Received; read twice and referred to the Committee on Armed Services

AN ACT

12 (2) Existence of such missiles in potentially 13 hostile nations constitutes a serious threat to United

17 fense systems.

18 (3) It is a matter of high national interest to
19 quickly reduce the vulnerability of United States
20 forces, allies, and friends to these threats.

21 (4) Meaningful and cost effective steps to re-
22 duce these vulnerabilities are available and should be 23 pursued expeditiously.
