

THE YANKEE.

RULES OF COURT.

RULE No. 61.

WHEN the death of a party is suggested, and the representatives of the deceased do not appear by the tenth day of the second term, next succeeding the suggestion, and no measures are taken by the opposite party within that time to compel their appearance, the case shall abate.

This rule shall apply to cases now on the docket, as well as to cases hereafter brought. And those now on the docket, and falling within the rule, shall abate on the tenth day of December Term, 1852, unless, upon special cause shown, the court shall direct otherwise.

RULE No. 62.

IN cases where a writ of error is prosecuted to the Supreme Court, and the judgment of the inferior court is affirmed, the interest shall be calculated and levied from the date of the judgment below until the same is paid, at the same rate that similar judgments bear interest in the courts of the State where such judgment is rendered.

The same rule shall be applied to decrees for the payment of money, in cases in chancery, unless otherwise ordered by this court.

This rule to take effect on the first day of December Term, 1852.
