RESIGNATION OF MR. JUSTICE NELSON.

At the close of December Term, 1872, Mr. Justice NELSON, who during the whole term had been prevented, by indisposition, from attending court, resigned his commission. The following interesting correspondence, between himself and his brethren, took place, and was entered on the minutes of the court by its order :

COOPERSTOWN, November 28th, 1872.

MY DEAR CHIEF JUSTICE:

The mail that carries these lines to you carries my resignation of the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

I part from my brethren with regret, and retire from an occupation which has been the height of my ambition for much the largest portion of my life, not from choice, but for the reason that age and infirmities have disabled me from the performance of a full share of its duties.

Please to communicate this to our associates, and believe me

Sincerely your friend,

S. NELSON.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.
