Go ahead and ask——

Human Rights in Colombia

Q. Also the question is for President Bush. Did you talk about the necessity and the importance of the creation of international community that can verify the application of the justice and peace law and also its implementation?

President Bush. We did talk about human rights. I talked about human rights. The Secretary of State Arroz—[laughter]—talked about human rights. The President assured us—a couple of points that are important to understand—one, that there is an independent judiciary, in other words, independent from Government, that will adjudicate these disputes; secondly, that there is a new prosecutor reporting to the independent judiciary that will follow through on the cases; and, thirdly, that he is committed to seeing to it as best as possible that progress be made on these cases.

And we talked about specific cases. And I listened intently and believe that he is interested in following through on these cases, so that the world will hear loud and clear that Colombia is a nation of law and human rights and human dignity.

[President Uribe answered the question in Spanish, and no translation was provided.]

President Bush. Yo le comprendo. Vamos a comer. [Laughter] I told him I understood him. We're going to go eat. Thank you very much. Appreciate you. Gracias.

Q. What's on the menu? What's on the menu?

President Bush. Carne.

Q. Carne.

President Bush. Necesito preguntar a mi esposa. I've been thinking about business. She's been thinking about the food.
