6 SEC. 102. OREGON INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC SERVICE AND 7 CONSTITUTIONAL STUDIES.

8 From the funds appropriated under section 106, the 9 Secretary is authorized to award a grant to Portland State 10 University at Portland, Oregon, for the establishment of 11 an endowment fund to support the Oregon Institute of 12 Public Service and Constitutional Studies at the Mark O.
13 Hatfield School of Government at Portland State Univer-14 sity.

15 SEC. 103. DUTIES.

16 In order to receive a grant under this title the Port-17 land State University shall establish the Institute. The In-18 stitute shall have the following duties:

19 (1) To generate resources, improve teaching, 20 enhance curriculum development, and further the 21 knowledge and understanding of students of all ages
22 about public service, the United States Government, 23 and the Constitution of the United States of Amer-24 ica.

1 (2) To increase the awareness of the impor-
2 tance of public service, to foster among the youth of 3 the United States greater recognition of the role of 4 public service in the development of the United 5 States, and to promote public service as a career 6 choice.

7 (3) To establish a Mark O. Hatfield Fellows
8 program for students of government, public policy, 9 public health, education, or law who have dem-
10 onstrated a commitment to public service through 11 volunteer activities, research projects, or employ-12 ment.

13 (4) To create library and research facilities for 14 the collection and compilation of research materials
15 for use in carrying out programs of the Institute.

16 (5) To support the professional development of 17 elected officials at all levels of government.

18 SEC. 104. ADMINISTRATION.

19 (a) LEADERSHIP COUNCIL.—

20 (1) IN GENERAL.—In order to receive a grant
21 under this title Portland State University shall en-
22 sure that the Institute operates under the direction 23 of a Leadership Council (in this title referred to as 24 the “Leadership Council”) that—

1 “(A) consists of 15 individuals appointed
2 by the President of Portland State University; 3 and

4 “(B) is established in accordance with this 5 section.

6 (2) APPOINTMENTS.—Of the individuals ap-
7 pointed under paragraph (1)(A)—

8 (A) Portland State University, Willamette
9 University, the Constitution Project, George 10 Fox University, Warner Pacific University, and 11 Oregon Health Sciences University shall each 12 have a representative;

13 (B) at least 1 shall represent Mark O.
14 Hatfield, his family, or a designee thereof;

15 (C) at least 1 shall have expertise in ele-16 mentary and secondary school social sciences or 17 governmental studies;

18 (D) at least 2 shall be representative of 19 business or government and reside outside of 20 Oregon;

21 (E) at least 1 shall be an elected official;
22 and

23 (F) at least 3 shall be leaders in the pri-
24 vate sector.

1 (3) EX-OFFICIO MEMBER.—The Director of the 2 Mark O. Hatfield School of Government at Portland
3 State University shall serve as an ex-officio member 4 of the Leadership Council.

5 (b) CHAIRPERSON.—

6 (1) IN GENERAL.—The President of Portland
7 State University shall designate 1 of the individuals
8 first appointed to the Leadership Council under sub-9 section (a) as the Chairperson of the Leadership 10 Council. The individual so designated shall serve as 11 Chairperson for 1 year.

12 (2) REQUIREMENT.—Upon the expiration of the 13 term of the Chairperson of the individual designated 14 as Chairperson under paragraph (1), or the term of 15 the Chairperson elected under this paragraph, the 16 members of the Leadership Council shall elect a 17 Chairperson of the Leadership Council from among 18 the members of the Leadership Council.

19 SEC. 105. ENDOWMENT FUND.

20 (a) MANAGEMENT.—The endowment fund shall be
21 managed in accordance with the standard endowment poli-
22 cies established by the Oregon University System.

23 (b) USE OF INTEREST AND INVESTMENT INCOME.—
24 Interest and other investment income earned (on or after 25 the date of enactment of this subsection) from the endow-

1 ment fund may be used to carry out the duties of the Insti-
 2 tute under section 103.

3 (c) DISTRIBUTION OF INTEREST AND INVESTMENT
 4 INCOME.—Funds realized from interest and other invest-
 5 ment income earned (on or after the date of enactment
 6 of this subsection) shall be spent by Portland State Uni-7 versity in collaboration with Willamette University, George 8 Fox University, the Constitution Project, Warner Pacific
 9 University, Oregon Health Sciences University, and other 10 appropriate educational institutions or community-based 11 organizations. In expending such funds, the Leadership
 12 Council shall encourage programs to establish partner-13 ships, to leverage private funds, and to match expendi-14 tures from the endowment fund.

