been filed.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the court, lists, inventories, schedules, and statements filed in the superseded case shall be deemed to be the schedules and statement of affairs filed in the bankruptcy case pursuant to Rule 108 and in full compliance therewith; but if no such documents have been previously filed, the bankrupt shall comply with Rule 108 as if he had been adjudicated an involuntary bankrupt on the date of the entry of the order directing that the case continue as a bankruptcy case.

(3) Notice of the order directing that the case continue as a bankruptcy case shall be given to all creditors in the manner provided by Rule 203 within 20 days after entry of the order and shall accompany the notice of the first meeting of creditors if one is held. If no first meeting of creditors is held, the date of the mailing of the notice of the order as provided in this paragraph shall be deemed the first date set for the first meeting of creditors for the purposes of any rule referring to that date to prescribe the time when or within which an act is required or allowed to be done; but if the time for filing claims, a complaint objecting to discharge, or a complaint to obtain a determination of the discharge-ability of any debt had expired in a pending bankruptcy case prior to the filing therein of a chapter petition, the preceding clause of this paragraph shall not be deemed to revive or extend such time.

(4) A trustee shall be appointed by the court and notified pursuant to Rule 209 (c), and shall qualify pursuant to Rule 212, unless

(A) a trustee has been previously selected pursuant to Rule 209 and has qualified, in which event he shall be immediately notified of the order directing that the case continue as a bankruptcy case and shall enter upon the performance of his duties without further qualification; or

(B) a standby trustee has been nominated in the superseded case, in which event he shall be immediately notified pursuant to Rule 209 (c) and, within 5 days after receipt of notice, shall qualify in the manner provided by Rule 212; or

(C) the court pursuant to Rule 211 orders that no trustee be appointed.

If a trustee notified under this paragraph fails to qualify or to enter upon the performance of his duties, the court shall appoint a trustee pursuant to Rule 209.

(5) All claims filed in the superseded case shall be deemed filed in the bankruptcy case.

(6) Forthwith after qualification of the trustee or entry by him on the performance of his duties as provided in paragraph (4) of this rule, any trustee, receiver, or debtor in possession previously acting in the chapter case shall, unless otherwise ordered, turn over to the trustee in bankruptcy all the records and property of the estate in his possession or subject to his control.

(7) Each trustee, receiver, and debtor in possession acting in the superseded chapter case shall, unless the court otherwise directs, file with the court a final report and account within 30 days after the entry of the order directing that the case continue as a bankruptcy case, including, in a superseded Chapter X, XI, or XII case, a separate schedule listing unpaid debts incurred by him after the commencement of the chapter case. If the order is entered after confirmation of a plan, the debtor shall file with the court schedules of (A) property not listed in the final report filed pursuant to the preceding sentence of this paragraph and acquired by him after the filing of the original petition under the Act and before the entry of the order directing that the case continue as a bankruptcy case and (B) debts not listed in the final report filed pursuant to the preceding sentence of this paragraph and incurred by him after confirmation and before the entry of such order.

(8) On the filing of a schedule required by the preceding paragraph, the court shall enter an order directing the claims so scheduled, including claims of the United States, any state, and any subdivision thereof, to be filed and shall give notice by mail to the holders thereof to file their claims pursuant to Rule 302 (a)-(d) within 60 days from the entry of the order directing them to be filed, except that claims not scheduled as provided in the preceding paragraph and claims arising from rejection of executory contracts under paragraph (10) of this rule may be filed within such further time as the court may direct.

(9) If the court grants an extension of time for the filing of claims pursuant to Rule 302 (e)(5), the extension shall apply to holders of claims who failed to file within the time prescribed by, or fixed by the court pursuant to, paragraph (8) of this rule, and notice shall be given them in the manner provided in Rule 203 (a).

(10) Rule 607 shall govern the assumption, rejection, and assignment of contracts entered into or assumed by a trustee, receiver, or debtor in possession acting in the superseded chapter case which are executory in whole or in part at the time of the entry of the order directing the case to continue as a bankruptcy case, except that with respect to a trustee selected as provided in paragraph (4)(A) of this rule the time periods prescribed by Rule 607 shall begin to run from the entry of such order.

PART II. OFFICERS FOR ADMINISTERING THE ESTATE;
NOTICES TO CREDITORS; CREDITORS' MEETINGS;
EXAMINATIONS; ELECTIONS; ATTORNEYS AND ACCOUNTANTS

Rule 201. Appointment and duties of receivers.

(a) Purposes and term of receivership.—Subject to the provisions of this rule, the court may appoint a receiver when necessary in the best interest of the estate (1) to take charge of the property of a bankrupt; (2) to conduct the business of the bankrupt; or (3) to afford representation to the estate in an action, adversary proceeding, or contested matter when no trustee has qualified or the interest of the trustee may be adverse to that of the estate. Such appointment shall be terminated when the trustee qualifies or there is no further need for a receiver, and the authorization to conduct the business of the bankrupt after adjudication shall continue only for such time as may be in the best interest of the estate and consistent with orderly liquidation.

(b) Application for appointment.—An application for appointment of a receiver shall state the specific facts showing the necessity for the appointment.

(c) Appointment before adjudication.—Before adjudication, appointment of a receiver may be made only on application. The application may be granted only after hearing on notice to the alleged bankrupt and such other parties in interest as the court may designate, except that a receiver may be appointed without notice if irreparable loss to the estate may otherwise result. An application for appointment of a receiver without notice and any order of appointment made without notice shall state what loss may result and why it would be irreparable.

(d) Bond of applicant.—Before adjudication, no receiver may be appointed unless the applicant furnishes a bond in such amount and with such surety as the court shall approve, conditioned to indemnify the bankrupt for the costs, counsel fees, expenses, and damages occasioned by the appointment and action of the receiver in the event the petition is dismissed or withdrawn. The property of the bankrupt shall be released, however, if he files a counter-bond in such amount and with such surety as the court shall approve, conditioned that the bankrupt account for and turn over such property or pay to the trustee the value thereof in money at the time of release, in the event the adjudication is made.

(e) Appointment after adjudication.—After adjudication the court may appoint a receiver on application or on its own initiative. Such appointment shall be made only after notice to such persons as the court may designate, unless it clearly appears that notice is impracticable or unnecessary.

(f) Eligibility.—Only a person who is eligible to be a trustee under Rule 209 (d) may be appointed a receiver.

(g) Order of appointment.—An order appointing a receiver shall state why the appointment is necessary. A receiver is a mere custodian unless, upon proper cause shown, his duties are enlarged or otherwise specified by order of court. A copy of every order appointing a receiver shall forthwith be delivered to the bankrupt, or mailed to him at his last known address, and to such other persons as the court may designate.

(h) Notice of appointment; qualification.—The court shall immediately notify the receiver of his appointment, inform him as to how he may qualify, and require him forthwith to notify the court of his acceptance or rejection of the office. A receiver shall qualify as provided in Rule 212.

(i) Duties.—A receiver shall perform the duties prescribed in Rule 218 to the extent it is appropriate, except as the court may otherwise direct. Forthwith after qualification of the trustee, the receiver shall, unless otherwise ordered, turn over to the trustee all the records and property of the estate in his possession or subject to his control as receiver. The receiver shall file his final report and account within 30 days after qualification of the trustee unless the court otherwise directs.

Rule 202. Appointment of marshal in lieu of receiver; his duties.

The court may appoint a marshal in lieu of a receiver and, in such event, the provisions of Rule 201 except subdivisions (f) and (h) shall apply.

Rule 203. Notices to creditors and the United States.

(a) Ten-day notices to all creditors.—Except as provided hereinafter, the court shall give all creditors at least 10 days' notice by mail of (1) a meeting of creditors; (2) any proposed sale of property, including the time and place of any public sale, unless the court for cause shown shortens the time or orders a sale without notice; (3) the hearing on the approval of a compromise or settlement of a controversy, unless the court for cause shown directs that notice not be sent; (4) the date fixed for the filing of claims against a surplus in an estate as provided in Rule 302(e)(5); (5) the hearing on the dismissal of a case when notice is required by Rule 120 (a); and (6) the hearing on approval of a trustee's or a receiver's account and on an application for compensation or reimbursement of expenses filed by a receiver, marshal, trustee, attorney, or accountant, except when no final meeting of creditors is required to be ordered pursuant to Rule 204 (c). The notice of a proposed sale of property, including real estate, is sufficient if it generally describes the property to be sold. The notice of a hearing on an application for compensation or reimbursement of expenses shall specify the applicant and the amount requested.

(b) Notice of no dividend.—If it appears from the schedules that there are no assets from which a dividend can be paid, the court may include in the notice of the first meeting a statement to that effect, that it is unnecessary to file claims, and that if sufficient assets become available for the payment of a dividend, the court will give further notice of the opportunity to file claims and the time allowed therefor.

(c) Other notices to all creditors.—The court shall give notice by mail to all creditors of (1) the dismissal of the case for failure to pay filing fees pursuant to Rule 120 (b); (2) the entry of an order directing that a chapter case continue as a bankruptcy case as provided in Rule 122 (c); (3) the time allowed for filing claims pursuant to Rule 302 (e)(4) after issuance of a notice of no dividend; (4) the time fixed for filing a complaint objecting to the bankrupt's discharge pursuant to Rule 404 (b); (5) the order of discharge as provided in Rule 404 (h); (6) the waiver, denial, or revocation of a discharge as provided in Rule 408; and (7) the time allowed for filing a complaint to determine the dischargeability of a debt pursuant to § 17c (2) of the Act as provided in Rule 409 (a)(2).

(d) Notices to creditors whose claims are filed.—After 6 months following the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, the court may direct that all notices required by subdivision (a) of this rule, except clause (4) thereof, be mailed only to creditors whose claims have been filed and creditors, if any, who are still permitted to file claims by reason of an extension granted under Rule 302 (e).

(e) Addresses of notices.—All notices to which a creditor is entitled under these rules shall be addressed to the creditor as he or his duly authorized agent may direct in a request filed with the court; otherwise, to the creditor at the address shown in the schedules or, if a different address is stated in a proof of claim duly filed, then at the address so stated.

(f) Notices to creditors' committee.—Notwithstanding the foregoing subdivisions, if a creditors' committee has been elected, the court may order that notices required by clauses (2), (3), and (6) of subdivision (a) be mailed only to the committee or to its authorized agent and to creditors who file with the court a request that all notices under these clauses be mailed to them.

(g) Notices to the United States.—Copies of notices required to be mailed to all creditors under these rules shall be mailed (1) to the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the case is pending and (2) whenever the schedules, the list of creditors, or any other paper filed in the case discloses a debt to the United States other than one for taxes, to the United States attorney for the district in which the case is pending and, if disclosed by the filed papers, to the department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States through which the bankrupt became so indebted.

(h) Notice by publication.—If the court finds that it is impracticable to give notice to creditors by mail as provided in this rule or that it is desirable to supplement such notice, the court may order publication thereof.

(i) Caption.—The caption of every notice given under this rule shall comply with Rule 106 and shall also include all names used by the bankrupt within 6 years before the filing of the petition, as disclosed on the statement of affairs filed pursuant to Rule 108.

Rule 204. Meetings of creditors.

(a) First meeting.

(1) Date and place.—The first meeting of creditors shall be held not less than 10 nor more than 30 days after the adjudication, but if there is an appeal from or a motion to vacate the adjudication, or if there is a motion to dismiss the case, the court may delay fixing a date for such meeting. The meeting may be held at a regular place for holding court or at any other place within the district more convenient for the parties in interest.

(2) Agenda.—The bankruptcy judge shall preside over the transaction of all business at the first meeting of creditors, including the examination of the bankrupt. He shall, when necessary, determine which claims are entitled to vote at the meeting and shall conduct the election of a trustee and, if one is held, the election of a creditors' committee.

(b) Special meetings.—The court may call a special meeting of creditors on application or on its own initiative.

(c) Final meeting.—The court shall order a final meeting of creditors in every case in which the net proceeds realized exceed $250 and shall mail a summary of the trustee's final account to the creditors with the notice of the meeting, together with a statement of the amount of the claims allowed. The trustee shall attend the final meeting and shall, if requested, report on the administration of the estate.

Rule 205. Examination.

(a) Examination on application.—Upon application of any party in interest, the court may order the examination of any person. The application shall be in writing unless made during a hearing or examination or unless a local rule otherwise provides.

(b) Examination of bankrupt at first meeting.—At the first meeting of creditors, the court shall publicly examine the bankrupt or cause him to be examined and may permit any party in interest to examine the bankrupt.

(c) Bankruptcy judge to preside.—The bankruptcy judge shall preside at any examination under subdivision (b) of this rule.

(d) Scope of examination.—The examination under subdivisions (a) and (b) of this rule may relate only to the acts, conduct, or property of the bankrupt, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the bankrupt's estate, or to his right to discharge.

(e) Compelling attendance for examination and production of documentary evidence.—The attendance of any person for examination and the production of documentary evidence may be compelled in accordance with the provisions of Rule 916 by the use of a subpoena for a hearing or trial.

(f) Place of examination of bankrupt.—Without issuing a subpoena, the court may for cause shown and on such terms as it may impose order the bankrupt to be examined under subdivision (a) of this rule at any place it designates, whether within or without the district wherein the case is pending.

