4 (13) Section 1324(b)(2) of title 31, United

 6 riod “, or enacted by the Child Care ACCESS (Af-
 7 fordable Child Care for Early Success and Security)

12 TITLE III—QUALITY CHILD CARE 13 LOAN FORGIVENESS

14 SEC. 301. SHORT TITLE.

15 This title may be cited as the “Quality Child Care 16 Loan Forgiveness Act”.

17 SEC. 302. FINDINGS.

18 Congress makes the following findings:

19 (1) New scientific research shows that the elec-
 20 trical activity of brain cells actually changes the 21 physical structure of the brain, and that without a
 22 stimulating environment, a baby’s brain suffers.

23 (2) 12,000,000 children under age 6, and 24 17,000,000 school-aged children of working parents,

1 need child care. Demand for child care is growing as 2 more mothers enter the workforce.

3 (3) Good quality child care, in a safe environ-
 4 ment, with trained, caring providers who offer stim-
 5 ulating activities appropriate to the child's age, help
 6 children grow and thrive. Recent research shows
 7 that most child care needs significant improvement.

8 (4) Good quality child care depends largely on 9 the provider. Yet providers of child care earn on av-10 erage only $6.70 per hour or $11,725 per year. Such 11 earnings cause high turnover, which affects the over-
 12 all quality of a child care program and causes anxi-
 13 ety for children.

14 (5) Children attending lower-quality child care
 15 facilities and child care facilities with high staff 16 turnover are less competent in language and social 17 development.

18 (6) Low-income and high-income children are 19 more likely than middle-income children to attend
 20 child care facilities providing high quality child care.

21 (7) The quality of child care is primarily related 22 to high staff-to-child ratios, staff education, and ad-
 23 ministrators' prior experience. In addition, certain 24 characteristics distinguish poor, mediocre, and good-25 quality child care facilities, the most important of

1 which are teacher wages, education, and specialized 2 training.

3 SEC. 303. PURPOSES.

4 The purposes of this title are—

5 (1) to bring more highly trained individuals into 6 the early child care profession; and

7 (2) to keep more highly trained child care pro-
8 viders in the early child care field for longer periods
9 of time.

10 SEC. 304. LOAN FORGIVENESS FOR CHILD CARE PROVID-
