See Antitrust Laws.

ANTITRUST LAWS.

Sherman Act—Application to municipalities—Restriction of billboard construction.—Petitioner city's restriction of billboard construction is immune from federal antitrust liability under Parker v. Brown, 317 U. S. 341, 352, which renders Act inapplicable to anticompetitive restraints imposed as an act of government; nor is Act applicable to petitioner advertiser's activities seeking such anticompetitive action from city; but case is remanded for a determination whether advertiser engaged in private anticompetitive actions or is liable under state law. Columbia v. Omni Outdoor Advertising, Inc., p. 365.

CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964.

1. Title VII—Extraterritorial application.—Title VII does not apply extraterritorially to regulate employment practices of firms employing American citizens abroad. EEOC v. Arabian American Oil Co., p. 244.

2. Title VII—Pregnancy discrimination—Fetal-protection policies.—Title VII, as amended by Pregnancy Discrimination Act, forbids sex-specific, fetal-protection policies such as respondent's exclusion of fertile female employees from certain jobs. Automobile Workers v. Johnson Controls, Inc., p. 187.

CIVIL RIGHTS ATTORNEY'S FEES AWARDS ACT OF 1976.

1. Expert witness fees.—Fees for services rendered by experts in civil rights litigation may not be shifted to the losing party as "a reasonable attorney's fee" under 42 U. S. C. § 1988. West Virginia University Hospitals, Inc. v. Casey, p. 83.

2. Pro se litigant.—A pro se litigant who is a lawyer is not entitled to attorney's fees under 42 U. S. C. § 1988. Kay v. Ehrler, p. 432.

CONFESSIONS. See Constitutional Law, I, 1.

CONSOLIDATION OF RAILWAYS. See Interstate Commerce Act.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW. See also Copyright.

I. Due Process.

1. Coerced confession—Harmless-error analysis.—Arizona Supreme Court properly determined that Fulminante's murder confession was coerced; harmless-error analysis of Chapman v. California, 386 U. S. 18, is applicable to admission of involuntary confessions; State failed to meet its burden of establishing that confession's admission was harmless. Arizona v. Fulminante, p. 279.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW—Continued.

2. Punitive damages.—A punitive damages award that was more than four times the amount of compensatory damages claimed did not violate Due Process Clause of Fourteenth Amendment. Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. v. Haslip, p. 1.

II. Equal Protection of the Laws.

Race-based exclusion of jurors—Same-race requirement.—Under Equal Protection Clause, a criminal defendant may object to race-based exclusion of jurors through peremptory challenges whether or not defendant and excluded jurors are of same race. Powers v. Ohio, p. 400.

III. Freedom of Press.

State sales tax—Application to cable and satellite television.—Extension of Arkansas' generally applicable sales tax to cable and satellite television services but not to print media does not violate First Amendment; but State Supreme Court must address whether temporary distinction between cable and satellite services violated Equal Protection Clause. Leathers v. Medlock, p. 439.

IV. Searches and Seizures.

Exclusion of evidence—Seizure of person.—Respondent was not "seized" within meaning of Fourth Amendment when he saw police officer running towards him, and thus cocaine he tossed away while being pursued was not fruit of a seizure and should not have been suppressed. California v. Hodari D., p. 621.

CONTRACTS. See Admiralty.

COPYRIGHT.

Infringement—Telephone directory white pages.—Rural telephone directory's white pages lack requisite originality for copyright protection, and therefore Feist's use of them to construct its own directory did not constitute infringement. Feist Publications, Inc. v. Rural Telephone Service Co., p. 340.