(g) Mileage.—A person other than a bankrupt shall not be required to attend as a witness before a bankruptcy judge unless his lawful mileage and fee for one day's attendance shall be first tendered to him. If the bankrupt resides over 100 miles from the place of examination when he is required to appear for an examination under subdivision (a) of this rule, he shall be tendered mileage allowed by law to a witness for any distance over 100 miles from his residence at the date of bankruptcy or his residence at the time he is required to appear for such examination, whichever is the lesser.

Rule 206. Apprehension and removal of bankrupt to compel attendance for examination.

(a) Order to compel attendance for examination.—Upon a verified application of any party in interest alleging (1) that the examination of the bankrupt is necessary for the proper administration of the estate and that there is reasonable cause to believe that the bankrupt is about to leave his residence or his principal place of business to avoid examination, or (2) that he has evaded service of a subpoena or of an order to attend for examination, or (3) that he has willfully disobeyed a subpoena or order to attend for examination, duly served upon him, the court may issue to the marshal, or some other officer authorized by law, an order directing him to bring the bankrupt forthwith before the court. If after hearing the court finds the allegations to be true, the court shall thereupon examine the bankrupt or cause him to be examined as soon as possible, but, in any event, the examination shall be commenced within 10 days after he was taken into custody. If it is necessary, the court shall fix conditions for further examination and for the bankrupt's obedience to all orders made in reference thereto.

(b) Removal.—Whenever any order to bring the bankrupt before the court is issued under this rule and he is found in a district other than that of the court issuing the order, he may be taken into custody under such order and removed in accordance with the following rules:

(1) If taken at a place less than 100 miles from the place of issue of the order, the bankrupt shall be brought forthwith before the court that issued the order.

(2) If taken at a place 100 miles or more from the place of issue of the order, the bankrupt shall be brought without unnecessary delay before the nearest magistrate, referee in bankruptcy, or district judge. If, after hearing, the magistrate, referee, or district judge finds that an order has issued under this rule and that the person in custody is the bankrupt, or if the person in custody waives a hearing, the magistrate, referee, or district judge shall issue an order of removal and the person in custody shall be released on conditions assuring his prompt appearance before the court which issued the order to compel his attendance.

(c) Conditions of release.—In determining what conditions will reasonably assure attendance or obedience under subdivision (a) of this rule or appearance under subdivision (b) of this rule, the court shall be governed by the provisions and policies of Title 18, U. S. C., § 3146 (a) and (b).

Rule 207. Voting at creditors' meetings.

(a) Right to vote; temporary allowance for voting purposes.—Except as hereinafter provided, a creditor is entitled to vote at a meeting if he has filed a proof of claim at or before the meeting, unless objection is made or unless the proof of claim is insufficient on its face. Notwithstanding objection to the amount or allowability of a claim for the purpose of voting, the court may temporarily allow it for that purpose in such amount as to the court seems proper.

(b) Majority vote; creditors with claims of $100 or less.—The trustee and the creditors' committee, if any, shall be elected by a majority vote in number and amount of claims of all creditors who are present and voting in person or by proxy. A claim of $100 or less shall be included in computing the amount, but the holder of such a claim shall not be counted in computing the number of creditors voting.

(c) Creditors with secured or priority claims.—A creditor holding a claim which is secured or has priority shall be entitled to vote such claim only to the extent the claim exceeds the value of his security or the amount of his priority.

(d) Creditors excluded from voting.—The following creditors shall not be entitled to vote: a relative or affiliate of the bankrupt; a director or trustee or a stockholder, member, or officer of the bankrupt corporation; a general partner, limited partner, or person in control of the bankrupt partnership; or a person having an interest materially adverse to the estate.

Rule 208. Solicitation and voting of proxies.

(1) Proxy.—A proxy includes a power of attorney, proof of claim, or other writing authorizing any person who does not then own a claim to vote the claim or otherwise act as the owner's attorney in fact in connection with the administration of an estate in bankruptcy.

(2) Solicitation of proxy.—The solicitation of a proxy is any communication, other than one from an attorney to a regular client who owns a claim or from an attorney to the owner of a claim who has requested the attorney to represent him, by which a creditor is asked, directly or indirectly, to give a proxy after or in contemplation of the filing of a petition by or against the bankrupt.

(b) Authorized solicitation.

(1) A proxy may be solicited only by (A) a creditor owning a provable claim against the estate on the date of the filing of the petition; (B) a committee elected under Rule 214; (C) a committee of creditors selected by a majority in number and amount of claims of creditors whose claims are not contingent or unliquidated, who are not disqualified from voting under Rule 207 (c) or (d), and who were present or represented at a meeting of which all creditors having claims of over $500, or the 100 creditors having the largest claims, had at least 5 days' notice in writing and of which meeting written minutes were kept and are available reporting the names of the creditors present or represented and voting and the amounts of their claims; or (D) a bona fide trade or credit association, but such association may solicit only creditors who were its members or subscribers in good standing and had provable claims on the date of the filing of the petition.

(2) A proxy may be solicited only in writing.

(c) Solicitation not authorized.—This rule shall not be construed to permit solicitation (1) in any interest other than that of general creditors; (2) by or on behalf of any person who has taken charge of property of the bankrupt as a receiver or trustee or an assignee for the benefit of creditors; (3) by or on behalf of any person disqualified from voting under Rule 207 (c) or (d);

(4) by or on behalf of an attorney at law; or (5) by or on behalf of a transferee of a claim for collection only.

(d) Data required from holders of multiple proxies.—At any time before the voting commences at any meeting of creditors held under Rule 204, or at such other time as the court may direct, a holder of 2 or more proxies must file with the court a verified list of the proxies to be voted and a verified statement of the pertinent facts and circumstances in connection with the execution and delivery of the proxies, including with respect to each of the proxies that was solicited, whether by the proxyholder or by any other person, the following:

(1) a copy of the solicitation;

(2) identification of the solicitor, the forwarder, if he is neither the solicitor nor the owner of the claim, and the proxyholder, including their connections with the bankrupt and with each other, and if the solicitor, forwarder, or proxyholder is an association, a statement that the creditors whose claims have been solicited and the creditors whose claims are to be voted were members or subscribers in good standing and had provable claims on the date of the filing of the petition, or if the solicitor, forwarder, or proxyholder is a committee of creditors, the date and place the committee was organized, a statement that the committee was organized in accordance with clause (B) or (C) of paragraph (b)(1) of this rule, the members of the committee, the amounts of their claims, when the claims were acquired, the amounts paid therefor, and the extent to which the claims of the committee members are secured or entitled to priority;

(3) a statement that no consideration has been paid or promised by the proxyholder for the proxy;

(4) a statement as to whether there is any agreement, and, if so, the particulars thereof, between the proxyholder and any other person for the payment of any consideration in connection with voting the proxy, or for the sharing of compensation with any person, other than a member or regular associate of his law firm, which may be allowed the trustee or any person for services rendered in the case, or for the employment of any person as attorney, accountant, appraiser, auctioneer, or other employee for the estate;

(5) if the proxy was solicited by a person other than the proxyholder, a statement signed and verified by the solicitor that no consideration has been paid or promised by him for the proxy, and a statement signed and verified by him as to whether there is any agreement, and, if so, the particulars thereof, between the solicitor and any other person for the payment of any consideration in connection with voting the proxy, or for the sharing of compensation with any person, other than a member or regular associate of his law firm which may be allowed the trustee or any person for services rendered in the case, or for the employment of any person as attorney, accountant, appraiser, auctioneer, or other employee for the estate;

(6) if the proxy was forwarded to the holder by a person who is neither a solicitor of the proxy nor the owner of the claim, a statement signed and verified by the forwarder that no consideration has been paid or promised by him for the proxy, and a statement signed and verified by him as to whether there is any agreement between the forwarder and any other person for the payment of any consideration in connection with the voting of the proxy, or for the sharing of compensation with any person, other than a member or regular associate of his law firm, which may be allowed the trustee or any person for services rendered in the case, or for the employment of any person as attorney, accountant, appraiser, auctioneer, or other employee for the estate; and

(7) if the solicitor, forwarder, or proxyholder is a committee, a statement signed and verified by each member as to the amount and source of any consideration paid or to be paid to such member in connection with the case other than by way of dividend on his claim.

(e) Enforcement of restrictions on solicitation.—The court on its own initiative or on application or motion of any party in interest may determine whether there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of this rule or any other impropriety in connection with the solicitation or voting of a proxy. After such hearing as may be appropriate, the court may reject any proxy for cause, vacate any order entered in consequence of the voting of any proxy which should have been rejected, or take any other or further appropriate action.

Rule 209. Selection of trustee.

(a) Election at first meeting.—The creditors of a bankrupt entitled to vote under Rules 207 and 208 shall elect a trustee at the first meeting, subject to approval by the court and to the provisions of this rule.

(b) Appointment by the court.—Except as provided in Rule 211, the court shall appoint a trustee if (1) the creditors do not elect a trustee; (2) the trustee elected fails to qualify; (3) a vacancy occurs in the office of trustee; or (4) a trustee is needed in a reopened case. If an elected trustee is disapproved by the court for ineligibility or other good cause, the court may appoint a trustee.

(c) Notice to trustee of his election or appointment; qualification.—The court shall immediately notify the trustee of his election or appointment. The court shall also inform him as to how he may qualify, including the penal sum of his bond if required, and of the time fixed for the filing of a complaint objecting to the bankrupt's discharge, and shall require him forthwith to notify the court of his acceptance or rejection of the office. A trustee shall qualify as provided in Rule 212.

(d) Eligibility.—A trustee shall have no interest adverse to the estate and shall be competent to perform the duties of his office. If an individual, he shall have a residence or office in the state in which the case is pending or in any adjacent state, and, if a corporation, it shall be authorized by its charter or by law to act as trustee and have an office in the state in which the case is pending.

Rule 210. Trustees for estates when joint administration ordered.

(a) Election of single trustee for estates being jointly administered.—If the court orders a joint administration of 2 or more estates pursuant to Rule 117 (b), it may approve election of a single trustee by the creditors of one or more of the bankrupts for the estates being jointly administered.

(b) Right of creditors to elect separate trustee.—Notwithstanding entry of an order for joint administration pursuant to Rule 117 (b) the creditors of any bankrupt may elect a separate trustee for his estate as provided in Rule 209 (a).

(c) Appointment of trustees for estates being jointly administered.—If the creditors do not elect a trustee under subdivision (a) or (b) of this rule, the court may appoint one or more trustees for the estates being jointly administered.

(d) Potential conflicts of interest.—Before approving the election or appointment of one trustee for estates being jointly administered as provided in subdivision (a) or (c) of this rule, the court must be satisfied that the creditors of the different estates will not be prejudiced by conflicts of interest of the trustee.

(e) Trustee for partnership and partners' individual estates.—Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this rule, the trustee of a bankrupt partnership shall also be the trustee of the individual estate of any general partner ordered pursuant to Rule 117 (b) to be administered jointly, unless the court, for cause shown, either (1) permits the creditors of a general partner to elect a separate trustee or (2) appoints a separate trustee for the individual estate.

(f) Separate accounts.—The trustee or trustees of estates being jointly administered shall nevertheless keep separate accounts of the property and distribution of each estate.

Rule 211. Trustee not appointed in certain cases.

If, after examination of the bankrupt, the court determines that there is no property in the estate other than that which can be claimed as exempt and that no other circumstances indicate the need for a trustee, and if the creditors do not elect a trustee, the court may order that no trustee be appointed. At any time thereafter, for cause shown, a trustee may be appointed by the court.

Rule 212. Qualification by trustee and receiver.

(a) Qualifying bond or security.—Except as provided hereinafter, every trustee and every receiver shall, before entering upon the performance of his official duties and within 5 days after his election or appointment, qualify by filing a bond in favor of the United States conditioned on the faithful performance of his official duties or by giving such other security as may be approved by the court.

(b) Blanket bond.—The court may authorize a blanket bond in favor of the United States conditioned on the faithful performance of official duties by a trustee or receiver in more than one case or by more than one trustee or receiver.

(c) Bond excused in certain cases.—The court may excuse the filing of a bond or the giving of other security (1) by a trustee or receiver when there appears to be an insufficient amount of property in the estate to justify the requirement of a bond or security, or (2) by a receiver when he will not be a custodian of any property.

(d) Qualification by filing acceptance.—A trustee or receiver for whom a blanket bond has been filed pursuant to subdivision (b) of this rule or who is excused from filing a bond or giving security pursuant to subdivision (c) hereof shall qualify by filing his acceptance of his election or appointment in lieu of the bond.

(e) Amount of bond and sufficiency of surety.—The court shall determine the amount of the bond and the sufficiency of the surety for each bond filed under this rule.

(f) Filing of bond; proceeding on bond.—Unless otherwise provided by local rule, a bond given under this rule shall be filed with the referee. A proceeding on the bond of a trustee or receiver may be brought by any party in interest in the name of the United States for the use of the person injured by the breach of the condition. No proceeding shall be brought on a trustee's or receiver's bond more than 2 years after his discharge.

(g) Evidence of qualification.—A certified copy of the order approving the bond or other security given by a trustee or receiver under subdivision (a) or of his acceptance filed under subdivision (d) of this rule shall constitute conclusive evidence of his qualification.

Rule 213. Limitation on appointment of receivers and trustees.

