

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1983

ORDERED:

1. That the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure be, and they hereby are, amended by including therein new Rules 26(g), 53(f), 72 through 76 and new Official Forms 33 and 34, and amendments to Rules 6(b), 7(b), 11, 16, 26(a) and (b), 52(a), 53(a), (b) and (c) and 67, as hereinafter set forth:

[See infra, pp. 1099-1115.]

2. That the foregoing additions and amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall take effect on August 1, 1983, and shall govern all civil proceedings thereafter commenced and, insofar as just and practicable, in proceedings then pending.

3. That THE CHIEF JUSTICE be, and he hereby is, authorized to transmit to the Congress the foregoing additions to and changes in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in accordance with the provisions of Section 2072 of Title 28, United States Code.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1963

ORIGINALLY

1. That the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has been advised by the Attorney General that the FBI is not to be involved in the investigation of the activities of the Communist Party, Inc. (CPI) and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries, except in the case of the CPI and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries, which are to be investigated by the FBI. This is in accordance with the policy of the Department of Justice, which is to limit the role of the FBI to the investigation of the activities of the CPI and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries, and to leave the investigation of the activities of the Communist Party, Inc. (CPI) and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries to the State Department and the Central Intelligence Agency.

2. That the foregoing advice and instructions to the FBI are in accordance with the policy of the Department of Justice, which is to limit the role of the FBI to the investigation of the activities of the CPI and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries, and to leave the investigation of the activities of the Communist Party, Inc. (CPI) and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries to the State Department and the Central Intelligence Agency.

3. That the FBI is to be advised by the Attorney General that the FBI is not to be involved in the investigation of the activities of the Communist Party, Inc. (CPI) and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries, except in the case of the CPI and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries, which are to be investigated by the FBI. This is in accordance with the policy of the Department of Justice, which is to limit the role of the FBI to the investigation of the activities of the CPI and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries, and to leave the investigation of the activities of the Communist Party, Inc. (CPI) and its branches, affiliates, and subsidiaries to the State Department and the Central Intelligence Agency.

Respectfully,

WALTER E. BURNETT
Chief Justice of the United States
