

105TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 77

Expressing the sense of the Congress that Federal civilian and military retirement cost-of-living adjustments should not be delayed.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 8, 1997

Mr. BILIRAKIS submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight, and in addition to the Committee on National Security, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that Federal civilian and military retirement cost-of-living adjustments should not be delayed.

Whereas, over the years, Federal employees and retirees and military personnel and retirees have regularly been forced to bear a disproportionate share in connection with deficit reduction; and

Whereas it would be inequitable to delay cost-of-living adjustments for Federal civilian and military retirees when like delays for other retirees are considered to be inappropriate: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that cost-
3 of-living adjustments for Federal civilian and military re-
4 tirees should be paid beginning in January of each year,
5 as current law prescribes, and should not be delayed,
6 whether as part of a budget agreement or otherwise.