No standing receiver or trustee may be appointed. Appointments of receivers and trustees by the court shall be apportioned so that the aggregate compensation of any one appointee shall not be excessive.

Rule 214. Creditors' committee.

The creditors entitled to vote for a trustee may, at the first meeting of creditors or at any special meeting called for that purpose, elect a committee of 3 or more creditors. The committee may consult with the trustee in connection with the administration of the estate, make recommendations to the trustee respecting the performance of his duties, and submit to the court any question affecting the administration of the estate.

Rule 215. Employment of attorneys and accountants.

(a) Conditions of employment of attorneys and accountants.—No attorney or accountant for the trustee or receiver shall be employed except upon order of the court. The order shall be made only upon application of the trustee or receiver, stating the specific facts showing the necessity for such employment, the name of the attorney or accountant, the reasons for his selection, the professional services he is to render, and to the best of the applicant's knowledge all of the attorney's or accountant's connections with the bankrupt, the creditors, or any other party in interest, and their respective attorneys and accountants. If the attorney or accountant represents or holds no interest adverse to the estate in the matters upon which he is to be engaged, and his employment is in the best interest of the estate, the court may authorize his employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, the court may authorize the employment of an attorney or accountant who has been employed by the bankrupt when such employment is in the best interest of the estate. The employment of any attorney or accountant shall be only for the purposes specified in the order, but the court may authorize a general retainer of an attorney when necessity therefor is shown.

(b) Employment of attorney or accountant with adverse interest.—If without disclosure any attorney or accountant employed by the trustee or receiver shall represent or hold, or shall have represented or held, any interest adverse to the estate in any matter upon which he is so employed, the court may deny the allowance of any compensation to such attorney or accountant, or the reimbursement of his expenses, or both, and may also deny any allowance to the trustee or receiver if it shall appear that he failed to make diligent inquiry into the connections of such attorney or accountant.

(c) Employment by a general creditor.—An attorney or accountant shall not be disqualified to act as attorney or accountant for the trustee or the receiver merely because of his employment by a general creditor in the case.

(d) Employment of attorney or accountant on salary.—A trustee or receiver authorized to operate the business and manage the property of the bankrupt may, without specific authorization under subdivision (a) of this rule, continue or engage any attorney or accountant as a salaried employee if such employment is necessary in the operation of the business and management of the property of the bankrupt.

(e) Employment of trustee or receiver as attorney or accountant.—The court may authorize the trustee or receiver to act as an attorney or accountant for the estate if such authorization is in the best interest of the estate.

(f) Services rendered by member or associate of firm of attorneys or accountants.—If, under this rule, a law partnership or corporation is employed as an attorney, or an accounting partnership or corporation is employed as an accountant, or if a named attorney or accountant is employed on behalf of a professional partnership or corporation, any member or regular associate of the firm may act for the attorney or accountant so employed, without further order of the court, and his services may be compensated as services of the attorney or accountant in accordance with Rule 219.

Rule 216. Authorization of trustee to conduct business of bankrupt.

The court may authorize the trustee to conduct the business and manage the property of the bankrupt for such time and on such conditions as may be in the best interest of the estate and consistent with orderly liquidation thereof.

Rule 217. Ancillary proceedings.

(a) Ancillary receivership abolished.—No ancillary receiver may be appointed in a bankruptcy case. Unless it is inconsistent with the order appointing him, a receiver appointed in a bankruptcy case has capacity to represent the bankrupt estate in any court.

(b) Reference of ancillary proceeding.—Any complaint, motion, or application for ancillary relief in a court of bankruptcy shall be referred by the clerk of the court in which it is filed to a referee of that court.

Rule 218. Duty of trustee to keep records, make reports, and furnish information.

A trustee shall: (1) within a reasonable time after entering upon his duties file a complete inventory of the property of the bankrupt unless such an inventory has already been filed or unless the court otherwise directs; (2) keep a record of receipts and the disposition of money and property received; (3) furnish information concerning the estate and its administration when reasonably requested by a party in interest, except as otherwise directed by the court; (4) make a written report to the court of the financial condition of the estate and the progress of its administration within a month after his qualification and every 3 months thereafter, unless the court by local rule or order otherwise directs; and (5) file a final report and account containing a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements. If a final meeting of creditors is ordered, the final report and account of the trustee shall be filed at least 15 days before the meeting.

Rule 219. Compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in a bankruptcy case.

(a) Application for compensation or reimbursement.—A person seeking compensation for services, or reimbursement of necessary expenses, from the estate shall file with the court an application setting forth a detailed statement of (1) the services rendered and expenses incurred, and (2) the amounts requested. An application for compensation shall include a statement by the applicant as to what payments have theretofore been made or promised to him for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the case, the source of the compensation so paid or promised, whether any compensation he has previously received has been shared and whether an agreement or understanding exists between the applicant and any other person for the sharing of compensation received or to be received for services rendered in or in connection with the case, and the particulars of any such sharing of compensation or agreement or understanding therefor, except that the details of any agreement by the applicant for the sharing of his compensation as a member or regular associate of a firm of lawyers or accountants shall not be required. The requirements of this subdivision shall apply to an application for compensation for services rendered by an attorney or accountant even though the application is filed by a creditor or other person on his behalf.

(b) Disclosure of compensation paid or promised to attorney for bankrupt.—Every attorney for a bankrupt, whether or not he applies for compensation, shall file with the court on or before the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, or at such other time as the court may direct, a statement setting forth the compensation paid or promised him for the services rendered or to be rendered in connection with the case, the source of the compensation so paid or promised, and whether the attorney has shared or agreed to share such compensation with any other person. The statement shall include the particulars of any such sharing or agreement to share by the attorney, but the details of any agreement for the sharing of his compensation with a member or regular associate of his law firm shall not be required.

(c) Factors in allowing compensation.

(1) General.—The compensation allowable by the court to a trustee, receiver, marshal, attorney, accountant, or other person entitled to compensation for services rendered in the administration of a bankrupt estate shall be reasonable, and in making allowances the court shall give due consideration to the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered as well as to the conservation of the estate and the interests of creditors.

(2) Trustee, receiver, or marshal.—The compensation allowed by the Act to a trustee, receiver, or marshal shall be in full compensation for the services performed by him as required by the Act and by these rules, but shall not be deemed to cover expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties and allowed upon the settlement of his accounts. Additional compensation may be allowed for legal or other services not required of him by the Act or by these rules, but only if such services were authorized by order of the court before they were rendered.

(3) Attorney or accountant.—Compensation may be allowed an attorney or an accountant only for professional services.

(d) Restriction on sharing of compensation.—Except as herein provided, a person rendering services in a bankruptcy case or in connection with such a case shall not in any form or guise share or agree to share the compensation paid or allowed him from the estate for such services with any other person, nor shall he share or agree to share in the compensation of any other person rendering services in a case under the Act or in connection with such a case. This rule does not prohibit an attorney or accountant from sharing his compensation as trustee, receiver, attorney, or accountant with a member or regular associate of his firm, or from sharing in the compensation received by his firm or by any other member or regular associate thereof, and does not prohibit an attorney for a bankrupt or for a petitioning creditor from sharing his compensation for services rendered with any other attorney contributing thereto. If a person violates this subdivision, the court may deny him compensation, may hold invalid any transaction subject to examination under Rule 220 to which he is a party, or may enter such other order as may be appropriate.

Rule 220. Examination of bankrupt's transactions with his attorney.

(a) Payment or transfer to attorney in contemplation of bankruptcy.—On motion by any party in interest or on the court's own initiative, the court may examine any payment of money or any transfer of property by the bankrupt, made directly or indirectly and in contemplation of the filing of a petition by or against him, to an attorney for services rendered or to be rendered.

(b) Payment or transfer to attorney, or agreement therefor, after bankruptcy.—On motion by the bankrupt or on the court's own initiative, the court may examine any payment of money or any transfer of property, or any agreement therefor, by the bankrupt to an attorney after bankruptcy, whether the payment or transfer is made or is to be made directly or indirectly, if the payment, transfer, or agreement therefor is for services in any way related to the bankruptcy.

(c) Invalidation of unreasonable payment, transfer, or obligation.—Any payment, transfer, or obligation examined under subdivision (a) or (b) of this rule shall be held valid only to the extent of a reasonable amount as determined by the court. The amount of any excess found to have been paid or transferred under subdivision (a) or (b) may be recovered for the benefit of the estate or the bankrupt, as their interests may appear, and any obligation found to be excessive may be cancelled to the extent of the excess.

Rule 221. Removal of trustee or receiver; substitution of successor.

(a) Removal for cause.—On application of any party in interest or on the court's own initiative and after hearing on notice, the court may remove a trustee or receiver for cause and appoint a successor.

(b) Substitution of successor.—When a trustee or receiver dies, resigns, is removed, or otherwise ceases to hold office during the pendency of a bankruptcy case, his successor is automatically substituted as a party in any pending action, proceeding, or matter without abatement.

PART III. CLAIMS AND DISTRIBUTION TO CREDITORS

Rule 301. Proof of claim.

(a) Form and content; who may execute.—A proof of claim shall consist of a statement in writing setting forth a creditor's claim and, except as provided in Rules 303 and 304, shall be executed by the creditor or by his authorized agent. A proof of claim for wages, salary, or commissions shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 16 or No. 16A; any other proof of claim shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 15.

(b) Evidentiary effect.—A proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with these rules shall constitute prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim.

Rule 302. Filing proof of claim.

(a) Manner of filing.—In order for his claim to be allowed, every creditor, including the United States, any state, or any subdivision thereof, must file a proof of claim in accordance with this rule, except as provided in Rules 303 and 304.

(b) Place of filing.—A proof of claim shall be filed in the place prescribed by Rule 509.

(c) Claim founded on a writing.—When a claim, or an interest in property of the bankrupt securing the claim, is founded on a writing, the original or a duplicate shall be filed with the proof of claim unless the writing has been lost or destroyed. If lost or destroyed, a statement of the circumstances of the loss or destruction shall be filed with the claim. If a security interest in property of the bankrupt is claimed, the proof of claim shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence that the security interest has been perfected.

(d) Transferred claim.

(1) Unconditional transfer before proof filed.—If a claim has been unconditionally transferred before proof of the claim has been filed, the proof of such claim may be filed only by the transferee. If such claim has been transferred after the filing of the petition, it shall be supported by (A) a statement of the transferor acknowledging the transfer and stating the consideration therefor or (B) a statement of the transferee why it is impossible to obtain such a statement from the transferor.

(2) Unconditional transfer after proof filed.—If a claim has been unconditionally transferred after proof thereof has been filed, proof of the terms of the transfer shall be filed, and the court shall immediately notify the original claimant by mail of the filing of such proof of transfer and that objection thereto, if any, must be made within 10 days of the mailing of the notice or within such further time as the court may allow. If the court finds, after hearing if necessary, that the claim has been unconditionally transferred, it shall make an order substituting the transferee for the original claimant. If it does not so find, the court shall make such order as may be appropriate.

(3) Transfer of claim for security before proof filed.—If a claim has been transferred for security before proof of the claim has been filed, the transferor or transferee or both may file a proof of claim for the full amount. The proof shall be supported by a statement setting forth the terms of the transfer and, if the claim was so transferred after the filing of the petition, by (A) a statement of the transferor acknowledging the transfer and stating the consideration therefor, or (B) a statement of the transferee why it is impossible to obtain such a statement from the transferor. If either the transferor or the transferee files a proof of claim, the court shall immediately notify the other by mail that he may join in the claim so filed. If both transferor and transferee file proofs of the same claim, the proofs shall be consolidated. After hearing if necessary, the court shall make such orders respecting allowance and voting of the claim, payment of dividends thereon, and participation in the administration of the estate as may be appropriate.

(4) Transfer of claim for security after proof filed.—If a claim has been transferred for security after proof thereof has been filed, proof of the terms of the transfer shall be filed, and the court shall immediately notify the original claimant by mail of the filing of such proof of transfer and that objection thereto, if any, must be made within 10 days of the mailing of the notice or within such further time as the court may allow. After hearing if necessary, the court shall make such orders respecting allowance and voting of the claim, payment of dividends thereon, and participation in the administration of the estate as may be appropriate.

(e) Time for filing.—A claim must be filed within 6 months after the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, except as follows:

(1) On application before the expiration of such period and for cause shown, the court may grant a reasonable, fixed extension of time for the filing of a claim by the United States, a state, or a subdivision thereof.

(2) In the interest of justice the court may grant an infant or incompetent person without a guardian up to an additional 6 months for filing a claim.

(3) A claim which arises in favor of a person or becomes allowable because of a judgment for the recovery of money or property from such person or because of a judgment denying or avoiding a person's interest in property may be filed within 30 days after such judgment becomes final, but if the judgment imposes a liability which is not satisfied, or a duty which is not performed, within such period or such further time as the court may permit, the claim shall not be allowed.

(4) If notice of no dividend was given to creditors pursuant to Rule 203 (b), and subsequently the payment of a dividend appears possible, the court shall notify the creditors of that fact and shall grant them a reasonable, fixed time for filing their claims of not less than 60 days after the mailing of the notice or 6 months after the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, whichever is the later.

(5) If all claims allowed have been paid in full, the court may grant a reasonable, fixed extension of time for the filing of claims not filed within the time hereinabove prescribed against any remaining surplus.

Rule 303. Filing of tax and wage claims by bankrupt.