15 SEC. 106. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

16 There is authorized to be appropriated to carry out
 17 this title $3,000,000 for fiscal year 1999.

18 TITLE II—PAUL SIMON PUBLIC
 19 POLICY INSTITUTE

20 SEC. 201. DEFINITIONS.

21 In this title:

22 (1) ENDOWMENT FUND.—The term “endow-
 23 ment fund” means a fund established by the Univer-
 24 sity for the purpose of generating income for the 25 support of the Institute.

1 (2) ENDOWMENT FUND CORPUS.—The term
2 “endowment fund corpus” means an amount equal
3 to the grant or grants awarded under this title plus
4 an amount equal to the matching funds required
5 under section 202(d).

6 (3) ENDOWMENT FUND INCOME.—The term
7 “endowment fund income” means an amount equal
8 to the total value of the endowment fund minus the 9 endowment fund corpus.

10 (4) INSTITUTE.—The term “Institute” means
11 the Paul Simon Public Policy Institute described in 12 section 202.

13 (5) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means
14 the Secretary of Education.

15 (6) UNIVERSITY.—The term “University”
16 means Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, 17 Illinois.

18 SEC. 202. PROGRAM AUTHORIZED.

19 (a) GRANTS.—From the funds appropriated under 20 section 206, the Secretary is authorized to award a grant 21 to Southern Illinois University for the establishment of an 22 endowment fund to support the Paul Simon Public Policy 23 Institute. The Secretary may enter into agreements with 24 the University and include in any agreement made pursu-

1 ant to this title such provisions as are determined nec-
2 essary by the Secretary to carry out this title.

3 (b) DUTIES.—In order to receive a grant under this 4 title, the University shall establish the Institute. The Insti-
5 tute, in addition to recognizing more than 40 years of pub-6 lic service to Illinois, to the Nation, and to the world, shall 7 engage in research, analysis, debate, and policy rec-8 ommendations affecting world hunger, mass media, for-9 eign policy, education, and employment.

10 (c) DEPOSIT INTO ENDOWMENT FUND.—The Uni-
11 versity shall deposit the proceeds of any grant received
12 under this section into the endowment fund.

13 (d) MATCHING FUNDS REQUIREMENT.—The Univer-
14 sity may receive a grant under this section only if the Uni-
15 versity has deposited in the endowment fund established
16 under this title an amount equal to one-third of such grant
17 and has provided adequate assurances to the Secretary
18 that the University will administer the endowment fund
19 in accordance with the requirements of this title. The 20 source of the funds for the University match shall be de-
21 rived from State, private foundation, corporate, or individ-
22 ual gifts or bequests, but may not include Federal funds
23 or funds derived from any other federally supported fund.

24 (e) DURATION; CORPUS RULE.—The period of any 25 grant awarded under this section shall not exceed 20

1 years, and during such period the University shall not
2 withdraw or expend any of the endowment fund corpus.
3 Upon expiration of the grant period, the University may 4 use the endowment fund corpus, plus any endowment fund
5 income for any educational purpose of the University.

6 SEC. 203. INVESTMENTS.

7 (a) IN GENERAL.—The University shall invest the 8 endowment fund corpus and endowment fund income in 9 those low-risk instruments and securities in which a regu-10 lated insurance company may invest under the laws of the 11 State of Illinois, such as federally insured bank savings
12 accounts or comparable interest bearing accounts, certifi-13 cates of deposit, money market funds, or obligations of 14 the United States.

15 (b) JUDGMENT AND CARE.—The University, in in-
16 vesting the endowment fund corpus and endowment fund
17 income, shall exercise the judgment and care, under cir-
18 cumstances then prevailing, which a person of prudence,
19 discretion, and intelligence would exercise in the manage-
20 ment of the person's own business affairs.

21 SEC. 204. WITHDRAWALS AND EXPENDITURES.

22 (a) IN GENERAL.—The University may withdraw and 23 expend the endowment fund income to defray any ex-
24 penses necessary to the operation of the Institute, includ-
25 ing expenses of operations and maintenance, administra-

1 tion, academic and support personnel, construction and
2 renovation, community and student services programs,
3 technical assistance, and research. No endowment fund in-
4 come or endowment fund corpus may be used for any type
5 of support of the executive officers of the University or 6 for any commercial enterprise or endeavor. Except as pro-
7 vided in subsection (b), the University shall not, in the 8 aggregate, withdraw or expend more than 50 percent of 9 the total aggregate endowment fund income earned prior 10 to the time of withdrawal or expenditure.

