105TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 118

Expressing the sense of the Congress regarding proliferation of missile technology from Russia to Iran.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

July 22, 1997

Ms. Harman submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress regarding proliferation of missile technology from Russia to Iran.

Whereas there is substantial evidence in support of allegations that nongovernmental entities in the Russian Federation have provided missile technology and technical advice to Iran, in violation of the Missile Technology Control Regime;

Whereas these violations include providing assistance to Iran in developing ballistic missiles, including the transfer of wind tunnel and rocket engine testing equipment;

Whereas these technologies give Iran the capability to deploy a missile of sufficient range to threaten United States military installations in the Middle East and Persian Gulf, as well as the territory of Israel, and our North Atlantic Treaty Organization ally Turkey; and Whereas President Clinton has raised with Russian President Boris Yeltsin United States concerns about these activities and the Russian response has to date been inadequate: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate

- 2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that—
 (1) the President should demand that the Government of Russia take concrete actions to stop nongovernmental entities in the Russian Federation from providing missile technology and technical advice to Iran, in violation of the Missile Technology
 8 Control Regime;
 - (2) in the absence of such actions, the United States should impose sanctions on the responsible Russian entities in accordance with Executive Order 12938 on the Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction, and reassess cooperative activities with Russia;
 - (3) the threshold under current law allowing for the waiver of the prohibition on the release of foreign assistance to Russia should be raised; and
 - (4) our European allies should be encouraged to take steps in accordance with their own laws to stop such proliferation.