If a creditor having a provable claim for taxes or wages fails to file his claim on or before the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, the bankrupt may execute and file a proof of such claim in the name of the creditor. Such claim shall be treated as a filed claim only for purposes of allowance and distribution. The court shall forthwith mail notice of such filing to the creditor and to the trustee. The creditor may nonetheless file a proof of claim pursuant to Rule 302 which proof when filed shall supersede the proof filed by the bankrupt.

Rule 304. Claim by codebtor.

A person who is or may be liable with the bankrupt, or who has secured a creditor of the bankrupt, may, if the creditor fails to file his claim on or before the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, file a proof of claim pursuant to Rule 302 in the name of the creditor, if known, or, if unknown, in his own name. No distribution shall be made on the claim except on satisfactory proof that the original debt will be diminished by the amount of the distribution. The creditor may nonetheless file a proof of claim pursuant to Rule 302, and such proof of claim shall supersede the proof of claim filed pursuant to the first sentence of this rule.

Rule 305. Withdrawal of claim.

A creditor may withdraw a claim as of right by filing a notice of withdrawal, except as provided in this rule. If, after a creditor has filed a claim, an objection is filed thereto or a complaint is filed against him in an adversary proceeding or the creditor participates significantly in the case or receives a dividend, he may not withdraw the claim save on application or motion, with notice to the trustee or receiver, and on order of the court containing such terms and conditions as the court deems proper.

Rule 306. Objections to and allowance of claims for purpose of distribution; valuation of security.

(a) Trustee's duty to examine and object to claims.—The trustee shall examine proofs of claim and object to the allowance of improper claims, unless no purpose would be served thereby.

(b) Allowance when no objection made.—Subject to the provisions of subdivision (d) of this rule, a claim filed in accordance with Rule 302, 303, or 304 shall be deemed allowed for the purpose of distribution unless objection is made by a party in interest.

(c) Objection to allowance.—An objection to the allowance of a claim for the purpose of distribution shall be in writing. A copy of the objection and notice of a hearing thereon shall be mailed or delivered to the claimant. If an objection to a claim is joined with a demand for relief of the kind specified in Rule 701, the proceeding thereby becomes an adversary proceeding.

(d) Secured claims.—If a secured creditor files a proof of claim, the value of the security interest held by him as collateral for his claim shall be determined by the court, and the claim shall be allowed only to the extent it is enforceable for any excess of the claim over such value.

Rule 307. Reconsideration of claims.

A party in interest may move for reconsideration of an order allowing or disallowing a claim against the estate. If the motion is granted, the court may after hearing on notice make such further order as may be appropriate.

Rule 308. Declaration and payment of dividends.

Dividends to creditors shall be paid as promptly as practicable in such amounts and at such times as the court may order. Dividend checks shall be made payable and mailed to each creditor whose claim has been allowed, unless a power of attorney authorizing another person to receive dividends has been executed and filed in accordance with Rule 910. In that event, unless a local rule or court order provides otherwise, dividend checks shall be made payable to the creditor and to such other person and shall be mailed to such other person.

Rule 309. Small dividends.

The court may by local rule or order direct that no dividend for less than $1 shall be distributed by the trustee to any creditor. Any such dividend shall be treated in the same manner as unclaimed funds as provided in Rule 310.

Rule 310. Unclaimed funds.

Sixty days after the distribution of the final dividend, the trustee shall stop payment of all checks then unpaid and file with the clerk of the district court a list of the names and addresses, so far as known, of the persons entitled to such payments and the amounts thereof. The unclaimed funds shall thereupon be deposited in the registry of the United States district court and shall be withdrawn as provided in Title 28, U. S. C., § 2042.

PART. IV. THE BANKRUPT: DUTIES AND BENEFITS

Rule 401. Petition as automatic stay of certain actions on unsecured debts.

(a) Stay of actions.—The filing of a petition shall operate as a stay of the commencement or continuation of any action against the bankrupt, or the enforcement of any judgment against him, if the action or judgment is founded on an unsecured provable debt other than one not dischargeable under clause (1), (5), (6), or (7) of § 17a of the Act.

(b) Duration of stay.—Except as it may be deemed annulled under subdivision (c) or may be terminated, annulled, or modified by the bankruptcy court under subdivision (d) or (e) of this rule, the stay shall continue until the bankruptcy case is dismissed or the bankrupt is denied a discharge or waives or otherwise loses his right thereto.

(c) Annulment of stay.—At the expiration of 30 days after the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, the stay provided by this rule shall be deemed annulled as against any creditor whose debt has not been duly scheduled and who has not filed his claim by that time.

(d) Relief from stay.—On the filing of a complaint by a creditor seeking relief from a stay provided by this rule, the bankruptcy court shall set the trial for the earliest possible date, and it shall take precedence over all matters except older matters of the same character. The court may, for cause shown, terminate, annul, modify, or condition such stay.

(e) Availability of other relief.—Nothing in this rule precludes the issuance of, or relief from, any stay, restraining order, or injunction when otherwise authorized.

Rule 402. Duties of bankrupt.

In addition to performing other duties prescribed by these rules, the bankrupt shall (1) attend and submit to an examination at the first meeting of creditors and at such other times as ordered by the court; (2) attend at the hearing on a complaint objecting to his discharge and, if called as a witness, testify with respect to the issues raised; (3) if he has not yet filed a schedule of property pursuant to Rule 108, immediately inform the receiver or, if no receiver is appointed, the trustee, in writing, as to the location of real property in which he has an interest and the name and address of every person holding money or property subject to his withdrawal or order; (4) if the court directs, file a statement of the executory contracts, including unexpired leases, to which he is a party; (5) cooperate with the receiver, if any, and the trustee in the preparation of an inventory, the examination of proofs of claim, and the administration of the estate; and (6) comply with all orders of the court.

Rule 403. Exemptions.

(a) Claim of exemptions.—A bankrupt shall claim his exemptions in the schedule of his property required to be filed by Rule 108.

(b) Trustee's report.—The trustee shall examine the bankrupt's claim for exemptions, set apart such as are lawfully claimed and allowable, and report to the court the items set apart, the amount or estimated value of each, and the exemptions claimed that are not allowable. The report shall be filed with the court no later than 15 days after the trustee qualifies. If the trustee reports that any exemption claimed is not allowable, he shall forthwith mail or deliver copies of the report to the bankrupt and his attorney.

(c) Objections to report.—Any creditor or the bankrupt may file objections to the report within 15 days after its filing, unless further time is granted by the court within such 15-day period. Copies of the objections so filed shall be delivered or mailed to the trustee and, if the objections are by a creditor, to the bankrupt and his attorney. After hearing upon notice the court shall determine the issues presented by the objections. The burden of proof shall be on the objector.

(d) Procedure if no trustee qualified.—If no trustee has qualified, the bankruptcy judge shall file the report prescribed by subdivision (b) of this rule within 15 days after the first date set for the first meeting of creditors. If the bankrupt files objections to the report, the court shall appoint a trustee or receiver, who shall represent the estate in the hearing on the objections.

(e) Approval of report if no objections.—If no objections are filed within the time provided by this rule, the report shall be deemed approved by the court. On request, the court may, at any time and without reopening the case, enter an order approving the report.

(f) Claim of exemption by person other than bankrupt.—If the bankrupt fails to claim the exemptions to which he is entitled, or if he dies before his exemptions have been set apart to him, his spouse, dependent children, or any other persons who are entitled to claim the exemptions allowable to the bankrupt may, within such time as the court may order, file a claim for his exemptions or object to the report.

Rule 404. Grant or denial of discharge.

(a) Time for filing complaint objecting to discharge.—The court shall make an order fixing a time for the filing of a complaint objecting to the bankrupt's discharge under § 14c of the Act. The time shall be not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days after the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, except that if notice of no dividend is given pursuant to Rule 203 (b), the court may fix such time as early as the first date set for the first meeting of creditors.

(b) Notice.—The court shall give at least 30 days' notice of the time fixed for filing a complaint objecting to the bankrupt's discharge under § 14c of the Act except that only 10 days' notice is required if notice of no dividend is given under Rule 203 (b). Such notice shall be given to all creditors in the manner provided in Rule 203, and to the trustee and his attorney, if any, to their respective addresses as filed with the court.

(c) Extension of time.—The court may for cause, on its own initiative or on application of any party in interest, extend the time for filing a complaint objecting to discharge.

(d) Grant of discharge.—On expiration of the time fixed for filing a complaint objecting to discharge, the court shall forthwith grant the discharge unless (1) a complaint objecting to the discharge has been filed, (2) the bankrupt has filed a waiver under Rule 405, (3) it appears that the bankrupt has failed to attend and submit himself to examination at the first meeting of creditors or at any meeting specially called for his examination, or (4) the prescribed filing fees have not been paid in full.

(e) Applicability of rules in Part VII.—A proceeding commenced by a complaint objecting to discharge is governed by the rules in Part VII.

(f) Order of discharge.—An order of discharge shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 24.

(g) Registration in other districts.—An order of discharge that has become final may be registered in any other district by filing in the office of the clerk of the district court of that district a certified copy of the order and when so registered shall have the same effect as an order of the court of the district where registered and may be enforced in like manner.

(h) Notice of discharge.—Within 45 days after an order of discharge becomes final, the court shall mail a copy of such order to the persons specified in subdivision (b) of this rule.

Rule 405. Waiver of discharge.

Any bankrupt may waive his right to discharge by a writing filed with the court.

Rule 406. Implied waiver of discharge.

If the bankrupt fails to attend and submit himself to examination at the first meeting of creditors, at any meeting specially called for his examination, or at the trial on a complaint objecting to his discharge, the court on motion shall, or on its own initiative may, set a time for hearing to determine whether the bankrupt shall be deemed to have waived his right to a discharge. Notice of the hearing shall be given the bankrupt and such other parties in interest as the court may designate.

Rule 407. Burden of proof in objecting to discharge.

At the trial on a complaint objecting to a discharge, the plaintiff has the burden of proving the facts essential to his objection.

Rule 408. Notice of nondischarge.

If a waiver of discharge is filed, or if an order is entered denying or revoking a discharge or deeming the right thereto to have been waived, the court shall, within 30 days after the filing of the waiver or the entry of the order, give notice thereof to all creditors in the manner provided in Rule 203.

Rule 409. Determination of dischargeability of a debt; judgment on nondischargeable debt; jury trial.

(a) Proceeding to determine dischargeability.

(1) Persons entitled to file complaint; time for filing in ordinary case.—A bankrupt or any creditor may file a complaint with the court to obtain a determination of the dischargeability of any debt. Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subdivision, the complaint may be filed at any time, and a case may be reopened without the payment of an additional filing fee for the purpose of filing a complaint under this rule.

(2) Time for filing complaint under § 17c (2) of the act; notice of time fixed.—The court shall make an order fixing a time for the filing of a complaint to determine the dischargeability of any debt pursuant to § 17c (2) of the Act. The time shall be not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days after the first date set for the first meeting of creditors, except that if notice of no dividend is given pursuant to Rule 203 (b), the court may fix such time as early as the first date set for the first meeting of creditors. The court shall give creditors at least 30 days' notice of the time so fixed except that only 10 days' notice is required if notice of no dividend is given under Rule 203 (b). Such notice shall be given to all creditors in the manner provided in Rule 203. The court may for cause, on its own initiative or on application of any party in interest, extend the time fixed under this paragraph.

(b) Claim and demand for judgment on nondischargeable debt.—If his claim has not yet been reduced to judgment, the creditor shall include in a complaint or answer filed under subdivision (a) of this rule a statement of his claim and demand for judgment on the debt as provided in § 17c (3) of the Act.

(c) Jury trial.—Either party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury by serving on the other party and filing a demand therefor in writing at any time after the filing of a complaint under this rule and not later than 10 days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be indorsed on a pleading of the party. In his demand the party shall specify the issues which he wishes to be so tried. If he has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues so triable of right, any other party, within 10 days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other issues so triable of right in the proceeding.

The trial of an issue for which a jury trial has been demanded shall be placed on the jury calendar of the district court when it is ready for trial unless (1) the bankruptcy judge determines after hearing on notice that the issue is not triable of right by a jury or (2) a local rule of court provides otherwise. Issues not triable of right by a jury may be tried by the bankruptcy judge, and motions and applications in the proceeding other than those necessarily incidental to and made during the course of the jury trial may be determined by the bankruptcy judge. The failure of a party to serve and file a demand in accordance with this rule constitutes a waiver by him of trial by jury. Rules 47-51 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a jury trial under this subdivision.

(d) Applicability of rules in Part VII.—A proceeding commenced by a complaint filed under this rule is governed by the rules in Part VII.

PART V. COURTS OF BANKRUPTCY; OFFICERS AND PERSONNEL; THEIR DUTIES

Rule 501. Courts of bankruptcy and referees' offices.

(a) Courts of bankruptcy always open.—The court of bankruptcy shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing any pleading or other proper paper, of issuing and returning mesne and final process, and of making and directing all interlocutory motions, orders, and rules.

(b) Meetings and hearings; orders in chambers.—All meetings of creditors and hearings shall be conducted in open court and so far as convenient in a regular court room. All other acts or proceedings may be done or conducted by a bankruptcy judge in chambers and at any place either within or without the district; but no hearing, other than one ex parte, shall be conducted outside the district without the consent of all parties affected thereby.

