H. CON. RES. 209

Remembering the life of George Washington and his contributions to the Nation.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

February 5, 1998

Mr. GILMAN (for himself and Mr. GINGRICH) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Remembering the life of George Washington and his contributions to the Nation.

- Whereas December 14, 1999, will be the 200th anniversary of the death of George Washington, the father of our Nation, and the protector of our liberties;
- Whereas the standards established by George Washington's steadfast character and devotion to duty continue to inspire all men and women in the service of their country and in the conduct of their private lives;
- Whereas the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union, which maintains the Mount Vernon estate and directs research and education programs relating to George Washington's contribution to our national life, has requested all Americans to participate in the observance of this anniversary;

Whereas bells should be caused to toll at places of worship and institutions of learning for the duration of 1 minute commencing at 12 o'clock noon, central standard time, throughout the Nation, on the 200th anniversary of the death of George Washington;

Whereas the flag of the United States should be lowered to halfstaff on the 200th anniversary of the death of George Washington; and

Whereas the example set by George Washington is of the utmost importance to the future of the Nation, and it is the responsibility of private and government institutions to prepare for the observation of the 200th anniversary of the death of George Washington: Now, therefore, be it
