105TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

S. 1493

To amend section 485(f)(1)(F) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 to provide for the disclosure of all criminal incidents that manifest evidence of prejudice based on race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or disability.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

NOVEMBER 9, 1997

Mr. TORRICELLI introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources

A BILL

To amend section 485(f)(1)(F) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 to provide for the disclosure of all criminal incidents that manifest evidence of prejudice based on race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or disability.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. DISCLOSURE.
- 4 (a) Short Title.—This section may be cited as the
- 5 "Campus Hate Crimes Right to Know Act of 1997".
- 6 (b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

- 1 (1) the incidence of violence on college cam-2 puses based on race, gender, religion, sexual orienta-3 tion, ethnicity, or disability poses a serious national 4 problem;
 - (2) such violence disrupts the tranquility and safety of campuses and is deeply divisive;
 - (3) hate crimes include crimes in which the perpetrator intentionally selects a victim because of the actual or perceived race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or disability of the victim;
 - (4) existing Federal reporting requirements only require colleges and universities to report hate crimes that result in murder, rape, or aggravated assault;
 - (5) existing reporting requirements are inadequate to deal with the problem of hate crimes since the vast majority of hate crimes that occur on college campuses do not result in murder, rape, or aggravated assault;
 - (6) existing reporting requirements are inadequate because the requirements do not require colleges and universities to report hate crimes that target victims because of the victims' gender or disability;

- 1 (7) omitting certain hate crimes from official 2 campus crime reports may result in a false sense of 3 security among students and apathy from campus 4 officials;
 - (8) omitting certain hate crimes from official campus crime reports deprives students and parents of the students of vital information necessary to protect the students against such crimes and to make informed decisions in choosing a college or university;
 - (9) requiring postsecondary institutions to report all hate crimes that occur on their campuses will provide students and parents of the students with vital information so that the students may better protect themselves against such crimes; and
 - (10) requiring postsecondary institutions to report all hate crimes that occur on their campuses will encourage college officials to raise awareness about such crimes and develop programs and strategies to combat such crimes.
- 21 (c) AMENDMENT.—Section 485(f)(1)(F) of the High-22 er Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(1)(F)) is 23 amended—
- 24 (1) by redesignating clauses (i) through (vi) as 25 subclauses (I) through (VI), respectively;

- 1 (2) by striking "Statistics" and inserting "(i) 2 Statistics"; and
 - (3) by adding at the end the following:
 - "(ii) Statistics concerning the occurrence on campus, during the most recent calendar year, and during the 2 preceding calendar years for which data are available, of all criminal incidents that manifest evidence of prejudice based on actual or perceived race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or disability that are reported to campus security authorities or local police agencies. The statistics shall be collected and reported according to category of prejudice.".