(c) Referee's office.—The referee's principal office with a clerical assistant in attendance shall be open during business hours on all days except Saturdays, Sundays, and the legal holidays as listed in Rule 6 (a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, but a local rule or order may provide that the referee's office shall be open for specified hours on Saturdays or particular legal holidays other than those listed in Rule 77 (c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Rule 502. Referees' bonds not required.

A referee shall not be required to file a bond in order to qualify.

Rule 503. Restrictions on referees.

A referee shall not engage in any transaction, directly or indirectly, with the estate and shall not act as trustee or receiver in any case under the Act. An active full-time referee shall not engage in the practice of law, and an active part-time referee shall not act as attorney for any party in any case under the Act.

Rule 504. Books, records, and reports of referees.

(a) Records to be kept; reports to be made.—The referee shall keep a docket for each case referred to him and shall keep a list of claims filed against the estate in each case in which it appears there will be a distribution to unsecured creditors after payment of the costs and expenses of administration. He shall keep such other books and records and make such reports as may be prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with the approval of the Judicial Conference of the United States. All papers filed with the referee, all process issued and returns made thereon, all appearances, orders, verdicts, and judgments shall be entered chronologically in the referee's docket. These entries shall be brief but shall show the nature of each paper filed or writ issued and the substance of each order or judgment of the court and of the returns showing execution of process.

(b) Disposition of papers of closed cases.—When a case is closed, the referee shall transmit all papers pertaining thereto to the clerk of the district court.

Rule 505. Nepotism, influence, and interest.

(a) Appointment or employment of relative of or person connected with judge or referee.—No person may be appointed as trustee, receiver, marshal, or appraiser or employed as accountant or auctioneer in a bankruptcy case (1) if he is a relative of any judge or referee of the court making the appointment or authorizing the employment, or (2) if he is so connected with any judge or referee of the court making the appointment or authorizing the employment as to render such appointment or employment improper.

(b) Disqualification of judge or referee from acting in case: relationship to party or attorney; interest in case; appearance of influence.—Any judge or referee shall disqualify himself in any bankruptcy case (1) in which he is a relative of any party or his attorney, has a substantial, direct or indirect interest, has been of counsel, or is or has been a material witness, or (2) if his acting therein would justify the impression that any person can improperly influence him or unduly enjoy his favor, or that he is affected by the kinship, rank, position, or influence of any party or other person.

(c) Disqualification of judge or referee from authorizing employment of attorney.—Any judge or referee shall disqualify himself from authorizing the employment and from determining the compensation of (1) a relative as an attorney in a bankruptcy case, or (2) an attorney in a bankruptcy case if the judge or referee is so connected with the attorney as to render it improper for him to authorize such employment.

Rule 506. Delegation of ministerial functions.

The referee may delegate any ministerial function to an assistant employed in his office or, with the approval of the chief judge of the district court, to any person employed in the office of the clerk of the district court.

Rule 507. Books and records kept by clerks.

(a) Bankruptcy docket.—The clerk of the district court shall keep a book known as the “bankruptcy docket” of such form and style as may be prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with the approval of the Judicial Conference of the United States and shall enter therein each bankruptcy case.

(b) Transmission of papers.—The clerk shall transmit to the referee all papers which pertain to every case referred to him, unless the judge otherwise directs.

(c) Index of cases; certificate of search.—The clerk shall keep an index of all cases under the Act filed in or transferred to the court and of all discharges granted by the court. On request, the clerk shall make a search of the index and papers in his custody and issue a certificate as to whether a case has been filed in or transferred to the court or a discharge entered in its records.

(d) Public access.—The docket and index kept by the clerk under this rule shall be open to examination by any person without charge.

(e) Other books and records of the clerk.—The clerk shall also keep such other books and records as may be required from time to time by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with the approval of the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Rule 508. Public access to records and papers in bankruptcy cases.

Subject to the provisions of Rule 918, all papers filed in a bankruptcy case, the referee’s docket, and the list of claims, if any, are public records and shall be open to examination by any person at reasonable times without charge.

Rule 509. Filing of papers.

(a) Place of filing.—A petition commencing a bankruptcy case shall be filed with the clerk of the district court. After reference, all papers, including a petition filed in a pending case and proofs of claim, shall be filed with the referee unless otherwise directed by local rule or by order of the judge.

(b) Notation of time of filing.—The clerk of the district court shall note on the petition the date and hour of its filing, and the clerk or the referee shall note the date of its filing on each paper thereafter filed with him.

(c) Error in filing.—A paper intended to be filed but erroneously delivered to the trustee or receiver, or the attorney for either of them, or to the district judge, referee, or clerk of the district court, shall, after the date of its receipt has been noted thereon, be transmitted forthwith to the proper person. In the interest of justice, the court may order that the paper shall be deemed filed as of the date of its original delivery.

Rule 510. Issuance and certification of copies of papers.

On request, the referee or the clerk of the district court shall issue a certified copy of the record of any proceeding in a bankruptcy case or of any paper filed with the court.

Rule 511. Recording and reporting of proceedings.

(a) Record of proceedings.—Whenever practicable, the court shall require a record to be made of all proceedings in bankruptcy cases. The record may be taken by sound recording or by a reporter employed on authorization of the court to take a verbatim record by shorthand or other means. The expense of making the record shall be a charge against the estate unless the court assesses the cost or a part thereof against a person who asserts a vexatious or frivolous claim or defense. The reporter or operator of a recording device shall attach his certificate to the original shorthand notes or other original records taken under this rule and promptly file them with the court for retention for at least 6 months and as long thereafter as the court directs.

(b) Transcripts of proceedings.—Upon the request of any person, including the United States, who has agreed to pay the fee therefor, or of the bankruptcy judge, the reporter or a typist shall promptly transcribe the original records of the requested parts of a proceeding and deliver the transcript, certified by him, to the person making the request. A certified copy of any transcript so made shall be promptly filed with the court by the person making the transcript. The fees for transcripts shall be charged at rates prescribed by the court but in no event shall a separate fee be charged for the copy filed with the court pursuant to the preceding sentence. The cost of transcription shall be a charge against the estate only when approved by the court.

(c) Admissibility of record in evidence.—When properly certified, a sound recording or a transcript of a proceeding shall be admissible evidence to establish the record thereof and shall be deemed prima facie a correct statement of the testimony taken and the proceedings had.

Rule 512. Designated depositories.

(a) Designation.—The referees shall designate by order banking institutions as depositories for the money of estates. Each depository so designated shall give security in accordance with subdivision (b) of this rule for the prompt repayment of deposits made therein. The referees may from time to time change the number of depositories, the designations, or the amount of security required. Except as provided in the last sentence of subdivision (b), the authority of referees under this rule shall be exercised by a majority vote.

(b) Security required.—Except as provided herein-after, the referees shall require from each designated depository a bond secured by the undertaking of an authorized corporate surety approved by them, or by the deposit of securities designated in Title 6, U. S. C., § 15. Securities accepted for deposit in lieu of a surety upon a depository bond shall be deposited by the depository bank in the custody of a Federal Reserve bank or branch thereof designated by the referees and shall be subject to the order of the referees. No bond or other security shall be required for any deposits fully insured under Title 12, U. S. C., § 1821, and any referee may designate a banking institution for the purpose of receiving deposits so insured.

(c) Prohibition of deposits when adequacy of security doubtful.—No trustee or receiver or other person shall deposit in any depository money received or held by him as a fiduciary under the Act if he has reasonable cause to believe that the bond or the security therefor is or may be inadequate in view of existing and expected deposits.

(d) Condition of bond; place of filing; proceeding on bond.—The condition of a bond given under this rule shall be that the designated banking institution will well and truly account for all money deposited with it as depository and for all interest payable on savings and time deposits when duly authorized, will pay out such money and interest only in accordance with the Act, these rules, and rules and orders of the court, and will otherwise faithfully perform all its duties as depository. A bond given under this rule shall be filed with the court and may be proceeded upon in the name of the United States for the use of any person injured by a breach of the condition.

(e) New bond: When required.—The referees shall require a depository to give a new bond whenever the prior bond, together with securities deposited pursuant to subdivision (b), does not appear to constitute adequate security in view of existing and expected deposits.

(f) Revocation of designation.—If any depository fails, within the time fixed, to give a bond under this rule or to deposit securities adequate for existing and expected deposits, the referees shall order the depository immediately to pay over all money on deposit with it, with all interest payable thereon, and shall revoke its designation.

(g) Relief from liability on bond.—A surety on the bond of a depository may, by an application setting forth the grounds therefor, request to be relieved from liability with respect to any subsequent default of the depository. If, after hearing upon notice to the depository, other sureties, trustees, and other representatives of estates having money in the depository, the referees determine that the application can be granted without injury to any party in interest, the applicant shall be relieved and a new bond or other appropriate security shall be required.

(h) Reports required of designated depositories.—The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with the approval of the Judicial Conference of the United States shall prescribe by regulation the reports to be made by designated depositories.

Rule 513. Special masters.

If a reference is made in a bankruptcy case by a judge to a special master, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to masters apply.

Rule 514. Closing cases.

Whenever it appears that an estate has been administered and the court has passed upon the final account and discharged the trustee, the case shall be closed.

Rule 515. Reopening cases.

A case may be reopened on application by the bankrupt or other person to administer assets, to accord relief to the bankrupt, or for other good cause. The application shall be filed with the clerk of the district court having custody of the papers in the case. The case shall be referred forthwith for action on the application and for further proceedings therein.

PART VI. COLLECTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE ESTATE

Rule 601. Petition as automatic stay against lien enforcement.

(a) Stay against lien enforcement.—The filing of a petition shall operate as a stay of any act or the commencement or continuation of any court proceeding to enforce (1) a lien against property in the custody of the bankruptcy court, or (2) a lien against the property of the bankrupt obtained within 4 months before bankruptcy by attachment, judgment, levy, or other legal or equitable process or proceedings.

(b) Duration of stay.—Except as it may be terminated, annulled, or modified by the bankruptcy court under subdivision (c), (d), or (e) of this rule, the stay shall continue until the bankruptcy case is dismissed or closed, or until the property subject to the lien is, with the approval of the court, set apart as exempt, abandoned, or transferred.

(c) Relief from stay.—On the filing of a complaint seeking relief from a stay provided by this rule, the bankruptcy court shall, subject to the provisions of subdivision (d) of this rule, set the trial for the earliest possible date, and it shall take precedence over all matters except older matters of the same character. The court may, for cause shown, terminate, annul, modify, or condition such stay. A party seeking continuation of a stay against lien enforcement shall show that he is entitled thereto.

(d) Ex parte relief from stay.—On the filing of a complaint seeking relief from a stay provided by this rule, relief may be granted without written or oral notice to the adverse party if (1) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by a verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the plaintiff before the adverse party or his attorney can be heard in opposition, and (2) the plaintiff's attorney certifies to the court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting his claim that notice should not be required. The party obtaining relief under this subdivision shall give written or oral notice thereof as soon as possible to the trustee or receiver or, if none has qualified, to the petitioner or petitioners and, in any event, shall forthwith mail to such person or persons a copy of the order granting relief. On 2 days' notice to the party who obtained relief from a stay provided by this rule without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its reinstatement, and in that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

(e) Availability of other relief.—Nothing in this rule precludes the issuance of, or relief from, any stay, restraining order, or injunction when otherwise authorized.

Rule 602. Duty of trustee or receiver to give notice of bankruptcy.

(a) Real property.—As soon as possible after his qualification a receiver shall record a certified copy of the petition without schedules or of the order of adjudication, if any, in the office where transfers of real property are recorded in every county where the bankrupt has an interest in real property not exempt from execution. If a certified copy of the petition or order of adjudication has not previously been recorded in an office where recordation is required by the preceding sentence, the trustee shall as soon as possible after his qualification record in every such office a certified copy of the petition without schedules or of the order of adjudication, if any, or of the order approving his bond. The recording of a copy pursuant to this subdivision is not necessary, however, in the county in which is kept the record of the original proceedings in the case or in any office where such a copy has previously been recorded.

(b) Personal property.—As soon as possible after his qualification a receiver or, if a receiver has not done so, the trustee shall give notice of the bankruptcy to every person known to be holding money or property subject to withdrawal or order of the bankrupt including every bank, building and loan association, public utility company, and landlord with whom the bankrupt has a deposit, and to every insurance company which has issued a policy having a cash surrender value payable to the bankrupt. No notice need be given, however, to any of the fore-named persons who has knowledge or has previously been notified of the bankruptcy, and no notice need be given with respect to property exempt from execution.

Rule 603. Burden of proof as to validity of post-bankruptcy transfer.

Any person asserting the validity of a transfer under § 70d of the Act shall have the burden of proof.

Rule 604. Accounting by prior custodian of property of the estate.

(a) Accounting required.—Any receiver or trustee appointed in proceedings not under the Act, assignee for the benefit of creditors, or agent, required by the Act to deliver property in his possession or control to the trustee or receiver in bankruptcy, shall promptly file a written report and account with the bankruptcy court with respect to the property of the estate and his administration thereof.

(b) Examination of administration.—On the filing of the report and account required by subdivision (a) of this rule and after an examination has been made into the superseded administration, the court shall determine the propriety of such administration, including the reasonableness of all disbursements.

Rule 605. Money of the estate: Collection, deposit, and disbursement.

