RESOLUTION

Expressing Support for a National Week of Reflection and Tolerance.

Whereas America is a pluralistic country comprised of different races, genders, ethnic groups, religions, and creeds;

Whereas our Nation, founded on the principles of tolerance, diversity, justice, and equality, should affirm these common values and principles; and

Whereas Americans should reflect on the importance of understanding and tolerance in our pluralistic country:
Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That a National Week of Reflection and
2 Tolerance should be established encouraging communities
3 and institutions around the Nation to engage in events
4 and activities that are reflective, educational, celebratory,
5 and healing as they relate to diversity among Americans.