11 (b) SPECIAL RULE.—The Secretary is authorized to 12 permit the University to withdraw or expend more than 13 50 percent of the total aggregate endowment fund income
14 whenever the University demonstrates such withdrawal or 15 expenditure is necessary because of—

16 (1) a financial emergency, such as a pending in-
17 solvency or temporary liquidity problem;

18 (2) a life-threatening situation occasioned by a
19 natural disaster or arson; or

20 (3) another unusual occurrence or exigent cir-
21 cumstance.

22 (c) REPAYMENT.—

23 (1) INCOME.—If the University withdraws or
24 expends more than the endowment fund income au-
25 thorized by this section, the University shall repay

1 the Secretary an amount equal to one-third of the
2 amount improperly expended (representing the Fed-
3 eral share thereof).

4 (2) CORPUS.—Except as provided in section
5 202(e)—

6 (A) the University shall not withdraw or 7 expend any endowment fund corpus; and

8 (B) if the University withdraws or expends
9 any endowment fund corpus, the University
10 shall repay the Secretary an amount equal to 11 one-third of the amount withdrawn or expended
12 (representing the Federal share thereof) plus
13 any endowment fund income earned thereon.

14 SEC. 205. ENFORCEMENT.

15 (a) IN GENERAL.—After notice and an opportunity
16 for a hearing, the Secretary is authorized to terminate a
17 grant and recover any grant funds awarded under this sec-
18 tion if the University—

19 (1) withdraws or expends any endowment fund
20 corpus, or any endowment fund income in excess of 21 the amount authorized by section 204, except as 22 provided in section 202(e);

23 (2) fails to invest the endowment fund corpus
24 or endowment fund income in accordance with the 25 investment requirements described in section 203; or

1 (3) fails to account properly to the Secretary,
2 or the General Accounting Office if properly des-
3 ignated by the Secretary to conduct an audit of 4 funds made available under this title, pursuant to 5 such rules and regulations as may be proscribed by 6 the Comptroller General of the United States, con-
7 cerning investments and expenditures of the endow-
8 ment fund corpus or endowment fund income.

9 (b) TERMINATION.—If the Secretary terminates a
10 grant under subsection (a), the University shall return to 11 the Treasury of the United States an amount equal to the 12 sum of the original grant or grants under this title, plus
13 any endowment fund income earned thereon. The Sec-
14 retary may direct the University to take such other appro-
15 priate measures to remedy any violation of this title and 16 to protect the financial interest of the United States.

17 SEC. 206. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

18 There is authorized to be appropriated to carry out
19 this title $3,000,000 for fiscal year 1999. Funds appro-
20 priated under this section shall remain available until ex-
21 pended.

14 means the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, 15 Tennessee.

16 SEC. 302. HOWARD BAKER SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT.

17 From the funds authorized to be appropriated under 18 section 306, the Secretary is authorized to award a grant
19 to the University for the establishment of an endowment
20 fund to support the Howard Baker School of Government 21 at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, Tennessee.

22 SEC. 303. DUTIES.

23 In order to receive a grant under this title, the Uni-24 versity shall establish the School. The School shall have 25 the following duties:

1 (1) To establish a professorship to improve
2 teaching and research related to, enhance the cur-3 riculum of, and further the knowledge and under-4 standing of, the study of democratic institutions, in-5 cluding aspects of regional planning, public adminis-
6 tration, and public policy.

7 (2) To establish a lecture series to increase the 8 knowledge and awareness of the major public issues
9 of the day in order to enhance informed citizen par-10 ticipation in public affairs.

11 (3) To establish a fellowship program for stu-
12 dents of government, planning, public administra-
13 tion, or public policy who have demonstrated a com-14 mitment and an interest in pursuing a career in 15 public affairs.

16 (4) To provide appropriate library materials
17 and appropriate research and instructional equip-
18 ment for use in carrying out academic and public 19 service programs, and to enhance the existing 20 United States Presidential and public official manu-21 script collections.

22 (5) To support the professional development of 23 elected officials at all levels of government.

24 SEC. 304. ADMINISTRATION.

25 (a) BOARD OF ADVISORS.—

1 (1) IN GENERAL.—The School shall operate
2 with the advice and guidance of a Board of Advisors
3 consisting of 13 individuals appointed by the Vice 4 Chancellor for Academic Affairs of the University.

5 (2) APPOINTMENTS.—Of the individuals ap-
6 pointed under paragraph (1)—

7 (A) 5 shall represent the University;

9 family, or a designee thereof;

10 (C) 5 shall be representative of business or 11 government; and

12 (D) 1 shall be the Governor of Tennessee, 13 or the Governor’s designee.

14 (3) EX OFFICIO MEMBERS.—The Vice Chan-
15 cellor for Academic Affairs and the Dean of the Col-16 lege of Arts and Sciences at the University shall 17 serve as an ex officio member of the Board.