(a) Collection of estate; conversion to money.—A trustee shall collect the property of the estate and, with the approval of the court, convert it to money.

(b) Deposits; interest.—The trustee shall deposit all money received by him in a designated depository, either in a checking account or, if authorized by the court, in an interest-bearing account or deposit.

(c) Withdrawals and disbursements.—The trustee shall withdraw and disburse money of the estate only by check or other method approved by the court.

Rule 606. Appraisal and sale of property; compensation and eligibility of appraisers and auctioneers.

(a) Appraiser: Appointment and duties.—The court shall appoint one or more competent and disinterested appraisers, unless it determines that such appointment is unnecessary. Unless the court directs otherwise, the appraiser or appraisers shall appraise all the property of the estate and shall prepare and file a report of the appraisal with the court.

(b) Conduct of sale.

(1) Court approval.—The property of the estate shall be sold subject to the approval of the court unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) Public or private sale.—All sales shall be by public auction, unless otherwise ordered by the court on application to the court and for good cause shown. Unless it is impracticable, there shall be filed with the court on completion of a sale an itemized statement of the property sold, the name of each purchaser, and the price received for each item or lot or for the property as a whole if sold in bulk. If the property is sold by an auctioneer, he shall file the statement and furnish a copy to the trustee or receiver; otherwise the trustee or receiver shall file the statement.

(3) Sale free of lien or other interest.—A proceeding to sell property free of a lien, or of any other interest for which the holder can be compelled to take a money satisfaction, is governed by the rules in Part VII.

(4) Execution of instruments.—After a sale in accordance with this subdivision the trustee or receiver, as the case may be, shall execute such instruments as may be necessary or ordered by the court to effectuate the transfer to the purchaser.

(c) Compensation and eligibility of auctioneers and appraisers.—No auctioneer shall be employed or appraiser appointed except upon an order of the court fixing the amount or rate of compensation. No officer or employee of the Judicial Branch of the United States or the United States Department of Justice shall be eligible to act as an auctioneer or appraiser. No residence or licensing requirement shall apply to an auctioneer employed or appraiser appointed under this rule.

Rule 607. Assumption, rejection, and assignment of executory contracts.

Within 30 days after the qualification of the trustee, unless the court for cause shown extends or reduces the time, the trustee shall file a statement showing any executory contracts of the bankrupt, including unexpired leases, which the trustee has assumed. Whenever practicable, the trustee shall obtain approval of the court before he assumes a contract. Any such contract not assumed within 60 days after the qualification of the trustee, or within such further or reduced time as the court may allow within such 60-day period, shall be deemed to be rejected. If a trustee does not qualify, any such contract shall be deemed to be rejected at the expiration of 60 days after the date of an order directing that a trustee be not appointed, or at such earlier or later time as the court may fix within such 60-day period. On application by the trustee for authority to assign any contract he has assumed pursuant to this rule, the court shall determine the matter after hearing on notice to the other party to the contract.

Rule 608. Abandonment of property.

The court may, on application or on its own initiative and after hearing on such notice as it may direct, approve the abandonment of any property and, without reopening the case, may direct the abandonment of any property of inconsequential value discovered after a case is closed. If a case is closed without administration of property of the estate that has been scheduled, the property shall be deemed to have been abandoned with the approval of the court, and on request the court may, without reopening the case, enter an order approving the abandonment.

Rule 609. Redemption of property from lien or sale.

On application by the trustee and after hearing on such notice as the court may direct, the court may authorize the redemption of property from a lien or from a sale to enforce a lien in accordance with applicable law.

Rule 610. Prosecution and defense of proceedings by trustee or receiver.

The trustee or receiver may, with or without court approval, prosecute or enter his appearance and defend any pending action or proceeding by or against the bankrupt, or commence and prosecute any action or proceeding in behalf of the estate, before any tribunal.

Rule 611. Preservation of voidable transfer.

Whenever any transfer is voidable by the trustee, the court may determine, in an adversary proceeding in which are joined persons claiming interests or rights in the property subject to the transfer, whether the transfer shall be avoided only or shall be preserved for the benefit of the estate.

Rule 612. Proceeding to avoid indemnifying lien or transfer to surety.

If a lien voidable under § 67a of the Act has been dissolved by the furnishing of a bond or other obligation and the surety thereon has been indemnified by the transfer of, or the creation of a lien upon, nonexempt property of the bankrupt, the surety shall be joined as a defendant in any proceeding to avoid the indemnifying transfer or lien. Such proceeding is governed by the rules in Part VII. If an order is entered for the recovery of indemnifying property in kind or for the avoidance of an indemnifying lien, the court on motion by any party in interest, shall ascertain the value of such property or lien; if such value is less than the amount for which such property or lien is indemnity, the surety may elect to retain the property or lien on payment of the value so ascertained to the trustee or debtor, as the case may be, within such time as the court shall fix.

PART VII. ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule 701. Scope of rules of Part VII.

The rules of this Part VII govern any proceeding instituted by a party before a bankruptcy judge to (1) recover money or property, other than a proceeding under Rule 220 or Rule 604, (2) determine the validity, priority, or extent of a lien or other interest in property, (3) sell property free of a lien or other interest for which the holder can be compelled to take a money satisfaction, (4) object to or revoke a discharge, (5) obtain an injunction, (6) obtain relief from a stay as provided in Rule 401 or 601, or (7) determine the dischargeability of a debt. Such a proceeding shall be known as an adversary proceeding.

Rule 703. Commencement of adversary proceeding.

An adversary proceeding is commenced by filing a complaint with the court.

Rule 704. Process; service of summons, complaint, and notice of trial.

(a) Summons and notice of trial: Issuance and form; service with complaint.—Upon the commencement of an adversary proceeding the bankruptcy judge shall set a date for trial and shall forthwith issue a summons and notice of trial. The summons and notice shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 26 and shall be served together with the complaint on the defendant in one of the modes authorized by this rule.

(b) Personal service.—Service of the summons, complaint, and notice of trial may be made as provided in Rule 4 (d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the service of process. Personal service may be made by any person not less than 18 years of age who is not a party.

(c) Service by mail.—Service of summons, complaint, and notice of trial may also be made by any form of mail requiring a signed receipt as follows:

(1) Upon an individual other than an infant or incompetent, by mailing a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice to his dwelling house or usual place of abode or to the place where he regularly conducts his business or profession.

(2) Upon an infant or an incompetent person, by mailing a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice to the person upon whom process is prescribed to be served by the law of the state in which service is made when an action is brought against such defendant in the courts of general jurisdiction of that state. The summons, complaint, and notice in such case shall be addressed to the person required to be served at his dwelling house or usual place of abode or at the place where he regularly conducts his business or profession.

(3) Upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association, by mailing a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice directed to the attention of an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant.

(4) Upon the United States, by mailing a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice to the United States attorney for the district in which the action is brought and also to the Attorney General of the United States at Washington, District of Columbia, and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or an agency of the United States not made a party, by also mailing a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice to such officer or agency.

(5) Upon any officer or agency of the United States, by mailing a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice to the United States as prescribed in paragraph (4) of this subdivision and also to the officer or agency. If the agency is a corporation, the mailing shall be as prescribed in paragraph (3) of this subdivision of this rule.

(6) Upon a state or municipal corporation or other governmental organization thereof subject to suit, by mailing a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice to the person or office upon whom process is prescribed to be served by the law of the state in which service is made when an action is brought against such a defendant in the courts of general jurisdiction of that state, or in the absence of the designation of any such person or office by state law, then to the chief executive officer thereof.

(7) Upon a defendant of any class referred to in paragraph (1) or (3) of this subdivision of this rule, it is also sufficient if a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice is mailed to the person upon whom service is prescribed to be served by any statute of the United States or by the law of the state in which service is made when an action is brought against such defendant in the courts of general jurisdiction of that state.

(8) Upon any defendant, it is also sufficient if a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice is mailed to an agent of such defendant authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process, at his dwelling house or usual place of abode or at the place where he regularly carries on his business or profession and, if the authorization so requires, by mailing also a copy of the summons, complaint, and notice to the defendant as provided in this subdivision.

(d) Service pursuant to court order.

(1) Service in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4 (e).—If a party cannot be served as provided in subdivision (b), (c), or (i) of this rule, the court may order the summons, complaint, and notice of trial to be served as provided in Rule 4 (e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for service of summons, notice, or order in lieu of summons.

(2) Service by publication.—If a party to an adversary proceeding to determine or protect rights in property in the custody of the court cannot be served as provided in subdivision (b), (c), or (i) of this rule, the court may order the summons, complaint, and notice of trial to be served by mailing copies thereof to the party's last known address, if any, and by at least one publication in such manner and form as the court may direct.

(e) Time of service.—Service under subdivision (b) shall be made within 3 days after the issuance of the summons. If service is made under subdivision (c), the summons, complaint, and notice of trial shall be deposited in the mail within 3 days after the issuance of the summons. Service under subdivision (d) or (i) shall be made within the time fixed by the court. If a summons is not timely served in accordance with the foregoing provisions, another summons shall be issued and served and a new date set for trial.

(f) Territorial limits of effective service.

(1) The summons, together with the complaint and notice of trial, and all other process except a subpoena may be served anywhere within the United States. "United States," as used in this subdivision, includes the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the territories and possessions to which the Act is or may hereafter be applicable.

(2) The summons, together with the complaint and notice of trial, and all other process except a subpoena may be served in a foreign country (A) on the bankrupt, any person required to perform the duties of a bankrupt, any general partner of an adjudicated partnership, or any attorney who is a party to a transaction subject to examination under Rule 220, or (B) on any party to an adversary proceeding to determine or protect rights in property in the custody of the court, or (C) on any person whenever such service is authorized by a federal or state law referred to in Rule 4 (d)(7) or Rule 4 (e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(3) A subpoena may be served within the territorial limits provided in Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(g) Proof of service.—Service of process under the foregoing provisions of this rule shall be proved as provided in Rule 4 (g) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. When service is made by mail, the proof shall include the signed receipt or other evidence satisfactory to the court that delivery was made to the addressee or that acceptance was refused by the addressee. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

(h) Effect of errors; amendment.—Service of process under this rule shall be effective notwithstanding an error in the papers served or the manner or proof of service if no material prejudice resulted therefrom to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued. Amendment of process or proof of service thereof may be allowed as provided in Rule 4 (h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(i) Alternative provisions for service in a foreign country.—If service of the summons, complaint, and notice of trial or of any process is authorized to be effected upon a party in a foreign country, it may also be made and proved as provided in subdivision (i) of Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(a) When presented.—If a complaint is duly served upon him, a defendant shall serve his answer within 25 days after the issuance of the summons, except when a different time is prescribed by the court. The court shall prescribe the time for service of the answer when service of a complaint is made by publication or upon a party in a foreign country. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 10 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 10 days after service of the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 10 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The United States or an officer or agency thereof shall serve an answer to a complaint within 30 days after the issuance of the summons, and shall serve an answer to a cross-claim, or a reply to a counterclaim, within 30 days after service upon the United States attorney of the pleading in which the claim is asserted. The service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the court: (1) if the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 5 days after notice of the court's action; (2) if the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 5 days after the service of a more definite statement.

(b) Applicability of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12 (b)–(h).—Subdivisions (b)–(h) of Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure apply in adversary proceedings, except that:

- (1) if an order granting a motion for a more definite statement is not obeyed within 5 days after notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just;

(2) a motion made by a party under subdivision (f) to strike a pleading to which no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules must be made within 10 days after service of the pleading upon the party;

(3) the references to Rules 15 (a) and 19 in subdivision (h) shall be read as references to Bankruptcy Rules 715 and 719 respectively; and

(4) an objection to the jurisdiction of the court of bankruptcy is governed by Rule 915.

Rule 713. Counterclaim and cross-claim.

Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies in adversary proceedings, except that (1) subdivision (f) does not apply, (2) a party sued by a trustee or receiver need not state as a counterclaim any claim which he has against the bankrupt, his property, or the estate, (3) when a trustee or receiver fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice so requires, he may by leave of court set up the omitted counterclaim by amendment or by commencing a new adversary proceeding or separate action, and (4) persons other than the original parties to the adversary proceeding may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with Rules 719 and 720.

(a) Persons to be joined if feasible.—A person who is subject to service of process shall be joined as a party in the proceeding if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the proceeding and is so situated that the disposition of the proceeding in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.

(b) Objection to jurisdiction by joined person.—If a person joined under subdivision (a) hereof makes a timely objection as provided in Rule 915 to the jurisdiction of the court to determine issues affecting his interest and the objection is sustained, the court shall dismiss such person from the proceeding or, pursuant to Rule 915 (b), transfer the part of the proceeding involving his interest to the civil docket of the district court.

(c) Determination by court whenever joinder or proceeding with joined person not feasible.—If a person as described in subdivision (a) hereof cannot be made a party, or if such a person is dismissed or the part of the proceeding involving his interest is transferred pursuant to subdivision (b) hereof, the court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the proceeding should continue among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: first, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties; second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; third, whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the proceeding is dismissed for nonjoinder.

(d) Pleading reasons for nonjoinder.—A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in subdivision (a) who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

(e) Exception of class proceedings.—This rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 723.

Rule 727. Depositions before adversary proceedings or pending appeal.(a) Before adversary proceeding.

