24                  to the active conduct of any trade or business
25                  of an eligible S corporation.

1           “(D) ELIGIBLE S CORPORATION.—The
2           term ‘eligible S corporation’ means an S cor-
3           poration, except that such term does not in-
4           clude—

5                   “(i) a personal service corporation as 6                   defined in section 469(j)(2), other than a
7                   qualified personal service corporation, and

8                   “(ii) a personal holding company (as 9                   defined in section 542).

15           COUNT.—For purposes of this subsection—

16                   “(A) IN GENERAL.—Each S corporation
17                   shall establish a qualified retained earnings ac-
18                   count which shall be—

19                           “(i) increased each year by the por-
20                           tion of the taxable income of the S cor-
21                           poration that is attributable to the active

23                           corporation,

24                           “(ii) decreased each year by the por-
25                           tion of the taxable loss of the S corpora-

3                   “(iii) decreased by qualified and non-
4                   qualified distributions from such S cor-
5                   poration to the shareholders thereof.

6                   “(B) QUALIFIED DISTRIBUTIONS.—For 7                   purposes of subparagraph (A), a distribution
8                   from a qualified retained earnings account shall 9                   be treated as a qualified distribution if the dis-
10                  tribution—

11                  “(i) is made to the owners of the eligi-
12                  ble S corporation, and

13                  “(ii) is made to enable the S corpora-
14                  tion shareholder to pay income taxes (Fed-15                  eral, State, local) on the income of the eli-
16                  gible S corporation.

17                  The Secretary is authorized to promulgate reg-
18                  ulations pursuant to this subparagraph to pro-
19                  vide rules to determine the extent to which dis-
20                  tributions by an S corporation are made to en-21                  able the distributee to pay its income taxes, in-
22                  cluding regulations that establish a presumption
23                  that distributions are to enable the distributee
24                  to pay income taxes if such distributions do not

1 exceed 34 percent of qualified taxable S cor-
2 poration income.

3 “(C) DISTRIBUTIONS AFTER TAXABLE
4 YEAR.—For purposes of subparagraph (B), a
5 distribution from a qualified retained earnings
6 account within 75 days after the end of a tax-
7 able year of the eligible S corporation may be 8 treated as a distribution made on the last day
9 of such taxable year.

10 “(4) ADDITIONAL TAX ON NONQUALIFIED DIS-
11 TRIBUTIONS.—

12 “(A) IN GENERAL.—If—

13 “(i) a distribution other than a quali-
14 fied distribution is made from a qualified
15 retained earnings account, and

16 “(ii) such distribution is made from
17 additions to the account for a taxable year
18 with respect to which paragraph (1)(B) ap-
19 plied to the taxpayer by reason of such ad-
20 ditions,

21 then the tax imposed by this section for the tax-
22 able year of the taxpayer with or within which 23 the taxable year of the eligible S corporation in 24 which the distribution was made ends shall be

1 increased by the amount determined under sub-
2 paragraph (B).

3 “(B) AMOUNT OF ADDITIONAL TAX.—The
4 amount of tax determined under this subpara-
5 graph is an amount equal to the product of the 6 taxpayer’s pro rata share of the distribution de-
7 scribed in subparagraph (A)(i) and the number 8 of percentage points (and fractions thereof) by 9 which the highest rate of tax applicable to the 10 taxpayer in effect under this section for the tax-
11 payer’s taxable year exceeds 34 percent.

12 “(C) ORDER OF DISTRIBUTIONS.—For 13 purposes of this paragraph, distributions shall 14 be treated as having been made from the quali-
15 fied retained earnings account on a last-in, 16 first-out basis. Distributions in excess of the 17 balance of the qualified retained earnings ac-
18 count shall not reduce such account below zero.

19 “(5) YEARS TO WHICH SUBSECTION APPLIES.—
20 This subsection shall apply to any taxable year if the 21 highest rate of tax set forth in subsection (a), (b),
22 (c), (d), or (e) (whichever applies) for the taxable
23 year exceeds 34 percent.

24 “(6) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary shall pre-
25 scribe such regulations as may be necessary or ap-

1       appropriate to carry out the purposes of this section,
2       including regulations preventing the characterization
3       of distributions for purposes of compensation or per-
4       sonal use as distributions of qualified retained earn-
5       ings.”

6       (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by 7       subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years beginning after 8       December 31, 1997.