18 (b) CHAIRPERSON.—

19 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Chancellor, with the 20 concurrence of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Af-
21 fairs, of the University shall designate 1 of the indi-
22 viduals first appointed to the Board under sub-23 section (a) as the Chairperson of the Board. The in-24 dividual so designated shall serve as Chairperson for 25 1 year.

1 (2) REQUIREMENTS.—Upon the expiration of 2 the term of the Chairperson of the individual des-3 ignated as Chairperson under paragraph (1) or the 4 term of the Chairperson elected under this para-
5 graph, the members of the Board shall elect a Chair-6 person of the Board from among the members of the 7 Board.

8 SEC. 305. ENDOWMENT FUND.

9 (a) MANAGEMENT.—The endowment fund shall be
10 managed in accordance with the standard endowment poli-
11 cies established by the University of Tennessee System.

12 (b) USE OF INTEREST AND INVESTMENT INCOME.—
13 Interest and other investment income earned (on or after 14 the date of enactment of this subsection) from the endow-15 ment fund may be used to carry out the duties of the 16 School under section 303.

17 (c) DISTRIBUTION OF INTEREST AND INVESTMENT
18 INCOME.—Funds realized from interest and other invest-
19 ment income earned (on or after the date of enactment 20 of this subsection) shall be available for expenditure by 21 the University for purposes consistent with section 303, 22 as recommended by the Board. The Board shall encourage 23 programs to establish partnerships, to leverage private 24 funds, and to match expenditures from the endowment 25 fund.

1 SEC. 306. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

2 There is authorized to be appropriated to carry out
3 this title $10,000,000 for fiscal year 2000.

4 TITLE IV—JOHN GLENN INSTI-
5 TUTE FOR PUBLIC SERVICE
6 AND PUBLIC POLICY

7 SEC. 401. DEFINITIONS.

8 In this title:

9 (1) ENDOWMENT FUND.—The term “endow-
10 ment fund” means a fund established by the Univer-
11 sity for the purpose of generating income for the 12 support of the Institute.

13 (2) ENDOWMENT FUND CORPUS.—The term
14 “endowment fund corpus” means an amount equal
15 to the grant or grants awarded under this title plus
16 an amount equal to the matching funds required
17 under section 402(d).

18 (3) ENDOWMENT FUND INCOME.—The term
19 “endowment fund income” means an amount equal
20 to the total value of the endowment fund minus the 21 endowment fund corpus.

22 (4) INSTITUTE.—The term “Institute” means
23 the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and 24 Public Policy described in section 402.

25 (5) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means
26 the Secretary of Education.

1 (6) UNIVERSITY.—The term “University”
2 means the Ohio State University at Columbus, Ohio.

3 SEC. 402. PROGRAM AUTHORIZED.

4 (a) GRANTS.—From the funds appropriated under
5 section 406, the Secretary is authorized to award a grant
6 to the Ohio State University for the establishment of an 7 endowment fund to support the John Glenn Institute for 8 Public Service and Public Policy. The Secretary may enter 9 into agreements with the University and include in any 10 agreement made pursuant to this title such provisions as 11 are determined necessary by the Secretary to carry out 12 this title.

13 (b) PURPOSES.—The Institute shall have the follow-14 ing purposes:

15 (1) To sponsor classes, internships, community 16 service activities, and research projects to stimulate 17 student participation in public service, in order to 18 foster America’s next generation of leaders.

19 (2) To conduct scholarly research in conjunc-20 tion with public officials on significant issues facing 21 society and to share the results of such research 22 with decisionmakers and legislators as the decision-23 makers and legislators address such issues.

24 (3) To offer opportunities to attend seminars 25 on such topics as budgeting and finance, ethics, per-

1 sonnel management, policy evaluations, and regu-
2 latory issues that are designed to assist public offi-3 cials in learning more about the political process and 4 to expand the organizational skills and policy-mak-
5 ing abilities of such officials.

6 (4) To educate the general public by sponsoring 7 national conferences, seminars, publications, and fo-
8 rums on important public issues.

9 (5) To provide access to Senator John Glenn's 10 extensive collection of papers, policy decisions, and 11 memorabilia, enabling scholars at all levels to study 12 the Senator's work.

13 (c) DEPOSIT INTO ENDOWMENT FUND.—The Uni-
14 versity shall deposit the proceeds of any grant received
15 under this section into the endowment fund.