(1) Application.—A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable and relevant in an adversary proceeding may file an application with the court in a pending bankruptcy case. The application shall show: (A) that the applicant expects to be a party to an adversary proceeding but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought; (B) the subject matter of the expected proceeding and the applicant's interest therein; (C) the facts which the applicant desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it; (D) the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known; and (E) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each. The application shall ask for an order authorizing the applicant to take depositions of the persons to be examined named in the application, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

(2) Notice and service.—The applicant shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the application as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the application, stating that the applicant will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the application. At least 20 days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served in the manner provided in Rule 704 (b) or (c) for service of summons; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the application, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Rule 704 (b) or (c), an attorney who shall represent them. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent the provisions of Rule 717 apply.

(3) Order and examination.—If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with these rules; and the court may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 734 and 735.

(b) Pending appeal.—If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of a referee or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the referee who rendered the judgment may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings before the referee. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion before the referee for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the proceeding were pending before the referee. The motion shall show (1) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each; (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the referee finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, he may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 734 and 735, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions taken in proceedings pending before the referee.

(a) Effect.—In all matters tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and the judgment shall be entered pursuant to Rule 921 (a). Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge of the credibility of the witnesses. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law appear therein. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under these rules except when, on a motion to dismiss under Rule 741, the court renders a judgment on the merits after a trial on the facts.

(b) Amendment.—Upon motion of a party made not later than 10 days after entry of a judgment the court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment pursuant to Rule 923. When findings of fact are made in matters tried by the court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made before the court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

(a) Entry.—When a judgment is sought against a party in adversary proceedings and such party has, without sufficient excuse, (1) failed to plead or otherwise defend or, (2) having filed a pleading or motion, is not ready to proceed with trial on the day set therefor in accordance with these rules, the court upon request therefor shall enter a judgment by default, except as provided hereinafter. If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings as it deems necessary and proper. No judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the proceeding by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared therein.

(b) Setting aside judgment by default.—For good cause shown the court may set aside a judgment by default in accordance with Rule 924.

(c) Plaintiffs, counterclaimants, cross-claimants.—The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Rule 54 (c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) Judgment against the United States.—No judgment by default shall be entered against the United States or an officer or agency thereof unless the claimant establishes his claim or right to relief by evidence satisfactory to the court.

On application of the party entitled to performance, the court shall issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. In proper cases the disobedient party may also be held in contempt in proceedings under Rule 920. The court in lieu of directing a transfer of real or personal property may enter a judgment divesting the title of any party thereto and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a transfer executed in due form of law. When any judgment is for the delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application to the court.

An adversary proceeding transferred under this rule shall be referred to a referee by the clerk of the court to which it has been transferred.

PART VIII. APPEAL TO DISTRICT COURT

Rule 801. Manner of taking appeal.

An appeal from a judgment or order of a referee to a district court shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the referee within the time allowed by Rule 802. Failure of an appellant to take any step other than that specified in the first sentence does not affect the validity of the appeal, but is ground only for such action as the district court deems appropriate, which may include dismissal of appeal. The notice of appeal shall conform substantially to Official Form No. 28, shall contain the names of all parties to the judgment or order appealed from and the names and addresses of their respective attorneys, and shall be accompanied by the fee fixed by the Judicial Conference of the United States pursuant to § 40c of the Act. Each appellant shall file a sufficient number of copies of the notice of appeal to enable the referee to comply promptly with Rule 804.

Rule 802. Time for filing notice of appeal.

(a) Ten-day period.—The notice of appeal shall be filed with the referee within 10 days of the date of the entry of the judgment or order appealed from. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within 10 days of the date on which the first notice of appeal was filed, or within the time otherwise prescribed by this rule, whichever period last expires.

(b) Effect of motion on time for appeal.—The running of the time for filing a notice of appeal is terminated as to all parties by a timely motion filed with the referee by any party pursuant to the rules hereafter enumerated in this subdivision. The full time for appeal fixed by this rule commences to run and is to be computed from the entry of any of the following orders made upon a timely motion under such rules: (1) granting or denying a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict under Rule 115 (b)(4); (2) granting or denying a motion under Rule 752 (b) to amend or make additional findings of fact, whether or not an alteration of the judgment would be required if the motion is granted; (3) granting or denying a motion under Rule 923 to alter or amend the judgment; or (4) denying a motion for a new trial under Rule 923.

(c) Extension of time for appeal.—The referee may extend the time for filing the notice of appeal by any party for a period not to exceed 20 days from the expiration of the time otherwise prescribed by this rule. A request to extend the time for filing a notice of appeal must be made before such time has expired, except that a request made after the expiration of such time may be granted upon a showing of excusable neglect if the judgment or order does not authorize the sale of any property.

Rule 803. Finality of referee's judgment or order.

Unless a notice of appeal is filed as prescribed by Rules 801 and 802, the judgment or order of the referee shall become final.

Rule 804. Service of the notice of appeal.

The referee shall serve notice of the filing of a notice of appeal by mailing a copy thereof to counsel of record of each party other than the appellant or, if a party is not represented by counsel, to the party at his last known address. Failure to serve notice shall not affect the validity of the appeal. The referee shall note on each copy served the date of the filing of the notice of appeal and shall note in the docket the names of the parties to whom he mails copies and the date of the mailing.

Rule 805. Stay pending appeal.

A motion for a stay of the judgment or order of a referee, for approval of a supersedeas bond, or for other relief pending appeal must ordinarily be made in the first instance to the referee. Notwithstanding Rule 762 but subject to the power of the district court reserved hereinafter, the referee may suspend or order the continuation of proceedings or make any other appropriate order during the pendency of an appeal upon such terms as will protect the rights of all parties in interest. A motion for such relief, or for modification or termination of relief granted by the referee, may be made to the district court, but the motion shall show why the relief, modification, or termination was not obtained from the referee. The district court may condition the relief it grants under this rule upon the filing of a bond or other appropriate security with the referee. A trustee or receiver may be required to give a supersedeas bond or other appropriate security in order to obtain a stay when taking an appeal.

Rule 806. Record and issues on appeal.

Within 10 days after filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall file with the referee and serve on the appellee a designation of the contents for inclusion in the record on appeal and a statement of the issues he intends to present on the appeal. The record shall include the contents so designated and the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and orders entered thereon. If the appellee deems any other papers to be necessary, he shall, within 7 days after the service of the statement of the appellant, file and serve on the appellant a designation of additional papers to be included. If the record designated by any party includes a transcript of any proceeding or a part thereof, he shall immediately after the designation order the transcript and make satisfactory arrangements for payment of its costs. All parties shall take any other action necessary to enable the referee to assemble and transmit the record.

Rule 807. Transmission of the record; docketing of the appeal.

The record on appeal shall be transmitted by the referee to the clerk of the district court within 30 days after the filing of the statement of the issues unless a different time is prescribed by order of the district court, and the clerk shall thereupon enter the appeal on the docket.

Rule 808. Filing and service of briefs.

Unless a local rule or court order excuses the filing of briefs or provides for different time limits:

- (1) The appellant shall serve and file his brief within 15 days after entry of the appeal on the docket pursuant to Rule 807.
- (2) The appellee shall serve and file his brief within 15 days after service of the brief of the appellant.
- (3) The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within 5 days after service of the brief of the appellee.

Rule 809. Oral argument.

Unless otherwise provided by local rule or court order the parties shall be given an opportunity to be heard on oral argument.

Rule 810. Disposition of appeal; weight accorded referee's findings.

Upon an appeal the district court may affirm, modify, or reverse a referee's judgment or order, or remand with instructions for further proceedings. The court shall accept the referee's findings of fact unless they are clearly erroneous, and shall give due regard to the opportunity of the referee to judge of the credibility of the witnesses.

Rule 811. Costs.

Except as otherwise provided by law, agreed to by the parties, or ordered by the court, costs shall be taxed against the losing party on an appeal; if a judgment is affirmed or reversed in part, or is vacated, costs shall be allowed only as ordered by the court. Costs incurred in the preparation and transmission of the record, the cost of the reporter's transcript, if necessary for the determination of the appeal, the premiums paid for cost of supersedeas bonds or other bonds to preserve rights pending appeal, and the fee for filing the notice of appeal shall be taxed by the referee as costs of the appeal in favor of the party entitled to costs under this rule.

Rule 812. Motion for rehearing.

Unless otherwise provided by local rule or court order, a motion for rehearing may be filed within 10 days after entry of the judgment of the district court.

Rule 813. Duties of clerk on disposition of appeal.

Immediately upon the entry of an order or judgment the clerk of the district court shall serve a notice of the entry by mail upon each party to the appeal, together with a copy of any opinion respecting the order or judgment, and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket.

Original papers transmitted as the record on appeal shall be returned to the referee upon disposition of the appeal.

Rule 814. Suspension of rules in Part VIII.

In the interest of expediting decision or for other good cause, the district court may, by local rule or order, suspend the requirements or provisions of the rules in Part VIII, except Rules 801, 802, 803, and 810, and may also order proceedings in accordance with its direction.

PART IX. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 901. General definitions.

(4) "District court," "trial court," "court," or "judge" means bankruptcy judge.

(5) "Judgment" includes any order appealable to the district court or, if entered by a district judge when acting as a bankruptcy judge, appealable to the court of appeals.

Rule 903. Rule of construction.

These rules shall be construed to secure the expeditious and economical administration of every bankrupt estate and the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every proceeding in bankruptcy.

Rule 904. General requirements of form.

(a) Legibility; abbreviations.—All pleadings, schedules, and other papers shall be clearly legible. Abbreviations in common use in the English language may be used.

(b) Caption.—Each paper filed shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the case, the bankruptcy docket number, and a brief designation of the character of the paper.

Rule 905. Harmless error.

Rule 61 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies in bankruptcy cases. When appropriate, the court may order or effect correction of such an error or defect.

Rule 906. Time.

(a) Computation.—In computing any period of time in a bankruptcy case Rule 6 (a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies.

(b) Enlargement.—When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without application or notice order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon application made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules 107 (b)(2), 115 (b)(4) insofar as it makes Rule 50 (b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applicable in bankruptcy cases, 302 (e), 403 (c), 607, 752 (b), 802, 923, and 924, except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

(c) Reduction.—When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may in its discretion with or without application or notice order the period shortened; but it may not reduce the time for taking any action under Rules 203 (a), 204 (a)(1), 302 (e), 404 (a) and (b), 409 (a)(2), and 802, except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

(d) For motions—Affidavits.—Rule 6 (d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies in bankruptcy cases, except that the reference to Rule 59 (c) shall be read as a reference to Bankruptcy Rule 923.

(e) Time of service or notice by mail.—Service or notice by mail is complete upon mailing.

Rule 907. General authority to regulate notices.

Whenever notice is to be given under these rules, the court shall designate, if not otherwise specified herein, the time within which, the persons to whom, and the form and manner in which the notice shall be given. Whenever feasible, the court may order any notices under these rules to be combined.

Rule 908. Publication.

Whenever these rules require or authorize service or notice by publication, the court shall, to the extent not otherwise specified in these rules, determine the form and manner thereof, including the newspaper or other medium to be used and the number of publications.

Rule 909. Forms.

The official forms annexed to these rules shall be observed and used, with such alterations as may be appropriate to suit the circumstances. Forms may be combined and their contents rearranged to permit economies in their use. The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts may promulgate illustrative forms for use under the Act.

Rule 910. Representation and appearances; powers of attorney.

(a) Authority to act personally or by attorney.—A bankrupt, creditor, or other party may appear in a bankruptcy case and act either in his own behalf or by an attorney authorized to practice in the court. A creditor may also perform any act not constituting the practice of law, by an authorized agent, attorney in fact, or proxy.

(b) Notice of appearance.—An attorney appearing for a party shall file a notice of appearance with his name and business address unless his appearance is otherwise noted in the record.

(c) Power of attorney.—The authority of any agent, attorney in fact, or proxy to represent a creditor for any purpose other than the execution and filing of a proof of claim shall be evidenced by a power of attorney conforming substantially to Official Form No. 13 or Official Form No. 14. The execution of any such power of attorney shall be acknowledged before one of the officers enumerated in Rule 912.

Rule 911. Signing and verification of pleadings and other papers.

(a) Signature.—Every pleading and every written motion of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated, and every written application must be so signed by an attorney or by the party making it. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign his pleading or written motion or application and state his address. The signature of an attorney on any pleading, motion, or application served or filed in a bankruptcy case constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the paper; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay or other improper purpose. If a pleading, or written motion or application, is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false, and the case may proceed as though the paper had not been served or filed. For a wilful violation of this rule an attorney may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

(b) Verification.—Except as otherwise specifically provided by these rules, papers filed in a bankruptcy case need not be verified.

(c) Copies of signed or verified papers.—When these rules require copies of a signed or verified paper, it shall suffice if the original is signed or verified and the copies are conformed to the original.

Rule 912. Oaths and affirmations.

(a) Persons authorized to administer oaths.—A referee, a person designated by the referee in an order filed in the office of the clerk of the district court, an officer authorized to administer oaths in proceedings before the courts of the United States or under the laws of the state where the oath is to be taken, or a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States in any foreign country, may administer oaths and affirmations and take acknowledgments.

(b) Affirmation in lieu of oath.—Whenever in a bankruptcy case an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

Rule 913. Habeas corpus.