16 (d) MATCHING FUNDS REQUIREMENT.—The Univer-
17 sity may receive a grant under this section only if the Uni-
18 versity has deposited in the endowment fund established
19 under this title an amount equal to one-third of such grant
20 and has provided adequate assurances to the Secretary
21 that the University will administer the endowment fund
22 in accordance with the requirements of this title. The
23 source of the funds for the University match shall be de-
24 rived from State, private foundation, corporate, or individ-

1 ual gifts or bequests, but may not include Federal funds
 2 or funds derived from any other federally supported fund.

3 (e) DURATION; CORPUS RULE.—The period of any
 4 grant awarded under this section shall not exceed 20
 5 years, and during such period the University shall not
 6 withdraw or expend any of the endowment fund corpus.
 7 Upon expiration of the grant period, the University may
 8 use the endowment fund corpus, plus any endowment fund
 9 income for any educational purpose of the University.

10 SEC. 403. INVESTMENTS.

11 (a) IN GENERAL.—The University shall invest the 12 endowment fund corpus and endowment fund income in 13 accordance with the University’s investment policy ap-14 proved by the Ohio State University Board of Trustees.

15 (b) JUDGMENT AND CARE.—The University, in in-
 16 vesting the endowment fund corpus and endowment fund
 17 income, shall exercise the judgment and care, under cir-
 18 cumstances then prevailing, which a person of prudence,
 19 discretion, and intelligence would exercise in the manage-
 20 ment of the person’s own business affairs.

21 SEC. 404. WITHDRAWALS AND EXPENDITURES.

22 (a) IN GENERAL.—The University may withdraw and
 23 expend the endowment fund income to defray any ex-
 24 penses necessary to the operation of the Institute, includ-
 25 ing expenses of operations and maintenance, administra-

1 tion, academic and support personnel, construction and
2 renovation, community and student services programs,
3 technical assistance, and research. No endowment fund in-
4 come or endowment fund corpus may be used for any type
5 of support of the executive officers of the University or
6 for any commercial enterprise or endeavor. Except as pro-
7 vided in subsection (b), the University shall not, in the 8 aggregate, withdraw or expend more than 50 percent of 9 the total aggregate endowment fund income earned prior
10 to the time of withdrawal or expenditure.

11 (b) SPECIAL RULE.—The Secretary is authorized to 12 permit the University to withdraw or expend more than 13 50 percent of the total aggregate endowment fund income
14 whenever the University demonstrates such withdrawal or 15 expenditure is necessary because of—

16 (1) a financial emergency, such as a pending in-
17 solvency or temporary liquidity problem;

18 (2) a life-threatening situation occasioned by a
19 natural disaster or arson; or

20 (3) another unusual occurrence or exigent cir-
21 cumstance.

22 (c) REPAYMENT.—

23 (1) INCOME.—If the University withdraws or
24 expends more than the endowment fund income au-
25 thorized by this section, the University shall repay

1 the Secretary an amount equal to one-third of the
2 amount improperly expended (representing the Fed-
3 eral share thereof).

4 (2) CORPUS.—Except as provided in section
5 402(e)—

6 (A) the University shall not withdraw or
7 expend any endowment fund corpus; and

8 (B) if the University withdraws or expends
9 any endowment fund corpus, the University
10 shall repay the Secretary an amount equal to 11 one-third of the amount withdrawn or expended
12 (representing the Federal share thereof) plus
13 any endowment fund income earned thereon.

14 SEC. 405. ENFORCEMENT.

15 (a) IN GENERAL.—After notice and an opportunity
16 for a hearing, the Secretary is authorized to terminate a
17 grant and recover any grant funds awarded under this sec-
18 tion if the University—

19 (1) withdraws or expends any endowment fund
20 corpus, or any endowment fund income in excess of 21 the amount authorized by section 404, except as 22 provided in section 402(e);

23 (2) fails to invest the endowment fund corpus
24 or endowment fund income in accordance with the 25 investment requirements described in section 403; or

1 (3) fails to account properly to the Secretary,
2 or the General Accounting Office if properly des-
3 ignated by the Secretary to conduct an audit of 4 funds made available under this title, pursuant to 5 such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by 6 the Comptroller General of the United States, con-
7 cerning investments and expenditures of the endow-
8 ment fund corpus or endowment fund income.

9 (b) TERMINATION.—If the Secretary terminates a
10 grant under subsection (a), the University shall return to 11 the Treasury of the United States an amount equal to the 12 sum of the original grant or grants under this title, plus
13 any endowment fund income earned thereon. The Sec-
14 retary may direct the University to take such other appro-
15 priate measures to remedy any violation of this title and 16 to protect the financial interest of the United States.

17 SEC. 406. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

18 There is authorized to be appropriated to carry out
19 this title $6,000,000 for fiscal year 2000. Funds appro-
20 priated under this section shall remain available until ex-
21 pended.