(a) For performance of duties under the Act.—The bankruptcy judge may issue a writ of habeas corpus when appropriate to bring a person before the court for examination or to testify or to perform a duty imposed upon him under the Act.

(b) For release of bankrupt from imprisonment.—If the bankrupt is arrested or imprisoned on process in any civil action, the bankruptcy judge may issue a writ of habeas corpus and, after hearing on notice to the adverse party in such action, may order the bankrupt's release if the process is found to have been issued for the collection of a dischargeable debt.

Rule 914. Procedure in contested matters not otherwise provided for.

In a contested matter in a bankruptcy case not otherwise governed by these rules, relief shall be requested by motion, and reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing shall be afforded the party against whom relief is sought. In all such matters, unless the court otherwise directs, the following rules shall apply: 721, 725, 726, 728-737, 741, 742, 744.1, 752, 754-756, 762, 764, 769, and 771. The court may at any stage in a particular matter direct that one or more of the other rules in Part VII shall apply. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable and relevant in a contested matter in a pending bankruptcy case may proceed in the same manner as provided in Rule 727 for the taking of a deposition before an adversary proceeding. For the purposes of this rule a reference in the rules in Part VII to adversary proceedings shall be read as a reference to contested matters. Notice of an order or direction under this rule shall be given when necessary or appropriate to assure to the parties affected a reasonable opportunity to comply with the procedures made applicable by the order.

Rule 915. Objection to jurisdiction of court of bankruptcy.

(a) Waiver of objection to jurisdiction.—Except as provided in Rule 112 and subject to Rule 928, a party waives objection to jurisdiction of an adversary proceeding or a contested matter and thereby consents to such jurisdiction if he does not make objection by a timely motion or answer, whichever is first served.

(b) Dismissal or transfer.—If an objection to the jurisdiction of an adversary proceeding, a contested matter, or a severable part of either, is sustained, the bankruptcy judge shall dismiss such proceeding, matter, or part thereof, or transfer it to the civil docket of the district court, as may be appropriate. On transfer pursuant to this rule, the proceeding, matter, or part thereof shall continue as if filed as a civil action in the district court on the date it was filed in the court of bankruptcy.

Rule 916. Subpoena.

Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies in bankruptcy cases, except that subpoenas may be issued in the name and under the authority of the bankruptcy judge and need not be under the seal of the court.

Rule 917. Evidence.

The Federal Rules of Evidence apply in bankruptcy cases, subject to specific provisions in these rules governing matters of evidence.

Rule 918. Secret, confidential, scandalous, or defamatory matter.

On application or on its own initiative the court may make any order which justice requires (1) to protect the estate or any person in respect of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or (2) to protect any person against scandalous or defamatory matter contained in any paper filed in a bankruptcy case. If an order is entered under this rule without notice, any person affected thereby may move to vacate or modify the order, and on notice the court shall determine such motion.

Rule 919. Compromise and arbitration.

(a) Compromise.—On application by the trustee or receiver and after hearing on notice to the creditors as provided in Rule 203 (a) and to such other persons as the court may designate, the court may approve a compromise or settlement.

(b) Arbitration.—On stipulation of the parties to any controversy affecting the estate the court may authorize the matter to be submitted to final and binding arbitration.

Rule 920. Contempt proceedings.(a) Contempt committed in proceedings before referee.

(1) Summary disposition by referee.—Misbehavior prohibited by § 41a (2) of the Act may be punished summarily by the referee as contempt if he saw or heard the conduct constituting the contempt and it was committed in his actual presence. The order of contempt shall recite the facts and shall be signed by the referee and entered of record.

(2) Disposition by referee upon notice and hearing.—Any other conduct prohibited by § 41a of the Act may be punished by the referee only after hearing on notice. The notice shall be in writing and shall state the time and place of hearing, allowing a reasonable time for the preparation of the defense, and shall state the essential facts constituting the contempt charged and whether the contempt is criminal or civil or both. The notice may be given on the referee's own initiative or on motion by a party, by the United States attorney, or by an attorney appointed by the referee for that purpose. If the contempt charged involves disrespect to or criticism of the referee, he is disqualified from presiding at the hearing except with the consent of the person charged.

(3) Limits on punishment by referee.—A referee shall not order imprisonment nor impose a fine of more than $250 as punishment for any contempt, civil or criminal.

(4) Certification to district judge.—If it appears to a referee that conduct prohibited by § 41a of the Act may warrant punishment by imprisonment or by a fine of more than $250, he may certify the facts to the district judge. On such certification the judge shall proceed as for a contempt not committed in his presence.

(b) Contempt committed in proceedings before district judge.—Any contempt committed in proceedings before a district judge while acting as a bankruptcy judge shall be prosecuted as any other contempt of the district court.

(c) Right to jury trial.—Nothing in this rule shall be construed to impair the right to jury trial whenever it otherwise exists.

Rule 921. Entry of judgment; district court record of referee's judgment.

(a) Original entry on referee's docket.—A judgment in an adversary proceeding or contested matter shall be set forth on a separate document. Every judgment shall be entered forthwith in the referee's docket as provided in Rule 504 or, if the judgment is by the district judge, in the civil docket as provided in Rule 79 (a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A judgment is effective only when entered as required by this subdivision.

(b) District court record of referee's judgment.—On certification by the referee to the clerk of the district court of a copy of a judgment of the referee for the recovery of money or property, the clerk shall keep and index the copy in substantially the form and manner prescribed by Rule 79 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for judgments of the district court. Retention and indexing of a judgment by the clerk under this subdivision shall not affect its appealability or proceedings on appeal from the judgment under the rules in Part VIII, the availability of process to enforce the judgment under Rule 769, or the availability of relief under Rule 762 or 770, but after it has been so indexed, the referee's judgment shall have the same effect and may be enforced as a judgment of the district court so indexed.

Rule 922. Notice of judgment or order.

(a) Judgment or order of a referee.—Immediately upon the entry of a judgment or order made by him, the referee shall serve a notice of the entry by mail in the manner provided by Rule 705 upon any party who opposed the making of the judgment or order and on such other persons as may be designated by the referee. The service of such notice shall be noted in the referee's docket. Lack of notice of the entry does not affect the time to appeal or relieve or authorize the court to relieve a party for failure to appeal within the time allowed, except as permitted in Rule 802.

(b) Judgment or order of district judge.—Notice of a judgment or order of a district judge while acting in a bankruptcy case pursuant to Rule 102 is governed by Rule 77 (d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Rule 923. New trials; amendment of judgments.

Except as provided in Rule 307, Rule 59 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies in bankruptcy cases.

Rule 924. Relief from judgment or order.

Rule 60 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies in bankruptcy cases, except that a motion to re-open a case or for the reconsideration of an order allowing or disallowing a claim against the estate entered without a contest is not subject to the one-year limitation therein prescribed. This rule does not permit extension of the time allowed by § 15 of the Act for the filing of a complaint to revoke a discharge.

Rule 925. Security: Proceedings against sureties.

Whenever these rules require or permit the giving of security by a party, and security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the court, and his liability may be enforced in an adversary proceeding governed by the rules in Part VII.

Rule 926. Exceptions unnecessary.

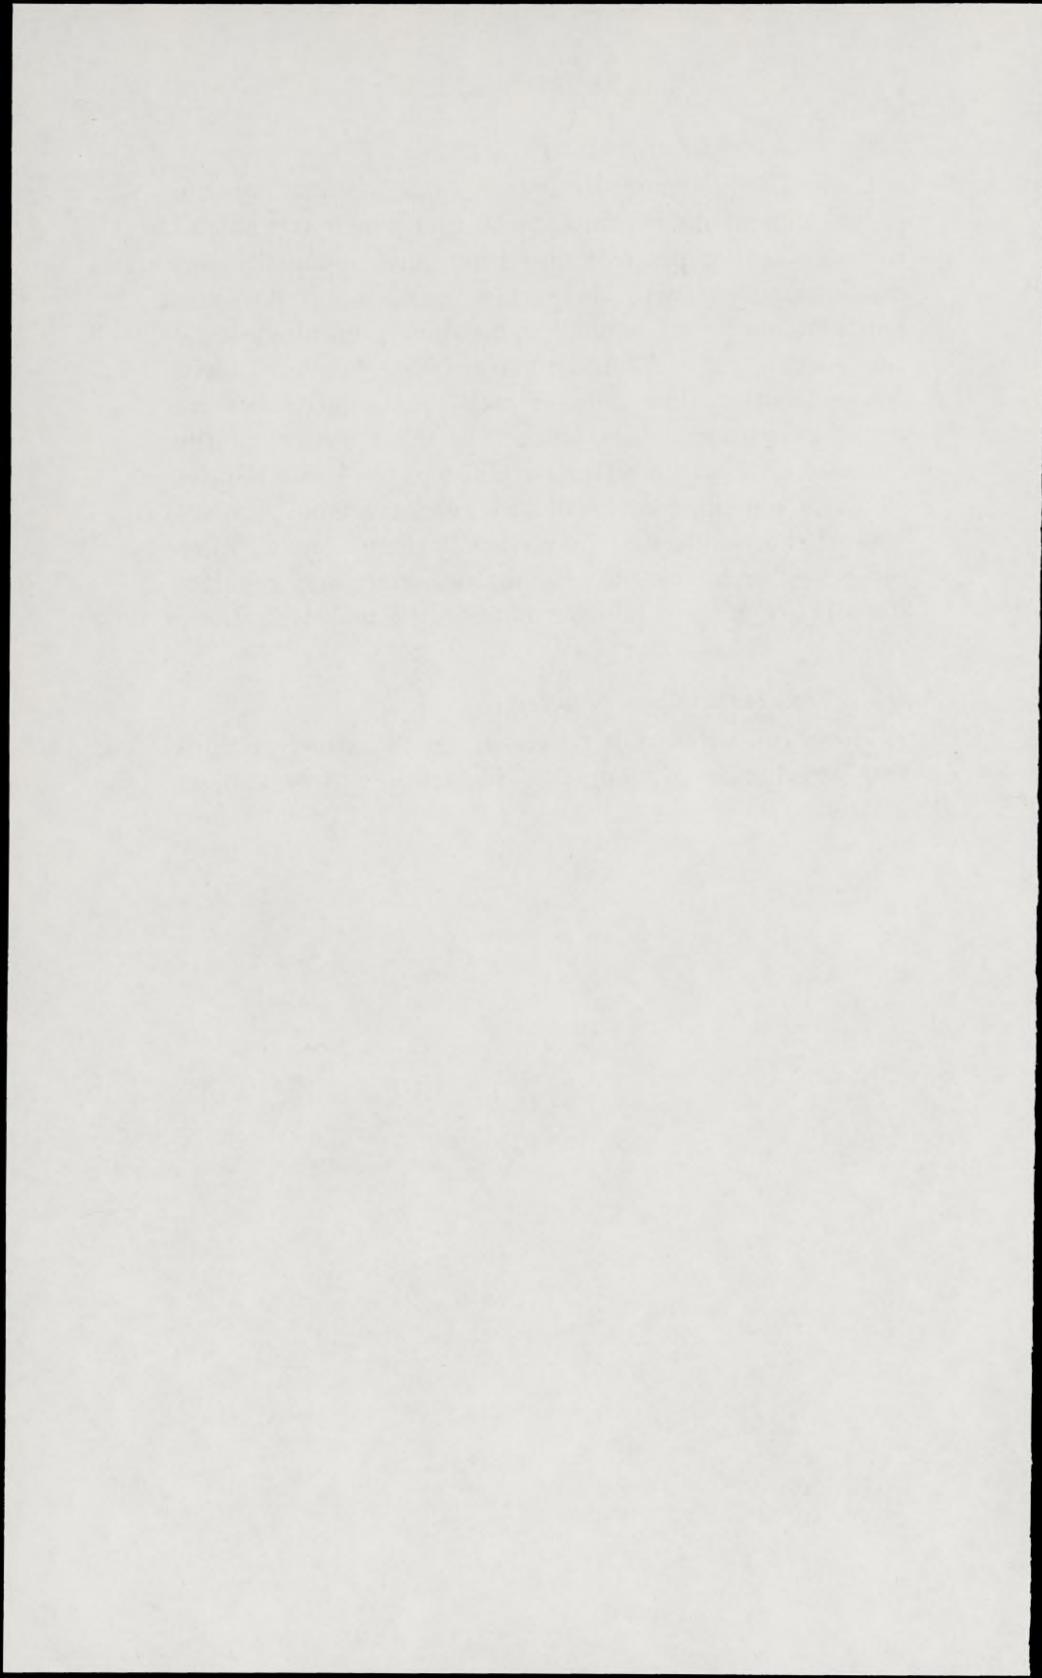

Rule 46 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applies in bankruptcy cases.

Rule 927. Local bankruptcy rules.

Each district court by action of a majority of the judges thereof may from time to time make and amend rules governing practice and procedure under the Act not inconsistent with these rules. Copies of rules and amendments so made shall upon their promulgation be furnished to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The clerk of each court shall make appropriate arrangements, subject to the approval of the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, for making copies of such rules available to members of the public who may request them. In all cases not provided for by rule, the district court may regulate its practice in any manner not inconsistent with these rules.

Rule 928. Jurisdiction unaffected.

These rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of courts of bankruptcy over subject matter.
